

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2496

“This godly Thunder immortal mansion is really a great treasure!”

Tang Hao absorbed the lightning while staring at the immortal abode with a burning gaze.

This immortal abode came with the ancient thunder immortal formation, which could continuously draw down high-level Heavenly Thunder to replenish the energy of the battle armor and the core of the divine boat of creation.

This time, he had relied on the energy stored in these two treasures to activate the fairy weapon, resist the Supreme Decree, and finally kill a six acupores venerable sovereign.

Of course, it was entirely luck that he was able to kill the old Daoist Xu mie in the end.

After he destroyed the sovereign decree, the Daoist priest was so shocked that he didn't have time to react. That was why he took the opportunity to kill him.

Otherwise, he would not have been able to kill six planets Supreme Emperor with one strike, even if he had an immortal weapon.

It could only be said that old Daoist Xu mie was too unlucky. If he had reacted a little faster, he would not have died inside.

“This is a treasure left by the ancient thunder immortal. The divine temple must have spent a lot of effort to transform it into a trial ground. I'm afraid it won't be so easy to get it!”

Tang Hao gave it some thought and decided to give up on the idea.

It was already good enough to get 80 Emperor essence pills and some tribulation weapons.

“There are still many soul beasts inside, most of them have five apertures or above. If I can kill them all, I should be able to get a lot of Emperor essence pills, and maybe even an aperture opening pill!” Tang Hao pondered.

There must be more aperture opening pills in the trial ground. It was most likely the Overlord, the winged Dragon, who had nine apertures.

With his current cultivation, if it was a real nine-orifice raindragon, he would have no chance at all. But it was just a soul. Moreover, he had a fairy weapon in his hand and the support of the Thunder water, so he had a chance to grind it to death.

“I'll open another aperture first! The more apertures you have, the more confidence you have!”

Tang Hao sat cross-legged in the sea of lightning. He took out the aperture opening pill and popped it into his mouth.

The elixir melted quickly in his stomach, and rolling immortal essence gushed out.

The celestial core power was very pure and could be easily absorbed without any conversion.

When he was breaking through the second and third apertures, he had used the ancient Buddha's sarira flower and the divine fruit condensed from the witch's blood. They all needed to be transformed, and the efficiency was not as high as the aperture opening pill.

This was also the benefit of medicinal pills.

"What is this kid doing?"

Seeing Tang Hao sitting cross-legged in the sea of lightning, the temple emissaries all looked at him.

After seeing it clearly, their faces could not help but twitch.

F * ck!

This guy just swaggered around and broke through here. He was too bold, wasn't he? wasn't he afraid that they would secretly attack him?

For a moment, the sky water Daoist really wanted to control the Thunder formation and give that kid a good beating.

But after weighing the pros and cons, he still gave up.

That kid was too terrifying!

Even a Supreme Decree couldn't kill him, let alone a six acupores venerable sovereign. Such a fierce person must not be provoked.

In the sea of lightning, as the medicinal power of the pill was absorbed, a bright light gradually appeared on Tang Hao's right arm. It grew brighter and brighter, and it shone with a dazzling immortal radiance.

This was the fourth immortal aperture.

The first immortal aperture was above his dantian, the second was in the middle of his chest, and the third was his throat.

With this aperture opened, the amount of celestial core power his body could contain increased greatly.

Moreover, in the process of opening his aperture, the celestial core power in his body became more condensed and pure, and his flesh and blood became stronger.

After a long time, he finished absorbing the last bit of the medicinal power. He opened his eyes, and there was a touch of joy in them.

After opening another aperture, his strength had increased by quite a bit.

“Four apertures!”

“This kid isn’t even a hundred years old. His speed is too fast!”

The group of emissaries looked on from above and sighed.

Even in the sanctuary, no one could cultivate so quickly. This kid was really a bit of a monster!

“Hahaha! Congratulations, fellow Daoist!”

Then, they all congratulated him.

“You’re all too polite!”

Tang Hao stood up, stretched his arms and legs, and returned the greeting.

He spent another half a day filling up the cores of the armor and the divine boat of creation. Then, Tang Hao entered the trial ground again.

The void that had been broken had been repaired. The venerable sovereigns were still killing soul beasts and collecting treasure chests.

They stopped what they were doing when they saw Tang Hao. They looked at him in awe.

“Fellow Daoist Haotian!”

Many people cupped their hands and greeted him enthusiastically.

Their attitude toward this person had changed a long time ago. No one dared to look down on him, let alone provoke him.

“You’ve advanced to the fourth aperture so quickly. I really have to congratulate you, fellow Daoist!”

The ye clan’s old venerable sovereign even came over and greeted Tang Hao, as if he wanted to make friends with him.

“Fellow Daoist, your speed ... Really makes me feel inferior! Even in the Holy region, this old man has never seen anyone faster than you. My ye clan’s group of bastards are far from being able to compare to you!”

The ye clan’s venerable sovereign kept stroking his long beard. He looked at Tang Hao with a burning gaze.

He was envious!

If such a monster were to be born in his ye clan, he would wake up laughing even in his dreams.

“Fellow Daoist, the Holy region is about to open. You have to be careful!” After chatting for a while, the ye clan’s old venerable sovereign lowered his voice and said.

His expression turned grave.

“You mean ... The great void sect?” Tang Hao said.

“That’s right!” The old Thearch nodded and said, “the great void sect is a branch of the chaos dojo, which is one of the five great dojos. There are several Supremes in it and its strength is unfathomable.”

“If it was an ordinary elder, it wouldn’t be so troublesome to kill him. However, Xu mie is a high-ranking elder with real power. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have a Supreme Decree. Now that he’s dead, this matter will be troublesome.”

“Of course, Xu mie was in the wrong first. He took the decree to kill you. Thus, the great void sect will not punish you openly. However, it’s hard to say what will happen in secret. It’s better to be careful.”

“I understand!”

Tang Hao smiled and nodded.

Of course, he knew what the consequences would be if he killed Xu mie.

However, he didn’t care. Whether he killed Xu mie or not, the great void orthodoxies would still attack him. The result would be the same.

“It’s good that you understand!”

Thearch ye laughed. “By the way, there’s one more thing you have to be careful about. It might not be just the great void sect. Some other forces might also have some ideas about you. Fairy weapons are rare even in the Holy region!”

He gave Tang Hao a meaningful look.

“Thank you for the reminder!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands and smiled.

“It’s good that you remember. When you’re in the upper realm, you can come to my ye clan as a guest when you have time!”

After exchanging a few more words, the old Thearch ye left.

Tang Hao didn’t take his words to heart. He had thought about all these things before.

He looked around and fixed his eyes on a five apertures divine ape.

His body moved, and he rushed out, punching out.

With two or three simple punches, he killed the soul beast and obtained another Emperor essence pill.

Then, he pushed forward. He could easily kill five apertures and six apertures Masters. It would be a bit troublesome to kill seven apertures Masters, but he could kill them with his fairy weapon.

Soon, another dozen monarch essence pills were in his hands.
