

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2497

In the trial ground, the roars of beasts shook the sky.

All the sacred venerable sovereigns stopped.

There were no more early or mid great emperor realm beasts in this world. Even the seven apertures beasts had been slaughtered, leaving only a few eight apertures beasts and the Overlord hidden in the sea of clouds, the nine apertures Dragon.

Among them, the strongest was only at the five apertures level. If they used all their skills, they could deal with a seven apertures level soul beast.

However, an eight acupores soul beast was not something they could handle.

They could only stop and gather together to watch the battle from afar.

Their gazes were all focused on the same figure.

The figure stood in the air, surrounded by dazzling immortal radiance and shocking power, like an ancient God of War.

He held a treasured saber in his palms and continuously sent out rays of saber radiance, slashing forward.

Shua shua shua!

In front of him was a pitch-black demonic ROC. It was 30000 meters long, and when it spread its wings, it covered the sky and the sun. Its aura was fierce and terrifying.

In the beginning, when the saber radiance struck the pitch-black wings, only loud clanking sounds could be heard.

However, slowly, as the demonic ROC's strength was continuously consumed, the saber radiance could already cut off its wings.

Every time the blade light slashed, it would cut off a wing.

Soon, the demonic ROC's wings were completely cut off, and it looked extremely miserable.

At that moment, Tang Hao activated the bloody Butcher knife again and slashed out a shocking blade light.

Puchi!

A soft sound.

A 10,000-foot-long demonic ROC was slashed apart by the saber. The next moment, with a bang, its soul body exploded and disappeared.

A treasure chest fell down.

Tang Hao lifted his hand and retrieved the box. He opened it and saw that there were still earth restoration pills inside, but there were five of them instead of one.

“Not bad!”

He smiled happily and put away the five pills.

Emperor essence pills were good stuff, so naturally, the more the better.

“Another eight acupores devil!”

“How many is this? This is the third one, right?”

In the distance, the venerable sovereigns exclaimed.

They were all extremely shocked.

That was an eight acupores soul beast, and it was slaughtered!

“Is he going to slaughter all the eight apertures here?”

A venerable sovereign said in disbelief.

At the beginning of the trial, no one had thought that someone would be able to kill an eight aperture soul beast. Now, not only did someone do it, but it seemed like he was going to slaughter all the eight aperture soul beasts here.

When the fierce battle resumed, they no longer made a sound and only watched from a distance, their faces full of shock.

The fourth one!

The fifth one!

The eight luminaries soul beasts fell one after another.

Their hearts and minds were also more and more shocked.

“The last one!”

When the last one fell, the group of venerable sovereigns were stunned for a moment, then burst out in a burst of exclamations.

He really did it!

Slaughter all the eight apertures here!

This was too unbelievable!

“Heavens!”

Even the emissaries outside were stunned.

This trial ground had not been specially designed for Emperor Pangu. It had existed for a long time and had been opened several times in the Holy region, but no one had ever been able to kill all the eight-orifice soul beasts inside.

But now, this Pangu kid had done it.

“What is he doing?”

“Is he ... Crazy?”

A moment later, the venerable sovereigns exclaimed again. They were no longer shocked, but rather frightened.

In their line of sight, that figure stepped into the air, step by step. The sharp light on his body was like a rainbow, and he pointed straight at the giant beast in the clouds.

His target was the nine acupores Overlord!

“That’s nine apertures! Does he know how powerful this thing is?”

Some venerable sovereigns screamed.

“This is crazy! This was crazy! No one can challenge that thing, not to mention that he has only opened four apertures!”

The group of venerable sovereigns kept exclaiming.

They all thought that the guy was crazy to challenge the Overlord of this world.

This trial ground had existed for thousands of years and was targeted at early and middle venerable sovereigns. During this long period, many eight luminaries soul beasts had been killed, but no one had ever succeeded in challenging the Overlord.

Even a few of the five progressors had entered this place before, but none of them had challenged the Overlord.

“Even if he has a celestial artifact, he can’t possibly succeed!”

“Killing the eight luminaries soul beast has already consumed a large amount of his immortal essence. Does he still have enough immortal essence to grind this Overlord to death?”

No one believed that this person could really succeed.

That Winged Dragon was too powerful!

Moreover, not only were they destined to fail, but they might also be seriously injured. Many bold people had challenged it before, but in the end, they were still seriously injured by this Winged Dragon and could only escape in a sorry state.

Aooo!

A Dragon’s Roar shook the heavens.

The winged Dragon seemed to have sensed the battle intent and began to move. Its body, which was hundreds of thousands of feet long, swayed, and the wind and clouds in the sky changed wildly.

Hualala!

Heavy rain fell.

Then, a strong wind swept through the entire trial ground.

Tang Hao continued to walk up step by step. There was not a trace of fear on his face.

“Summoning the wind and rain? I know how to do it too!”

He let out a long roar, and his eyes blinked, suddenly turning into a pair of Golden Dragon eyes.

In an instant, the wind and rain around him stopped and then surged backward toward the winged rain-Dragon.

The winged rain-Dragon blinked and stared at him.

Then, he opened his Dragon mouth and let out a deafening roar. The raindrops in the sky immediately gathered and turned into countless water dragons that surged over.

At the same time, he pounced forward and swiped with his claws.

Clang clang clang!

Tang Hao took off his armor, put away his Bloody butcher’s knife, and went up to them.

Pa!

The claw immediately made him spit out blood. His skin burst open inch by inch, and he fell like a cannonball, smashing into the ground.

The four venerable sovereigns were shocked.

“Why did he keep the armor? isn’t he looking for death?”

They were all extremely puzzled.

“Again!”

With a long howl, the figure burrowed out from the ground and once again soared into the sky. The injuries on his body had long since healed.

Pa!

Another claw descended, and his flesh and blood exploded. He looked even more miserable than before.

However, he didn’t seem to care at all. After he landed, he immediately rushed out and charged toward the winged rain-Dragon.

Again and again, it just kept repeating.

The venerable sovereigns were all stunned.

They weren’t stupid, so they naturally saw through this person’s intention. He wanted to use his flesh and blood to wear down the strength of the winged rain-Dragon.

It wasn’t that no one had thought of this method, but no one dared to do it. Even if the venerable sovereign’s body could be reborn continuously, every rebirth would consume qi and blood, and there was a limit.

When you’ve reincarnated hundreds or even thousands of times, your body will be extremely weak and you can’t continue.

Moreover, even if they could be reborn, they could still feel the pain when they were injured. This was equivalent to being injured hundreds or thousands of times. Which venerable sovereign could bear it?

“That’s too ruthless!”

The group of venerable sovereigns murmured, completely shocked.

This man was not only ruthless to his enemies, but also to himself. This kind of person was someone with great perseverance. No wonder he could have such achievements before he was a hundred years old. Great perseverance and luck could create such a monster!
