

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2538

“Good pill!”

Daoist yunyue’s face lit up when he received the pill.

He really needed such a pill!

3,000 Dao companions was no joke. It could really squeeze a person dry. So what if he had passed the 8th tribulation? he still couldn’t withstand it. As the days passed, he felt a little weak and completely lost his previous ferocity.

With this pill, he might be able to regain his former glory.

“Fellow Daoist, do you still have more? If you want to test the pill, one pill is too little!”

He raised his head and said.

“The effects of this pill are very strong.” “You can only eat one at a time!” Tang Hao said.

In this elixir, there was not only the flesh and blood of the eight tribulation Silver Dragon, but also a lot of other strong ingredients. Even an eight tribulation venerable Emperor could only eat one at a time.

“Hey! Fellow Daoist, don’t worry, I’ll eat one at a time! I’m just trying to see how effective your pregnancy is!”

Daoist yunyue said with a smile.

As a man, he could not admit that he was weak.

“Alright! Remember, one pill each time!”

Tang Hao took out another pill and threw it at her.

“Many thanks, fellow Daoist!”

Daoist yunyue took it and left happily.

He was already impatient.

Watching him leave, the cultivators were a little envious.

“Fellow Daoist, do you still have more of these pills? I’m already over eight hundred years old, but I still don’t have any children. I really want to try!”

“Me too!”

All the cultivators stepped forward.

Tang Hao looked at them one by one. He picked the ones with the highest cultivation base and distributed the remaining eight pills.

At the same time, he instructed them to come back in time to report the results.

These eight people took the pills, nodded repeatedly, and left in joy.

“This pill recipe still has some areas that can be improved.”

Tang Hao closed his stall, then went to the other shops and bought a lot of materials.

After returning to the cave, he began to refine pills.

After he was done, he took out all the alchemy Scriptures he had and flipped through them, looking for some ancient recipes to see if he could improve the recipe.

The next day, he went to the city of delicacy.

“Fellow Daoist, fellow Daoist ...”

Just as he set up the stall, he saw Daoist yunyue coming.

He walked from the other end of the street. His legs seemed to be a little inconvenient. He was trembling and seemed very weak. When he looked at his face again, both cheeks were sunken and his eye sockets were deep. He looked like a skeleton.

F * ck!

Who are you!

Tang Hao almost did not recognize her at first glance.

This guy was like a ghost. He was a completely different person from the handsome Taoist yunyue from yesterday!

“You are ...”

Tang Hao was speechless when he looked at him.

It was too tragic!

It looked like it had been sucked dry.

As an eight-tribulation venerable sovereign, his body was extremely strong and almost indestructible. Even if there was only a little flesh left, which was the size of a cell, it could be quickly regenerated. It was very difficult to be sucked dry.

“You ... You ate both?”

Tang Hao said.

“Yeah!”

Daoist yunyue trembled as he walked over. He nodded weakly, his face bitter.

He didn't expect that the pill's effect would be so powerful to a terrifying extent. He ate both at once, and then, things went out of control.

At first, it was indeed wonderful.

But gradually, things became more and more terrifying. He wanted to stop, but he couldn't. Moreover, under the influence of the pill, his qi and blood were constantly being extracted and turned into essence Qi, which was why he had become like this.

Tang Hao was speechless.

This guy was really awesome!

He ate both at once.

That was the flesh and blood of an eight tribulation Silver Dragon, and so many tonic herbs were added to it. Even an eight tribulation would not be able to withstand two pills!

“How's the effect?”

Tang Hao said.

He didn't care if this guy was weak or not. He was more concerned about the effect of the medicine.

“Strong! He was too strong! He's definitely the strongest in the world!” Daoist yunyue gave him a thumbs up.

Tang Hao was speechless.

“I'm talking about the other effect,”

“Oh, oh! This one!” Daoist yunyue was suddenly enlightened. Then, he revealed an extremely excited expression and was about to dance with joy. It's really amazing, you know, I just checked, there were many that hit, I counted, there are more than 500!”

“In other words, I'm going to have 500 children soon!”

Daoist yunyue was overjoyed.

He quickly stepped forward and grabbed Tang Hao's hand." "Fellow Daoist, I'm really grateful to you! After so long, I'm finally going to be a father!"

"Five ... Five hundred?"

Tang Hao's jaw dropped.

He was really shocked!

This guy was really too awesome!

"By the way, fellow Daoist, do you still have that pill? I'm willing to test the pill with my own body and try again!" Daoist yunyue said excitedly.

"Are you ... Okay?"

Tang Hao looked at him and hesitated.

"I'm fine! I won't die!"

Daoist yunyue nodded vigorously.

Tang Hao looked at him and was speechless.

"Alright! I'll give you two more!" After a while, he took out two pills and handed them over.

"Fellow Daoist, many thanks!"

Daoist yunyue thanked him and left excitedly.

"He's an awesome person!"

Tang Hao sighed as he looked at his lean back.

He sat down at the corner of the street and waited for a long time. A few more people arrived, and they looked excited like Daoist yunyue.

"It hit! It hit! Of my five Dao-companions, two have won!"

"It's really too godly! I hit the mark the moment I tried, I'm finally going to be a father!"

They were all overjoyed.

"Fellow Daoist, this pill of yours ... Is definitely a divine pill! If I were to sell it, it would definitely go crazy and sweep the entire Holy region!"

As for this pill, they were full of praise.

They had never heard of such a wondrous pill in this world. This was a divine pill that could leave its name in the history of alchemy!

The moment this pill appeared, all the advanced Saints in the Holy region would go crazy for it!

After all, at their level, most people had the will but no strength. No matter how hard they tried, they couldn't have a child because of their innate limitations.

But now, with this pill, they could smoothly give birth to an heir.

Who knew how many cultivators would benefit from this one divine pill!

In fact, this divine elixir had the power to change the situation of the entire Holy region!

The higher the cultivation, the stronger the bloodline, and the higher the talent of the next generation, and the higher the probability of giving birth to all kinds of monstrous talents. As long as there were more advanced Saints, the sanctuary could give birth to a large number of monstrous geniuses.

In less than 20 years, the sanctuary-realm's power would increase greatly.

"He must be a great master from the Holy region's pill house. He created this divine pill to benefit the world!"

They looked at Tang Hao with utmost respect.

In their opinion, the person who could create such a divine pill was definitely an alchemy God. Moreover, he was wearing the robe of the sacred Hall, so he must be one of the alchemy gods in the alchemy Pavilion.

They felt even more proud. It was their honor to be able to test pills for such a great alchemy expert.
