

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2530

“Elder Tang, these are the treasures you wanted. They are all inside!”

“Elder Tang, do you have time now? Why don't I make a few aperture opening pills? you don't know, but I'm lacking too many pills right now and can't make up for it. I'll have to ask you for help. ”

“That's right, elder Tang, please refine some aperture opening pills!”

“A 100% success rate. Who in the divine temple is more powerful than you, elder Tang ...”

Ear-piercing sounds entered his ears.

As the old demon of desolation heard this, his expression became more and more dazed.

What had happened in the nine months that he had been away?

Why did it feel like the entire world had changed?

A 100% success rate, was that referring to the aperture opening pill?

This was ridiculous!

How could a God-level pill like the aperture opening pill have a 100% success rate? This was simply impossible!

He looked dazedly at the group of temple cultivators rushing down and surrounding the kid. They all had expressions of passion and worship.

How did this guy become so popular?

The old demon of desolation could not understand.

At this moment, he had too many questions in his heart.

When he saw the group of people leave, he came back to his senses and found someone to ask.

After hearing this, he was stunned again.

That kid ... Was he really human?

He had reached the peak in both the Dao of alchemy and the Dao of blacksmithing. Even in the era of the ten thousand emperors, there had not been such a monster!

“As expected, this kid finished exchanging for the aperture opening pill!”

He gritted his teeth again, his face full of hatred.

Every time, it was this brat who screwed him over miserably, and now it was him again!

If it wasn't for this kid, he could've exchanged for two aperture opening pills and returned to the peak of his demon life!

"You brat, just you wait. When I reach the ninth tribulation, you'll see how I'll deal with you!" He snorted in anger.

10,000 years ago, he had been preparing to cross the Tribulation. If he hadn't been tricked later, he might have been a nine tribulation demon venerable long ago. Therefore, as long as he recovered to his peak, he would be able to cross the Tribulation very soon and attempt the ninth tribulation.

However, that kid had just opened nine apertures and still needed to cultivate the true spirit technique. He was still far from the Tribulation!

As long as he advanced to the ninth tribulation one step ahead of time, he would have a chance to take revenge.

After cursing for a while, he went to the alchemy Pavilion, collected some materials, and went back to cultivate in seclusion.

On the other side, Tang Hao bid farewell to the other cultivators and returned to his cave abode.

He had gone to the elixir dispensary the moment he came out of the treasure vault. He had collected thirty sets of aperture opening Elixir's materials in one go. In addition to the various commissions he had received, he estimated that this trip would take about half a year.

Just thirty portions of aperture opening pill's ingredients, if one furnace was made every two days, would require two months.

Although it was time-consuming, he still needed to make this pill. He still needed a lot of aperture opening pills.

The old crocodile alone needed eight more.

After that, he still had to prepare the eight pills for Zao huaizi.

Therefore, he had to refine it.

As for the other commissions, they were very complicated. Adding all of them up, it would probably take about four months.

He returned to the hall, tidied up the items, and then began to refine.

He first refined the pills and spent two and a half months to refine all the pills. Then, he refined the Tribulation weapon.

For each tribulation tool, he had modified the formation and increased their power by a lot.

This way, he would be worthy of the reward of hundreds of merit points.

Half a year passed by in a flash.

When he came out of seclusion, the Holy Temple was in an uproar again.

The xiuzhe that had come to get the treasure had surrounded the door of his immortal's cave. The atmosphere was extremely warm.

After getting the treasure, they were all stunned.

The power of these treasures was much stronger than they had expected.

"As expected of elder Tang!"

"This talisman Dao ... Is too awesome!"

They all exclaimed in admiration, and their admiration for this person's craftsmanship grew.

Surrounded by the crowd, Tang Hao went to hand over the pills. He took eight of them, then went to exchange them for a large number of treasures.

He didn't take on any more missions. It had been one year and three months since he entered the Saint Palace. He had basically been in seclusion, refining weapons and pills non-stop to earn merit points and Exchange for treasures.

He had earned quite a bit, around 400000 merit points, which he had exchanged for dozens of aperture opening pills and countless other treasures.

His strength had also improved greatly. Not only him, but his origin core avatar and demonic soul had also advanced to nine apertures.

It was time to take a break.

He had been in the sanctum for a long time, but he had never gone out. He had been cooped up in the Holy sanctum, and he didn't know what had happened in the past year.

He wanted to explore the Holy region and broaden his horizons.

Also, he needed to think about the cultivation method of the true spirit realm.

"Vermilion Bird, Black Tortoise, Azure Dragon, White Tiger, true dragon, Yellow Dragon ..."

Tang Hao looked at the pile of Jade talismans in front of him with a troubled expression.

These were the cultivation techniques of the true spirit realm that he had exchanged for.

There were indeed many cultivation techniques in the Saint Palace. There were thousands of true spirit cultivation techniques alone. As long as one had enough merit points, they could be exchanged at will. He exchanged for all of them and looked through them one by one.

This true spirit cultivation method, to put it bluntly, was a high-level soul cultivation method.

When cultivators went through the second tribulation, their souls would be refined by the lightning tribulation and evolve into the primordial spirit. Now, it was time to cultivate the primordial spirit and evolve it into the higher level of the true spirit.

There were many cultivation methods for the true spirit. There were the four symbols, Dragons, phoenixes, ancient divine beasts, and ancient gods.

In short, there were all sorts of things.

Tang Hao was not satisfied with any of them.

He was very picky about his cultivation techniques. The chaos Scripture that he had cultivated before could be said to be a rare and wondrous Scripture that allowed him to cultivate the top-tier chaotic immortal body in one fell swoop. Now, he naturally couldn't be careless with this true spirit technique.

After all, this cultivation technique was directly related to the success rate of transcending the Tribulation.

"Oh right, ancestor of technique ..."

Tang Hao thought of the ancestor of technique when he thought of the chaos Scripture.

Previously, he had asked around. Although there were many Supremes in the sacred Hall, none of them fit the ancestor of technique's characteristics. This made him very suspicious.

He could only guess that this person wasn't a Supreme of the sacred Hall. Furthermore, the title he used wasn't the ancestor of technique or the name Dao San.

"There's also that Dao Jiu. He has some connections with the ancestor of technique. Previously, he disappeared in Qiyuan. I wonder if he's in the Holy region!"

Tang Hao still had many questions about the ancestor of technique.

"Let's go to the Holy region first! When I come back, I'll go to fallen Dao mountain again!"

Tang Hao thought for a moment and came up with a plan.

He did not bring sis Xiangyi and the others with him. Instead, he left them in the cave abode. After all, the divine temple was the safest place.

"Elder Tang, you're going out?"

When he walked out of the cave dwelling again, many elders who had come to entrust the forging of weapons were stunned when they heard this.

“Elder Tang, this is a map of the Holy region. It’s marked in detail. It might be of some help to you.” One of the elders handed Tang Hao a map.

“Many thanks! Don’t worry, I’ll be back soon!”

Tang Hao took it and thanked him with cupped hands.

Then, he bade farewell and headed toward the gate of the Holy sanctum.
