

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2528

Tang Hao gave the orifice clearing pill to mo hun when they returned to the cave.

His demonic soul had also advanced to the nine apertures level.

In this way, he had the combat power of three nine apertures Masters.

This kind of power was enough to establish himself in the Saint realm.

He continued to refine the God slaying banner, and four months passed in a flash.

“Elder Tang has come out of seclusion!”

When he stepped out of the cave again, the temple was in an uproar.

“Hello, elder Tang!”

“Greetings, elder Tang!”

Countless temple cultivators came from all directions and rushed to greet him, their expressions warm.

“You guys are ...”

Tang Hao was shocked. He found it odd.

“Elder Tang, you’re unparalleled in the path of crafts and your attainment in the path of talismans is shocking. We’re all here to visit you because we admire your elegance!”

“Yes, yes! At such a young age, elder Tang has already reached the peak of alchemy and blacksmithing. You are truly a godly person!”

All the cultivators began to flatter him enthusiastically.

They weren’t embarrassed at all. All kinds of flattery came from their mouths without even blushing.

“Speak! What’s the matter?”

Tang Hao smiled and shook his head when he heard that.

“Hehe! Elder Tang, look, I have a blueprint here. I wonder if you can take a look and give me some suggestions on how to modify it?”

A xiuzhe came forward and handed over a forging blueprint.

“Elder Tang, I would like to ask you to help me refine a treasure. These are the materials. Don’t worry, I will definitely pay you more than what we have in the hall.”

There were also xiuzhe that came up with a bag of materials and said respectfully.

“Elder Tang, I’d like to ask you to help me refine a pill ...”

“Elder Tang ...”

The other xiuzhe also came forward and took out the materials they had prepared.

Tang Hao looked around and understood.

It turned out that these people were here to entrust him with forging and refining pills.

Tang Hao’s eyes brightened when he heard their offers. The prices they offered were indeed many times higher than the palace’s.

He could only exchange a God slaying banner for 10 merit points, but these people’s bids were all over 100 merit points. It was indeed a good deal.

However, it only looked worthwhile.

These people wanted to refine different things and there were many types. They couldn’t refine them in batches like the God slaying banner and their refining speed would be reduced.

He did some calculations. Although the price was more than ten times higher, the overall efficiency was about the same.

He weighed the pros and cons for a while, then nodded and decided to accept the challenge.

If the overall efficiency was similar, he would not be at a disadvantage.

And most importantly, it was a favor!

He had just arrived, so of course he had to build a good relationship. With a good relationship, it would be convenient for him to do anything.

Moreover, these people were all venerable sovereigns, and there was no lack of half-step Supreme sovereigns. It was very important to be on good terms with them.

“Good! I’ll take it!”

“Alright! It’s very simple. Don’t worry, I’ll definitely make the best for you!”

Tang Hao smiled as he accepted the gifts.

All the cultivators were overjoyed.

“Then I’ll leave it to elder Tang!”

“Elder Tang, I’m definitely going to make friends with you. If you need anything in the future, just tell me!”

Their attitudes were all very warm, and some even began to call each other brothers.

They were all very shrewd. Putting aside his cultivation talent and whether he had a chance to advance to the Supreme-being realm in the future, just his peak-level alchemy and tool refinement techniques were worth their efforts to make friends with.

“Alright, let’s not crowd around. Elder Tang has come out of seclusion. He must be going to the tool Pavilion. We can’t delay his business!”

A moment later, someone stood out and shouted.

Everyone came to their senses and stepped back to make way for him.

“Elder Tang, please!”

They crowded around Tang Hao and headed to the tool Pavilion.

“That’s elder Tang!”

“Elder Tang has come out of seclusion!”

On the way, many xiuzhe saw and cried out in surprise.

They looked at the figure in front of the crowd, who was being surrounded by people. Their expressions were somewhat fervent and Worshipful.

What happened a while ago caused a huge sensation in the divine temple.

Ten portions of aperture opening pill’s ingredients, ten pills were formed!

This kind of world-shocking alchemy technique shocked everyone in the divine temple.

What was even more shocking was that he wasn’t just accomplished in alchemy. He was even more skilled in craftsmanship. He was regarded as the number one in the Holy region. He had reached the peak of both alchemy and craftsmanship.

And his age had not even exceeded a hundred!

This was the most shocking part.

As sanctuary cultivators, they had seen many monstrous talents. For example, the five progenitors were all world-shaking geniuses. Even in ancient times, they would be top geniuses. However, they had never seen such an all-rounded genius.

Of the five prologue, there were indeed a few who had some achievements in the Dao of elixirs, weapons, and arrays, but most of them were specialized in one Dao and had not reached such a high level of attainment.

This elder Tang was the true all-rounder.

Then, many people followed the group and went to the tool Pavilion.

At this time, in front of a cave abode in the cave abode area, there was a wave in the void.

A figure walked out.

“Hahaha! I’ve finally finished refining it!” As soon as he came out, he laughed out loud, his expression happy and proud.

This person was none other than the old demon desolate evil.

“My alchemy skills haven’t deteriorated at all. They’re still as sharp as ever.” He waved the fan in his hand and said somewhat narcissistically, “back then, my alchemy skills were the best in Pangu, and I suppressed those human alchemists so much that they couldn’t even lift their heads!”

“Isn’t it just an Emperor Yuan pill? It was too simple! Other people might need a few years, but I only need nine months!”

He took out a bag full of monarch essence pills, a total of 10000 pills.

“10 pills for 1 merit point. There are more than 1000 merit points here. I can earn 1000 merit points in nine months. I’m really amazing!”

He weighed the bag in his hand and grinned from ear to ear.

He was so happy!

Other people could only earn a hundred merit points after a year of hard work, but he had earned a thousand in nine months. It was many times faster.

As expected, he was the most outstanding and the most powerful.

“Go! Let’s exchange for treasures!”

He carried the heavy bag, hummed a little song, and swept forward.

At this moment, he was so happy that he could fly.

The aperture opening pill was already waving at him ...

He would soon recover his cultivation and return to his peak.

After that, he would prepare to break through to the ninth tribulation and surpass the peak of the ancient times to become a Supreme level Almighty!

Just the thought of it made his blood boil and he was extremely excited.

He hummed a tune as he entered the pill Pavilion.

Then, he hummed a tune and walked out with light steps.

He was filled with joy and happiness.

Soon, he hummed a tune and entered the Treasury. He slapped the token on the counter and shouted, "Give me two aperture opening pills!"

However, the next scene left him dumbfounded.

Behind the counter, an old man didn't even look at his token. He raised his head and said expressionlessly, "Aperture opening pill, no more!"

The wooden expression and the cold voice were like a bucket of cold water that was poured on his face, making him feel cold from head to toe.

He was stunned on the spot, as if he was petrified.
