

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2500

After a long time, Ling Zhanxu finally regained his senses.

He could not stop smiling bitterly.

Six apertures meant he was in the middle to late great emperor realm.

How long had it been since the kid had reached great emperor?

“I was thinking too much. I was actually worried about you!” He shook his head and laughed at himself.

Then, he nodded and looked pleased. “That’s good. I don’t have to worry about you anymore. With your cultivation, you should be able to protect yourself even if you go to the Holy region.”

“You don’t have to worry!”

Tang Hao smiled. He was touched.

Among the few ancient clans that were related to him, he had the best relationship with this person. The Ling clan also supported him the most. When he had just advanced to the seventh calamity, this person had helped him a lot.

“I came here this time, firstly to retrieve the materials for the Grand Yan golden pill, and secondly, to give you something.”

As Tang Hao spoke, he took out a dimensional ring and handed it over.

This was something he had specially prepared for Ling Zhanxu.

Ling Zhanxu took it and opened it. He was stunned.

“It’s the sovereign Yuan pill, something from the Holy region. There are eight of them in total, and it’s enough to give you ten thousand blood.” Tang Hao smiled. “The situation will be chaotic from now on. It’ll be even more dangerous if we go up to the upper realm. It’ll be better if we have the ten thousand blood cultivation base.”

“How ... How can this ...”

Ling Zhanxu looked at the eight huge golden cores inside and was a little stunned.

These pills were too precious.

“No... I can’t take it!” Then, he pushed the ring back and waved his hand in a hurry.

“Take it!”

“You’ve helped me a lot in the past, senior,” Tang Hao said with a smile. “This is a small token of my appreciation to you!”

“This ...”

Ling Zhanxu was stunned. He looked at Tang Hao with a complicated expression.

“You’re so considerate!”

After a long time, he sighed heavily, his face full of emotion. “Good! I’ll accept this gift!”

As he said that, he took the ring back and put it away solemnly.

“I used to think that you’re a good kid and I really like you. As expected, my eyes are quite accurate. I didn’t choose the wrong person!” Then, he laughed heartily with a gratified expression.

“By the way, how’s that girl Ling Wei? how’s she doing?”

He asked again in a concerned tone.

Ling Wei didn’t stay in the Ling clan for long after she was brought here, but he liked her very much.

“He’s already out of seclusion. He’s already at the seventh tribulation. After a while, he’ll be at 10000 HP!” Tang Hao said.

“That’s good! That’s good!”

Ling Zhanxu slapped his thigh and said in relief.

“Boy Tang, I don’t care if you’re a Playboy, but you can’t neglect that girl. If I find out that you’re not good to her one day, I’ll definitely bring my blade to your gate of fortune.”

Then, he looked at Tang Hao and said sternly.

“Cough cough!”

Tang Hao felt a little awkward.

“Also, are you sure you can do it? You’ve been with Ling Wei for so long, why hasn’t there been any movement in your belly? As for the other few, the Qin clan and the Han clan, I don’t think they made any moves!”

“Little Phoenix, that girl, is quite clever and cute, but after all, she’s not my biological daughter, don’t you think so?”

As Ling Zhanxu spoke, he glanced at Tang Hao’s lower body, his expression strange.

Tang Hao was shocked. His face twitched.

F*ck! What did this mean? was he saying that he couldn't do it?

He was clearly very good, alright!

There was nothing he could do about it. He had tried his best, but perhaps because his cultivation level had increased too quickly and his realm was too high, sis Xiangyi and the others did not get pregnant.

He had always been troubled by this.

"This ... We'll leave it to fate!"

Tang Hao had no choice but to say that.

"What do you mean by" leave it to fate "? you brat, work harder!" Ling Zhanxu glared at him.

Tang Hao could only smile wryly.

They chatted for a while longer before Tang Hao stood up and left.

Before he left, Ling Zhanxu gave him a large number of materials for the Grand Yan golden pill, which was enough for him to refine a lot.

After that, he went to the Qin clan.

"Six apertures ..."

After learning of his cultivation, Lord Qin was also stunned for a long time.

Then, his expression turned gloomy.

When he was young, he was once a genius who dominated a region and was extremely proud. However, ever since he met this kid, he knew that his little bit of talent was nothing. This kid was the real monster!

"I've heard that in the Holy region, my Qin clan also has some strength. There are a few venerable sovereigns. This time, they didn't come down, but they asked someone to send a message. When the Holy region opens, I will go up to take a look."

"There's a wider world up there. Even if it's a little dangerous, it's nothing!"

When they were talking about the Holy region, Lord Qin said.

As he spoke, he was in high spirits and his eyes shone brightly. He was extremely fascinated by the sanctuary.

Tang Hao nodded approvingly.

Lord Qin had the same thoughts as him.

When he left the Qin clan, Tang Hao also left behind a dimensional ring with nine pills inside.

After that, he went to the Shi clan, the Jiang clan ...

He went to each and every one of the ancient race beings and left some treasures behind.

Among these ancient clans, the Ling clan and the Han clan did not have many forces in the Holy region and were hesitant about going up. However, the Shi clan and the Jiang clan were not small forces and had plans to go up.

He had visited all nine ancient clans.

The MU clan was the last to go.

Tang Hao still didn't see Xing Tong. The people from the cleansing clan told him that Xing Tong had gone to cultivate with her master and never came back.

Tang Hao was quite worried about that.

The star pupil body was special, and it was the body of the mysterious fairy. It might attract some covetous eyes because of this body.

After leaving the MU clan, Tang Hao went straight to the Yushi clan.

Apart from the nine great clans, he had the best relationship with the Yushi clan among the other ancient clans.

"Greetings, Celestial Emperor Hao Tian!"

Upon seeing him, Yu Shimin bowed and greeted.

She was wearing a blue dress with a Jade belt around her waist. Divine light flowed around it, making her slender and graceful. Her snake-like waist was outlined in this way.

The hem of her dress was split high, revealing a pair of slender, smooth legs.

Her face was even more beautiful and radiant.

The ancient mark between her brows added to her luxurious and mysterious temperament.

"You don't have to be so polite!"

Tang Hao could not help but smile wryly when he saw her.

"Yes, you are a venerable sovereign now! It's senior!"

Yushi min looked up and smiled mischievously.

Her beautiful eyes were fixed on the young man in front of her, and there was a strange light flashing in them.

Back when she reincarnated into the lower realm, the young man whom she had accidentally met had now become a venerable sovereign, a figure that even she had to respect!

“What senior!”

Tang Hao smiled wryly. “You’re too kind, my friend!”

“In the world of cultivation, isn’t it like this? the one with the highest cultivation level is the senior!” Yu Shimin chuckled. “Also, don’t call me ‘fellow Daoist’. I can’t accept that.”

She led Tang Hao into the hall and sat down.

“Then what should we call it?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“If you don’t mind that I’m older than you, you can call me Yan ‘er!”

Yushi min looked at him with her bright eyes and said in a charming voice.
