

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2478

Daoist Tianshui felt like his scalp was about to explode!

F * ck!

This guy actually cultivated the slaughter Dao!

Those who dared to cultivate the slaughter Dao at the 6th tribulation were all F * cking lunatics! A pervert!

In the upper realm, there were not many people who dared to cultivate this path, and all of them were ruthless people. He did not expect that there would be such a person in the lower realm. What a coincidence that he had bumped into him!

While he was still in shock, the punch with monstrous power arrived.

Bang!

A deafening explosion.

Then, there was a cry of pain.

Daoist Tianshui was sent flying like a cannonball, and he fell to the ground.

“Cough cough!”

By the time he got up, he was already in a sorry state.

“What a terrifying power! What a terrifying body!”

He was more and more shocked.

The punch just now allowed him to figure out his opponent’s real cultivation. He was only a three apertures master, one aperture lower than him, but the power he displayed was even stronger than his four apertures master. If it wasn’t for the Holy Temple’s standard armor, his head would have exploded.

“How can this guy be so fierce!”

He raised his eyes and looked at the figure in front of him with a face full of fear.

Then, he looked around, and his old face couldn’t help but blush.

Everyone in the mountain range was watching from afar. They had all seen him being sent flying by the punch.

He could even see the disdain and contempt in their eyes.

“Motherf * cker!”

He gritted his teeth and cursed.

This was great. He had lost all face in the lower realm. When the Holy region opened, this news would be sent back to the divine temple. At that time, he would lose all his face.

“Hmph! I was too careless just now. It’s just a tribulation, how could I be afraid?”

“Again!” He slapped his chest and yelled at Tang Hao.

“This battle armor is not bad!”

Tang Hao looked at him. His gaze moved back and forth between the armor.

“Of course! This is a nine tribulations armor made by the Supreme of the temple!” Daoist SkyWater patted his armor and showed off.

“It’s a pity that it’ll be gone in a while!”

Tang Hao smirked.

“Are you trying to steal my battle armor?” Hearing this, Daoist Tianshui was stunned.

Then, he burst into laughter.

He admitted that this guy was very strong, but he was only a little stronger than him. It was simply wishful thinking to think that he could take this armor from him!

Tang Hao did not say anything. His body flickered and he disappeared again.

When he reappeared, rays of divine light flew out from his body and danced around him.

Clang clang clang!

Divine light gathered and instantly assembled into a battle armor. The main body was black and made of some kind of divine bone. The torso was forged from Silver gold and iron divine materials, blooming with a piercing divine light.

On his chest, there was a particularly dazzling light, as bright as the light of the stars.

“Argh! It’s so eye-piercing!”

Daoist Tianshui was shocked, and he immediately raised his hand to cover it.

He was extremely shocked. What kind of armor was this? How could his aura be so powerful?

Also, what was that thing on his chest? why was the light so dazzling?

At this moment, he had countless doubts.

However, he didn't have much time to think. He immediately activated his armor and crossed his arms in a defensive posture.

Bang!

The opponent's punch was a solid one.

He immediately groaned, and his body trembled violently. He almost couldn't help but vomit blood.

"This power ... How is this possible?"

His eyes widened in shock.

His opponent's aura had actually risen to the level of five apertures. This ... Was too shocking!

All of this was due to the armor!

What kind of armor was this?

Which ancient Almighty created this?

"Break!"

At this time, a cold mumble exploded in his ears.

Then, to his horror, he saw the light on his opponent's chest suddenly expand and become more and more dazzling. An extremely terrifying aura burst out from this position and followed the punch.

Kala!

With a crisp sound, the armor on his wrist cracked open.

Then, there were a few more clattering sounds.

The crack expanded like a spider web, spreading in all directions.

"Don't be scared!"

"What?" Daoist Tianshui couldn't help but scream in disbelief.

This was the nine tribulations battle armor!

It was refined by a nine tribulation Supreme martial artist using top-notch divine materials. How could it be shattered?

His opponent was a mere three apertures venerable sovereign!

Bang Bang!

As the number of cracks increased, the two pieces of armor finally exploded.

The punch shot forward, shattering his arms and landing on his chest.

Pfft!

His body trembled, his face contorted, and blood spurted out of his mouth.

Then, like a cannonball, his body flew out again and fell heavily to the ground.

“This ... This is impossible ...”

This time, he didn't stand up quickly. Instead, he lay there, paralyzed, as if he had lost his soul, and mumbled to himself.

He was completely stunned.

A guy who had opened three apertures had shattered a nine tribulations armor with one punch!

He had never heard of such a thing!

“This guy ... Is too terrifying! And this armor, it must be a peerless armor, the number one armor below the celestial artifact!”

A moment later, he stood up and looked at the figure with fear and heat in his eyes.

In this world, fairy weapons were already very rare, let alone a piece of fairy armor. The number of fairy weapons could be counted on one hand.

Therefore, this battle armor could be ranked in the top ten even in the upper realm, and its value was hard to estimate!

“Your title is Haotian, right? Such big words! Do you think you can afford the title of Haotian? But I'll remember this name. We'll meet again!”

He raised his hand and wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth as he spoke with hatred.

With that, he flicked his sleeve, and his body turned into a divine light, soaring into the sky.

“Saint-level, huh ...”

Tang Hao put away his armor and stood there, watching the divine light disappear into the distance.

Then, he raised his head and looked up at the sky.

There were hundreds of people who had come this time, all of whom were at the eighth tribulation. This so-called divine temple emissary had a cultivation of four apertures, which was enough to show how powerful the sanctuary was.

“The existence of the Holy region should be to resist the invasion of the nine-colored clan. The stronger they are, the more I feel at ease.”

He said to himself.

After standing there for a moment, he turned back and entered the mountain Gate.

After briefly explaining the situation in the Holy region to Zao Huazi and the others, Tang Hao returned to his cave abode and took out the flesh and blood of the six ten thousand bloodied ferocious beasts that he had obtained from his trip.

Following that, he went to the medicine garden to pick many medicinal herbs and began to refine the great supplement pill.

With the opening of the Holy region, Pangu’s situation would change drastically. Under such circumstances, it was imperative to improve the strength of his disciples.

At the same time, he ordered his clones and souls scattered all over Pangu to gather information.

In the next few days, Pangu was bustling with activity.

With the arrival of the 100 venerable sovereigns, the existence of the Holy region had been completely spread.

Soon, news of the situation in the Holy region spread. For a time, some were happy and some were sad, and the situation in Pangu changed greatly.
