

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2490

Four figures stood majestically.

Their eyes were cold, and their fighting spirit was shocking. Rolling power spread out from their bodies and pressed toward the figure in front of them.

Each of the four venerable sovereigns had opened four apertures. Their Emperor pressure alone was already extremely powerful, not to mention that when the four of them joined forces, the four Emperor pressure gathered together and turned into a monstrous wave. The momentum was extremely terrifying.

At this moment, even the void was trembling.

The nearby mountains crumbled and were crushed into dust by this powerful force.

“What a terrifying aura!”

In the distance, numinous treasure path master and the others exclaimed in shock.

Even though they were so far away, this imposing manner still made them tremble in fear.

However, the figure remained unmoving in the midst of the violent wind. His handsome face was calm and composed.

“Just the four of you?”

He swept his gaze and said indifferently.

“Is four not enough? Kid, don’t be too arrogant!”

A venerable sovereign on the left, who was wearing a green armor, shouted angrily.

This kid was indeed powerful. He should be invincible among his peers, which was why the one from the Luo family had been defeated so miserably. However, they were all four acupores, which was enough to fight with this kid. The four of them together could easily defeat this kid.

“Don’t talk nonsense with him. You have to beat up such an arrogant kid first. Only when you beat him ruthlessly will he be convinced!”

A venerable sovereign in a blood-red Daoist robe in the middle shouted.

After he finished speaking, his figure moved and he rushed out first, sending a punch.

Then, the other three venerable sovereigns also rushed out and punched at him from three different directions.

In an instant, four terrifying fist forces tore open the void and struck at almost the same time.

Tang Hao was not afraid of the four venerable sovereigns.

He took a deep breath, and his eyes suddenly shone with divine light. A shocking battle intent burst out from his tall and straight posture.

Then, he took a step forward, clenched his fist, and punched forward.

“Hmph! You’re looking for death!”

The blood-robed Emperor sneered when he saw this.

Facing the four venerable sovereigns, this kid still didn’t use his armor. Wasn’t he courting death?

“I’ll blow up your immortal body!”

He laughed hideously, and the blood-red light on his body brightened. The power around him also soared.

The next moment, the two divine lights finally collided. The two fists collided with each other, creating a loud explosion.

In an instant, an extremely bright divine light burst forth, illuminating the entire world.

There was also a violent force that spread out madly, crushing the mountains in the surroundings into dust.

Kala! Kala!

In the midst of this loud noise, there was also a slight sound of bones breaking.

At the same time, it was accompanied by a muffled groan.

How did this happen?

At that moment, the blood-robed venerable Emperor’s eyes were wide open as he looked at his fist in horror.

Cracks actually appeared on his blood-colored crystal-like, sparkling and translucent fist, and it gradually shattered.

Moreover, the crumbling momentum continued to spread upwards, and his entire arm was about to be shattered.

‘How ... How is this possible?’

This was the famous Blood Immortal body, one of the hundred Immortals in the ancient times. It was the top immortal body created by the blood Immortal. This immortal body was famous for its strangeness. It could turn into blood light, fly in the sky, or turn into a body of Blood Crystal. Its body was harder than gold and iron.

Moreover, he was a four apertures master, one aperture more than this guy. How could he be blown up by one punch?

‘This kid ... What kind of monster is he?’

He raised his eyes and looked at the face in front of him. His mind could not help but tremble, and he was filled with shock.

Not only was this brat invincible among his peers, but he could also cross realms and crush them!

Bang!

A crisp sound.

In his horrified eyes, his entire arm exploded. He was also hit by a huge force and was sent flying.

“It’s nothing more than this!”

Tang Hao sneered after sending one of them flying. He swung his fist again at lightning speed and attacked the other three venerable sovereigns who were coming from three directions.

Bang Bang Bang!

Almost at the same time, there were three explosions.

Then, three muffled groans were heard.

The three figures that were charging towards him paused for a moment. Then, like cannonballs, they were sent flying back in a sorry state.

“This ...”

The venerable sovereigns were stunned again.

Their mouths were wide open, and their eyes were filled with horror.

That was a four apertures venerable sovereign, and the four of them had joined forces, but they couldn’t do anything to that kid. One punch at a time, and they were sent flying so easily?

This was too shocking!

Within the painting scroll, Daoist Xu mie was stunned for a long time.

Then, he fell silent, his face frighteningly dark.

This battle had exceeded his expectations again.

He felt his old face burning, as if he had been slapped hard again.

“He’s overpowered ... How can this kid’s strength be so shocking?!” He muttered to himself, his eyes malicious.

In the Holy region, there were not many people who could defeat those of a higher realm.

Moreover, in this battle, the kid obviously did not use his full strength, but he could defeat several four element Supreme emperors, which was the most terrifying thing.

He could not see clearly just how strong that kid was!

Could it be that his talent was really comparable to those geniuses who had entered the sequences?

He was a little shocked.

There were also many monstrous talents in the sanctuary. Among them, there were five at the top, known as the five great progressors. They were all treated as Supreme seedlings and were the hope of the sanctuary.

“No, in terms of talent, he might be stronger ...”

The more he pondered, the more shocked he became.

The five prologue were all from illustrious backgrounds. If they were not from the five great Daoist sects, then they were from the eight great clans. However, this kid did not come from such a good background. He had climbed up from the barren lower realm’s starry sky. Such a monstrous talent was undoubtedly even more terrifying.

“How can he be so strong?”

“How did this happen?”

The Holy region venerable sovereigns gradually came back to their senses and exclaimed again.

This time, they were even more shocked.

When they looked at the white-robed figure, they no longer looked down on him. There was only respect and shock.

They had thought that this kid would not be as strong as them, who had grown up in Pangu, but now they realized that they had been wrong.

This kid was ridiculously strong!

“It seems that you people from the sanctuary aren’t much!”

Tang Hao flicked his sleeve and said sarcastically as he looked around.

This group of people thought that they were from the sanctuary and looked down on him, a Pangu cultivator. He really couldn’t stand their overbearing appearance.

“Since you’re not willing to come at me together, I’ll do it myself!”

He shouted coldly.

The next moment, his figure flickered and disappeared. When he reappeared, he was in front of a sacred venerable sovereign.

Clang clang clang!

Rays of divine light flew out and the clear sky silk covered his body.

Buzzzzzz!

The core on the chest of the armor shook and instantly burst out with a brilliance as bright as the stars.

A surge of power surged through the core and into Tang Hao’s body. Then, he punched the sacred venerable sovereign’s chest.

Bang!

A deafening explosion.

Then, there was a cracking sound. The man’s armor shattered and exploded into Crystal Light.

At the same time, his chest also exploded.

In an instant, fresh blood splattered, dyeing the world red.
