

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2498

Bang!

The figure fell down again.

Then, it charged into the sky.

The venerable sovereigns were all shocked.

They couldn't remember how many times it had been. It might have been hundreds or thousands of times, but the figure was still charging forward, his momentum not reduced in the slightest.

On the other hand, the winged rain-Dragon's momentum had weakened a lot after being exhausted time and time again.

"How many times has it been? how can he still recover so quickly?"

"His qi and blood ... Are still very strong!"

The venerable sovereigns found it hard to believe.

If it were them, after so many reincarnations, they would have long run out of vitality and would find it difficult to continue.

"Look, Ying Long's aura has weakened a lot ..."

"If this continues, it won't really work, right?"

A moment later, seeing Ying Long's aura weaken again, the venerable sovereigns exclaimed again.

"This is impossible! Could it be ... He's going to make history?"

Above the immortal abode, the emissaries were also watching the battle.

Their expressions were filled with shock. This trial ground had been around for thousands of years, and the winged Dragon Soul beast had always existed. Almost no one had dared to challenge it, not even the five prologue Masters.

As time passed, everyone regarded this winged rain-Dragon as an invincible existence!

If this kid could really kill this winged rain-Dragon, he would have made history.

Peng Peng Peng!

A series of loud bangs rang out.

As the winged Dragon's aura continued to weaken, the crowd became more and more excited.

Some of them clenched their fists, some of their faces flushed red from excessive excitement, and some of them even held their breaths ...

Bang!

There was another loud bang.

Tang Hao fell again.

This time, after he stood up, he didn't rush up like before. He looked up and couldn't help but grin, revealing a smug smile.

Now, it was his turn!

Clang clang clang!

The clear sky silk!

Then, the bloody Butcher knife flew out.

He stomped his feet on the ground and shot up into the sky like a meteor. He then waved the treasured saber in his hand and slashed out a shocking saber radiance.

Whoosh!

The void was split into two by the saber radiance.

At the same time, the winged Dragon's scales were also cut open.

Aooo!

The winged rain-Dragon was injured and became more and more furious. It waved its giant claws and slapped over.

Tang Hao swung his saber and unleashed another saber flare.

A man and a Dragon began to fight in the sky.

Saber marks kept appearing on winged rain-Dragon's huge body. His aura weakened with each new mark.

"I'm sorry, senior!"

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he swung his sword again.

He had poured all his strength into this attack. The core of the armor and the power of the divine boat of creation were all drawn by him and poured into the immortal weapon.

Puchi!

The blade light flashed, and the huge body of the winged Dragon was split into two.

The winged rain-Dragon let out a sorrowful cry, and its huge body began to fall. At the same time, the scales on its body began to dissipate, turning into a golden light.

The venerable sovereigns in the distance were a little dumbfounded at the sight.

Even though they had already anticipated that the Overlord would fall, they were still shocked when they saw it for themselves.

“He really did it!”

A moment later, they all exclaimed in excitement.

The atmosphere instantly boiled over.

In the sky above immortal mansion, all the emissaries were dumbstruck.

It was already a miracle that he had resisted the Supreme Decree and killed a six acupores master. Now, it was another miracle that he had killed a nine acupores Overlord.

They had witnessed two miracles in succession!

“This kid ...”

The leader muttered and laughed bitterly.

At this moment, he was at a loss for words. No words were enough to describe the shock in his heart.

“This training ground is considered to be useless!”

After a long time, he muttered again.

This trial ground was supported by these soul beasts. If the initial or middle stage great emperor realm soul beasts were gone, the divine temple could still replenish them. But if the late stage soul beasts were gone, then there was really no more.

“I don’t know if it’s the psyche of that senior!”

Tang Hao mumbled as he hovered in the air and watched the falling winged rain-Dragon.

There shouldn’t be many winged Dragons of the ancient nine tribulations, so it was very likely that The Guardian beast of Kunwu was the only one.

“I wonder where that senior is now?”

He had encountered the skeleton of that senior in Qiyuan. Later on, he had also heard that the senior had come out of Qiyuan and entered the endless starry sky. Someone had even witnessed it.

But after that, he never encountered it again.

There were no traces of him in Kunwu heaven.

“We’ll meet again sooner or later!”

After a while, Tang Hao gathered his thoughts and descended.

There was a treasure chest where the winged Dragon’s corpse had disappeared.

This chest was clearly different from the previous ones. It was golden and extremely gorgeous.

He raised his hand and opened it.

In the next moment, his face turned blank.

There were indeed aperture opening pills inside, but not one, but three!

“F * ck!”

Tang Hao’s eyes widened. His eyes were burning with excitement.

Originally, he thought that there would only be one pill. Who would have thought that there would actually be three? this was a complete surprise.

“Three?”

“Heavens!”

When the four venerable sovereigns looked over, they were stunned.

Then, their eyes turned red with jealousy.

One aperture opening pill was very precious, let alone three. It could drive any venerable sovereign crazy.

If it was before, they would have swarmed up to snatch it, but now, none of them dared to. They could only watch and be envious.

“F * ck!”

At this time, the temple messengers were very depressed.

This time, they had brought four aperture opening pills. One was placed in the silver Marten's body, and the other three in the Overlord's body. This arrangement was actually to make things difficult for the venerable sovereigns.

However, they didn't expect a monster to appear and kill the overlord.

"One person got four! This kid is rich!"

The old Daoist of Tianshui's tone was extremely sour.

He was also extremely jealous.

"Congratulations, fellow Daoist!"

In the trial ground, a group of venerable sovereigns congratulated him from afar.

They didn't dare to move forward, afraid that this person would misunderstand.

"I've really struck it rich!"

Tang Hao put away the three aperture opening pills and laughed. He was in a good mood.

He cupped his hands to the venerable sovereigns and left.

"Fellow Daoists, thank you!"

After leaving the immortal abode, he smiled at the group of emissaries.

The group of emissaries all had ashen faces. They didn't want to let this brat off so easily at all. But they had no choice. This brat was too powerful. He even killed an Overlord. There was nothing they could do.

When they saw that the kid had absorbed the sea of lightning before he left, their faces twitched and they had the urge to vomit blood.

After leaving the immortal abode, Tang Hao used his fastest speed to travel through the void and return to the gate of fortune.

When he returned to the cave, he immediately went into seclusion and began to break through.

Out of the three pills, he swallowed two and kept one.

After absorbing the elixir, he successfully opened two apertures and advanced to the realm of six apertures.
