

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2517

“This God slaying banner ... Has some skill!”

Tang Hao sat cross-legged in the hall.

In front of him, a blueprint was floating.

A small drawing was enough to clearly mark the design of all the parts of a battle armor and the structure of the formation.

With Tang Hao’s attainment in talisman Taoism, he could tell the level of these formations with one look.

Grandmaster level!

There were not many blacksmiths who could reach this level.

However, in Tang Hao’s eyes, grandmasters were nothing. He could see many flaws with a single glance, and there were countless areas that could be improved.

“Forget it, I’ll just push them all down and redesign them!”

Tang Hao had wanted to improve on this Foundation, but after a while, he decided to push it over. This would make it easier for him to perform.

He stretched out his hand and wiped away all the formations on the scroll.

In a short while, new formations were carved on the wall.

Tang Hao breathed a sigh of relief after he was done.

The first step was completed.

With the blueprint, he just had to follow the instructions. It was very simple.

Previously, when he was in the devil burial abyss, he had refined seven to eight thousand tribulation weapons. However, they were all of different types. There were all sorts of weapons and battle armors. But now, ten thousand of them were all the same, making it even easier to refine.

He took out his dimensional bag and poured out all the materials inside.

In an instant, all kinds of divine materials piled up into small mountains. The divine light they emitted illuminated the entire Hall.

“Ice sea divine metal!”

Tang Hao stretched out his hand and made a grabbing motion toward the small mountain closest to him. Pieces of godly metal flew toward him.

BOOM!

The connate Red Lotus true fire gushed out and instantly refined the godly metal.

Then, he kept raising his hands. Piles of divine materials were taken and refined.

The first thing he did was to make the helmet. He consolidated it and engraved the formation in one go. In one batch, he could make up to a hundred of them. After he was done, he piled the finished product aside and continued to make the helmet, making another batch of a hundred.

As he refined, he became more and more skilled, and his efficiency also increased greatly.

As a result, batches of helmets were continuously refined by him, and they were piled up into a mountain in the hall.

In less than twenty days, he had finished refining the head.

Then, it was the torso, then the arms, the legs ...

One by one, the parts were refined.

This refining process took him several months.

And in the outside world, because of this upper realm trial, there was also quite a big commotion.

After the trial ended, the results of the trial were spread, causing a sensation in the entire Holy region.

A monster comparable to one of the five progressors had shocked countless sanctuary cultivators.

In the eyes of the cultivators of the sanctuary, the lower realm was a backward place where even venerable sovereigns were hard to come out of. However, they did not expect that there would be a young venerable sovereign who had opened six apertures before the age of 100.

And what this monster had done was even more shocking.

Carrying the decree, slaughtering the venerable sovereign, with just the cultivation of three apertures, he could push down the group of emissaries from the lower realm. He was so fierce!

Moreover, he had also killed the winged Dragon in the trial ground, which had surpassed the results of the five prologue.

He was extremely talented and extremely arrogant!

This was the first impression that everyone had after hearing these stories.

When they heard that this man had a falling out with the Tang clan's emissaries and went to the divine temple instead of the Tang Clan, it further confirmed their thoughts. This demon was too arrogant and didn't even put the Tang Clan in his eyes.

Many of the Saints laughed at this.

They felt that this monster from the lower realm was too arrogant, so much so that he was a little stupid.

To a cultivator in the Holy region, it was a matter of no concern whether he would enter the Tang Clan or the divine temple. Of course, the Tang Clan would be better. With his talent, if he entered the Tang Clan, the Tang Clan would certainly nurture him and help him reach the nine acupores level easily.

And after entering the Saint Palace, how many years would it take to gather enough merit points to exchange for three aperture opening pills!

After hearing that this demon had exchanged for 10000 sets of blacksmithing materials in the divine temple, the mocking voices in the Holy region grew even more.

He actually chose to refine a weapon, and he even chose a battle armor. What was even more unbelievable was that he actually exchanged for ten thousand sets. Could it be that he was prepared to refine for a few hundred years!

"I really don't know what this person is thinking!"

"I heard that it's very lively in the temple right now. Everyone is talking about him and laughing at him! There are even people who are betting on how long it will take him to finish refining it!"

The world kept mocking him.

And in the great void sect of the antiquity Palace, there were even more such voices.

Xu mie was killed and many people from the great void sect were holding their breaths. They were waiting for that demon to come out of seclusion and challenge him.

In addition to this demon, there were many other highlights in the upper realm trial, such as a young venerable sovereign named Liu heihu, who had become a positive image promoted by the divine temple.

The pillar of the team, Liu heihu!

Supreme Xuan Hong of the sacred Hall took the lead in boasting, and the group of people below followed suit, creating an incomparably glorious image.

Zhu Li and young master Li of the Vermillion Bird orthodoxy also attracted the attention of many people.

Not long after the trial ended, the situation of the Sorcerer tribe and the descendants of gods also spread. It was said that there were a few monstrous talents who were worthy of the five prologue, which caused a heated discussion among the people.

However, these races were rather mysterious, and very few people knew the details.

Since it was so lively outside, it was naturally the same inside the divine temple.

The xiuzhe in every Pavilion were all discussing this new elder Tang.

They were a little surprised. When they first heard about elder Tang, they thought he was just an ordinary venerable sovereign. They didn't expect him to be such a monster.

However, they still laughed at him for being stupid and coming to the divine temple instead of the Tang Clan. The 10000 sets of refining materials were still a joke.

When many cultivators passed by the Haotian cave dwelling, they would stop and look at it for a while, with a bit of mockery on their faces.

Four months passed in the blink of an eye.

On this day, at the entrance of the Haotian cave abode, the void suddenly rippled, and a figure stepped out.

Many people who passed by were stunned.

"That seems to be ... Haotian's cave abode, right?"

"That's right! Could that person be ..."

They looked at the white-robed figure in disbelief.

It had been more than four months, and they finally saw the celestial Emperor who had shaken the Holy realm!

"It's only been four months. Why is he out already?"

Then, they were puzzled.

Four months ago, didn't he go to the tool Pavilion to get 10000 sets of materials and go into seclusion to refine tools? why did he come out in four months?

None of the other elders from the lower realm had come out of seclusion.

"I guess he's only refined a few and is preparing to exchange them! You see, he's heading towards the tool Pavilion!"

"Hey! This is going to be interesting! Hurry up and take a look!"

The few cultivators immediately revealed excited expressions and followed the white-robed figure all the way to the tool Pavilion.

Along the way, many people noticed them. After hearing about the situation, they also followed.
