

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2486

Not long after Tang Hao entered the immortal abode, a giant ship appeared in the void far away from the sea of lightning.

On the boat, many figures stood still, all of them shrouded in the dazzling undying immortal radiance.

“That kid ... He really has some tricks up his sleeve.”

One of them mumbled as he looked in the direction of the sea of lightning.

“No wonder he could force you all into such a state by himself!” Then, he turned around and looked at the great void sect master and the others.

The great void sect master and the others laughed bitterly and their faces turned red.

Six venerable sovereigns couldn't do anything to a mere seven tribulations kid and let him grow. This was already shameful enough. What was even more shameful was that they were surpassed by this kid.

They were still stuck at one aperture, but that kid had already opened three apertures, far surpassing them.

When they thought of what had happened in the ancient sorcerer realm, they were both ashamed and angry.

That time, they had suffered a huge loss. Not only did they not manage to get their hands on the wizard fruit, but two of them had their rings stolen and all their treasures were gone.

Since then, they had been a little dejected and did not dare to make any more moves.

Now that the people from the upper province had come, their hope was reignited.

“Senior brother, you don't know how demonic this kid is. We really can't use common sense to estimate him!” The great void sect master laughed bitterly.

The person who spoke was someone from the great void sect. His cultivation was higher than his, so he naturally had to address him as senior brother.

In the upper region, the great void heaven and a few other orthodoxies formed a Dao field called the chaos Dao field. This person was called Xu mie and was one of the elders of the chaos Dao field.

“Hmph!”

Daoist Xu mie turned around, glared at him, and shouted, “useless fellow!”

Before he descended to the lower realm, he thought that after ten thousand years of development, the great void heaven would become the leading power of the 33 heavens and rule over Pangu. He did not expect the great void heaven to be a mess.

The great void heaven, an ancient orthodoxy, was actually turned upside down by a barbarian kid from the lower realm.

First, the eldest young master of this generation was crippled, and then the elder was killed ...

Now, even the Dao master, who was the master of a Dao, had been humiliated by that kid!

The current great void heaven was a joke!

The great void sect master lowered his head, and his face turned even redder.

“This brat ... Must die! If he doesn’t die, where will the face of the great void sect be?” The old Daoist Xu mie looked at the immortal mansion and said ferociously.

If this kid were to survive in the upper realm, the great void sect would become a laughingstock. He would be ridiculed by the other sects and clans. This was something that he could not tolerate.

“Senior is right, this child does deserve to die!”

“Right!”

The devil Dao ancient Emperor, Emperor Ling yang, and the others immediately agreed.

“If this kid doesn’t die, the Yao clan won’t be at ease!” A figure walked up to them. It was the envoy from the Yao clan in the upper province, Yao Hong.

“Fellow Daoist Xu mie, I didn’t expect that we could still work together in the lower realm. This time, it’s all thanks to you!”

He looked at the old Daoist Xu mie and cupped his hands with a smile.

“You’re too kind, fellow Daoist. That kid is our common enemy. We should work together to kill him ... Fellow Daoist Yao, you have to use your full strength later!”

As Xu mie spoke, he looked at a person at the back of the crowd.

“Good!”

That person nodded. “My Yao clan also has an irreconcilable enmity with that brat!”

He looked in the direction of the immortal abode, his eyes somewhat sinister.

The Yao clan of the eight desolates was too miserable!

The Saint child and the medicine master had died one after another. Even the ancient city of the medicine clan had been damaged. Their vitality had been greatly damaged. Now, the strength of the eight desolation medicine clan had been reduced to the bottom of the ten thousand races and was extremely weak.

All of this was because of that kid called Tang Hao.

“It’s a pity that the quota is limited this time. The night race and the others couldn’t come down. Otherwise, it would be very lively.” He sneered.

In the upper province, although the night race was not very strong, they had one or two venerable sovereigns.

“We don’t need them, the few of us are enough! As long as we can trap and suppress him, killing him will be as easy as turning our hands!” Old Daoist Xu mie smiled with a calm expression.

It was indeed difficult to kill an eighth tribulation expert, but there was a way.

“Let’s go! The earlier we kill that kid, the earlier we can be at ease!”

Old Daoist Xu mie waved his hand, and the ship under his feet immediately set off, speeding towards the immortal abode.

“What is this old man doing here?”

Above the sea of lightning, several temple messengers discovered the ship.

“Hahaha! He must be here to kill that brat. The great void heaven has been messed up so badly, how could Xu mie, with his fiery temper, endure it?” The Daoist of Tianshui laughed, overjoyed.

Now that old Daoist Xu mie and the others had made their move, that brat would be in for it!

“Forget it, we won’t bother about this matter. Whether that kid dies or not has nothing to do with us!”

The leading Messenger hesitated for a moment but did not stop him.

The warship charged into the sea of lightning and directly charged to the entrance of the immortal abode.

Then, the figures above flew out and entered the immortal abode.

“Look, Yao Hong from the Yao clan is here too. There’s also someone from the Yao clan. This isn’t a small show!” The Taoist of the sky water shouted excitedly. Then, he divided a part of his primordial spirit and followed them in, ready to watch the show.

When the other emissaries saw this, they couldn't help but separate a part of their primordial spirit.

Meanwhile, in the trial ground, Tang Hao was happily harvesting Emperor essence pills.

With his strength, it was a piece of cake for him to deal with the giant beasts of the first and second apertures. He pushed them all the way through, and the giant beasts exploded, dropping treasure chests one after another.

Soon, he had collected 12 Emperor essence pills.

His two avatars and demonic souls were harvesting in the distance. He had gained a lot as well. In total, he had more than 20.

Just these 20 monarch essence pills alone were worth his trip.

After clearing the first and second aperture beasts around him, Tang Hao focused on the third aperture beasts.

It was slightly more troublesome for him to deal with a three apertures giant beast. He couldn't blow it up with one punch like before, but he could do it with ten punches.

"This kid's body is indeed extraordinary! I heard that ... He alone obtained two wisps of Black Yellow ancient Qi?"

After entering the trial grounds, Xu mie and the others hid in a scroll, concealing their traces.

He looked at the figure that was fighting the giant beast from afar, and his eyes revealed extreme greed.

The xuanhuang ancient Qi was a Supreme treasure even in the Saint realm.

As long as he could kill this brat, he would be able to refine the ancient Qi and take it for himself!

"That's right! There are indeed two of them. Furthermore, he has many treasures on him!" The great void sect master replied.

"Then there's no hurry, let him collect. The more he collects, the more immortal essence he will consume, and the easier it will be to clean up." Old Daoist Xu mie said ferociously.

The group of them then hid in the scroll and waited.

As time passed, more divine lights entered the realm. There were spirit treasure Daoist, Xu Yuan Daoist, golden scales venerable sovereign, and many other venerable sovereigns from the upper province.

After they came in and understood the situation, they also began to fight for the giant beast.
