

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2503

“Seven Nirvana pills ...”

Tang Hao began to ponder after he left the Vermillion Bird heaven.

These seven Nirvana elixirs were enough to allow a ten thousand blood cultivator to successfully undergo Nirvana in a few months. After that, he would pass the Tribulation and become a monarch.

However, there was only one spot, so he was not sure who to give it to.

Sis Xiangyi?

There was no need for that for the time being. After the upper realm, sis Xiangyi and the others would definitely be with him. He would only be at ease if they could live in a mobile cave abode.

There were also many other candidates, such as Zao Huazi, fairy Yunrong, and Daoist Yin Feng.

After some consideration, he decided to give it to Zao Huaizi.

After all, Zao Huazi was the sect master and the face of the sect.

After making up his mind, he went to the spirit treasure heaven to see the Lord of the spirit treasure sect.

“Wood element tribulation weapons, the more the better!”

Tang Hao's goal was very simple. He was here for the wood element weapon.

Once the Nirvana was successful, the next step would be to undergo the Thunder tribulation. The Thunder of the eighth tribulation was too fierce. Without a large number of wood element tribulation weapons, it was almost impossible to survive.

Numinous treasure Dao master was also very straightforward. He immediately asked people to open the Treasury and take out all the wood element tribulation weapons.

In order to pass the Tribulation, Tang Hao had swept away all the wood element tribulation weapons in the spirit treasure heaven. In this period of time, the elders of the spirit treasure heaven had refined a large batch.

“It's not enough!”

After leaving the spirit treasure heaven, Tang Hao went straight to the Azure Dragon heaven.

This place had the most wood element tribulation weapons.

Then, Kunwu, Empress WA, yin-yang, Empress Xi ...

He strolled around these orthodoxies one by one and plundered the wood element tribulation tool.

Tang Hao returned to the gate of fortune with bags of wood element tribulation weapons.

He found Zao Huazi and told him about the idea of the creator.

“You want me to ... Break through to great emperor?”

Even Zao Huazi was stunned.

F * ck! Was it that easy to become a saint Emperor?

Not to mention Nirvana, just the lightning tribulation alone could kill people!

He really wanted to ridicule.

But before he could say anything, Tang Hao threw the Nirvana pills and bags of wood element tribulation tools over.

Zao Huazi was stunned.

Then, he trembled with excitement, his face red.

With so many Nirvana pills and a wood element tribulation weapon, there was indeed hope for him to become a divine Emperor!

“I didn’t think I’d have any hope of breaking through to great emperor!” Zao Huazi sighed with emotion.

Back then, he was stuck at the later stage of the 6th tribulation and didn’t even have a chance at the 7th tribulation.

Now, he was actually about to break through to great emperor.

This was like a dream!

“Why don’t we ... Give it to the young people?”

Zao Huazi was a little hesitant.

He also understood that there was only one spot.

“You’re the sect master!”

Tang Hao said.

“This ... Alright!” After pondering for a while, Zao huaizi nodded his head.

“Time is of the essence, you should quickly go into seclusion. Leave the sect’s matters to the elders below.” Tang Hao said.

“Alright!”

“Yes!” Zao huaizi replied and went to gather the elders.

After leaving the creation peak, Tang Hao went through the void channel and arrived at the Kunlun star.

He first went to see the old locust tree and told him about the sacred zone.

When the old locust tree heard this, he didn’t say much, only warning him to be careful.

Then, Tang Hao went to the main hall of Kun Lun to understand the situation of the sect.

Although he had invested a lot of resources, the overall strength of the Kunlun Sect’s disciples was generally lower than that of the creation sect. After all, the Kunlun Sect’s disciples came from the lower realm of the starry sky, so their starting point was much lower than that of the creation sect.

It would still take some time for Kun Lun’s strength to catch up.

As he left the main hall, Tang Hao caught a glimpse of a blood crocodile swimming in a huge Lake not far away.

“This guy ...”

Tang Hao’s heart skipped a beat as he looked at the blood crocodile.

This guy was not a human, but a descendant of the wilderness. His way of breaking through was different from that of the human race. He did not need Nirvana at all. As long as he had enough spiritual essence, he could break through.

“Should I ... Let this guy become a saint Emperor too?”

Tang Hao pondered.

This old Gator was truly a talent!

If this guy became an Emperor, it would be of great help to him.

He immediately headed towards the lake.

The old crocodile trembled when it saw him. It didn’t dare to act rashly and shrank back, not daring to move.

“My goodness ... It’s only been a few days, but this person’s aura has become even more terrifying!”

The old crocodile was shocked when he sensed the change in Tang Hao’s aura.

"If I give you a chance to become a divine Emperor now, what are your chances of surviving the lightning tribulation?" Tang Hao asked directly.

"Emperor?"

The old crocodile was stunned.

Was his Lord going to help him become an Emperor? There's such a good thing?

This happiness came too suddenly!

"100%! It's absolutely 100%!"

The old crocodile understood that this was a great opportunity. It was an opportunity that could not be missed, so he had to seize it.

Immediately, he scuttled out of the lake and flew up. He patted his chest with his thick claws and said confidently.

"Is that so?"

Tang Hao was a little suspicious.

That was the Tribulation lightning of the eighth tribulation, and even he felt that it was a little dangerous.

"Hey! You don't know this, but the lightning tribulation is nothing to my blood crocodile clan. It's as simple as eating and drinking." The old crocodile said smugly.

Then, he turned around and looked into the lake, and his tone fell.

"Please let me leave this place. I'm going crazy playing with those kids every day!"

The old crocodile cried.

In his eyes, those low-level sages were just a bunch of kids. They were extremely childish.

"Good! You're coming with me!"

Tang Hao flicked his sleeve. He produced a token and put the blood crocodile into it.

If he were to undergo tribulation, he would have to do it in the eight desolates.

After returning to the creation peak, he took some Emperor beast flesh and gave it to the blood crocodile. Then, he took the blood crocodile to the North Sea and let him cross the Tribulation on his own.

In the following period of time, the eight desolates became rather lively.

The emissaries of the Holy Temple kept opening the ruins, which had been modified by the Holy Temple. They were special training grounds, similar to the divine Thunder immortal abode.

However, the treasures inside were all different.

The divine Thunder immortal abode was full of elixirs, and they were all elixirs that could improve cultivation. In the next trial ground, there would be specialized tribulation weapons, cultivation techniques, divine materials, and other treasures.

Every time it opened, Tang Hao would go and join in the fun.

And every time they saw him, the group of Holy sanctum emissaries didn't have a good expression.

They had been seriously screwed over by this kid in the godly Thunder immortal abode, which had cast a shadow in their hearts.

Tang Hao had gained a lot from each trial ground. For example, he had collected a large pile of tribulation weapons. There were quite a few nine tribulations weapons, but he had no use for them, so he gave them all to his disciples.

In the blink of an eye, three months had passed.

After absorbing the Emperor beast's flesh, the blood crocodile had successfully survived the lightning tribulation and advanced to Emperor realm.

Then, the beggar also succeeded in Nirvana and went through the Tribulation in the North Sea. Although it was a little dangerous, he still successfully passed it and advanced to the eighth tribulation.

As a result, the sect had two more great emperors.

If he counted the two avatars, he would have the combat Power of Six Emperor-level experts.

At this point, he was truly at ease and had the confidence of the upper realm.

After another half a month, news finally spread.

Three days later, the Holy region opened.

For a moment, the entire Pangu continent was in an uproar. Many cultivators looked up at the sky from time to time.
