

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2534

“A more handsome one?”

Tang Hao was confused.

As it turned out, he had guessed correctly. The Tang clan’s people had taken a fancy to that fellow because of his looks.

“Silver Dragon? Could it be a female dragon?”

Tang Hao’s expression turned strange.

This Silver Dragon should be from the demon race and had changed its form. Otherwise, the Tang Clan wouldn’t look for xiuzhe.

In the Holy region, there were indeed many demonic clans. Among the 3000 Taoist sects, there were several demonic forces.

“It might be a Silver Dragon of the eighth tribulation ...”

Tang Hao’s eyes lit up.

The flesh and blood of an eight tribulation demon was good stuff. Moreover, it was a Silver Dragon, a member of the dragon clan, and its bloodline was very precious.

“By the way, the silver dragon’s blood seems to have the effect of enhancing that kind of function.”

The Dragon race was lustful, especially the silver Dragon, which was the most powerful among them. Its blood naturally had that kind of function. It was said that many ancient cultivators liked to use the blood of silver dragons to refine pills in this area.

Of course, even in the ancient times, silver dragons were extremely rare, so very few xiuzhe could afford to cultivate them.

Tang Hao had seen many similar pill recipes in ancient books.

“It seems that research has proven that the blood and flesh of the silver Dragon can not only boost the sex drive, but also enhance the vitality of that thing ...”

Suddenly, Tang Hao’s expression changed.

He had read in a certain alchemy Scripture that there were ancient mighty figures who liked to eat the flesh and blood of silver dragons to increase the chances of reproducing the next generation.

Moreover, it seemed to be working.

“This function can be explored.”

Tang Hao mumbled.

This function was very important to many advanced Saints.

The stronger the xiuzhe, the lower the chances of reproducing the next generation. At the seventh or eighth tribulation, it was even more so. Many people worked hard for thousands of years and might not be able to give birth to one.

So in many factions, it was the bottom-level xiuzhe who worked hard to maintain the growth of the population.

“Maybe I can use the silver Dragon’s flesh and blood to make a pill, a pill of many children and grandchildren!”

Tang Hao had an idea.

In the cultivation world, there were many rare elixirs with similar functions. He could try it and create a new kind of elixir.

This pill would definitely benefit the world!

The higher the cultivation base, the stronger the bloodline, and naturally, the stronger the talent of the next generation. If this batch of people had more children, Pangu would be able to give birth to a large number of monstrous geniuses.

“Mm! This is a good idea!”

Tang Hao thought about it and felt that it was feasible.

While he was thinking, the group of Tang Clan cultivators had already left the restaurant.

Tang Hao watched them closely.

A few hours later, they found three male cultivators in the city of delicacy, all of whom were extremely handsome and elegant.

However, at this moment, the three of them had ugly expressions and were trembling.

What good could it be if he was invited by the Tang Clan?

If there was really something good, it wouldn’t be their turn.

“Don’t be afraid, I just want to ask you for a small favor!” The elder of the Tang family said with a smile, “do you know that a lewd demon has appeared in the blood Moon Mountain recently? I would like to ask for your help to lure him out. ”

The three men's faces turned pale and they almost fainted.

Of course they had heard of that perverted demon. He was clearly a man, but he targeted male xiuzhe. After playing with them, he would even suck their essence dry. His methods were extremely cruel.

Moreover, it was said that this guy specifically targeted young and beautiful male cultivators, and the male cultivators there were all anxious.

"No! I don't want to!"

A xiuzhe collapsed on the ground and said in panic.

It was said that the old monster was an 8th tribulation expert while they were only 5th tribulation experts. If they fell into the hands of the old monster, they would die miserably.

"Woof! This is not up to you! You'd better think about the consequences of rejecting my Tang Clan!"

The elder of the Tang family sneered.

The three of them immediately fell silent, their faces turning paler.

In the Holy region, no one dared to offend the Tang Clan.

If their clans were implicated because of this, they would be the sinners of their respective clans.

"Since you have no objections, then let's go!"

The elder from the Tang family smiled and walked toward the city gate.

Soon, the group of people left the city gate and flew out.

After a while, Tang Hao left the city and followed her.

The elder's cultivation base was slightly higher than the rest of the group. He had opened seven apertures, so Tang Hao was not afraid of being discovered.

"You go there, you go there ..."

When they arrived near the Blood Moon Mountain, the group stopped. Then, the three baits were sent to three different places, all of which were the markets near the mountain range.

It was obvious that the Tang Clan wanted the three of them to walk around the market to attract the silver Dragon's attention.

After the three of them left, the Tang family's group swept to a nearby Valley and laid in ambush.

Tang Hao also waited in the distance.

When he was bored from waiting, he took out the alchemy Scripture and flipped through it, thinking about creating a new Alchemy recipe.

About six hours later, a bait returned and headed towards the valley.

Tang Hao activated his heaven's eye and scanned the area behind him. There was no movement. The bait had failed.

He lowered his head and continued to study the pill recipe.

Two hours later, another bait came back. Behind him, there was a tail following him.

"They're here!"

Tang Hao's heart skipped a beat.

Before they reached the valley, the person following them couldn't help but reveal himself from the void.

"Hahaha! What a beautiful man, I'm in luck today!"

He laughed out loud and reached out with his palm. It turned into a giant palm and grabbed at the xiuzhe in front of him.

Tang Hao was stunned when he saw that.

F * ck!

Male!

In an instant, countless "F  K you" words ran through his mind.

The Tang family didn't mention its gender, so he thought it was a female dragon. He didn't expect it to be a male dragon.

This Silver Dragon had quite a Special Hobby!

He mumbled with a strange expression.

At this time, the xiuzhe turned around and was scared out of his wits. He immediately screamed and turned into a divine light, madly escaping towards the valley.

"Run, run! I love to see you beautiful men struggle and escape. The more you struggle, the more excited I get!"

The silver Dragon laughed evilly and gave chase.

"Eh? It's wrong!"

Just as he was about to reach the valley, his expression suddenly changed and he exclaimed in a low voice.

In the next moment, he was about to withdraw.

However, it was already too late. In the valley, a shocking divine light suddenly burst out, and a sword light that was ten thousand feet long with an aura that could tear the sky and earth came slashing over.

Pfft!

The silver Dragon hurriedly raised its shield to block the attack, but it was knocked back and spat out blood.

His expression became a little panicked.

He had just advanced to the 8th tribulation not long ago, and his opponent was an expert of the seven apertures level.

He didn't even think and turned to run.

"Hmph! Bastard, where are you running to!"

In the next moment, golden light shot into the sky from all directions of the valley. It instantly spread out into a net and covered the entire heaven and earth.
