

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2549

“It lit up again?”

Tang Hao stood in front of the first immortal King lamp. Before he could look at it, another one lit up.

“That’s way too enthusiastic!”

Tang Hao scratched his head in embarrassment.

He was really too passionate!

Along the way, all the true immortals were fighting to light up the place, and they were very enthusiastic.

Tang Hao didn’t know why he was so popular. He heard that the most powerful person in the past was the Tang clan’s overseer, who only had a thousand lamps. He didn’t even know how many lamps he had now.

“This is ... Sky extermination immortal Emperor?”

He took a few steps forward and stood in front of the second Immortal King lamp. He was shocked when he looked at it.

Sky extermination immortal Emperor!

He was very familiar with this name.

He was the ancient expert who had cultivated the Dao of self, the one true immortal Shangyang had told him about!

He had finally found it!

Tang Hao was overjoyed.

This person was the most powerful person among those who cultivated the Dao of self in ancient times. With this person’s inheritance, he could continue to cultivate the Dao of self.

“Is it because of this?”

Tang Hao came to a sudden realization.

The reason why this immortal King lamp was in such a hurry to light up was probably because of the self in his body.

“Many thanks, senior!”

Tang Hao first bowed, then looked into the divine light.

He spent nearly an hour reading.

All of an immortal Emperor's cultivation techniques and insights were all in here. It was so vast and extensive that he was somewhat amazed.

One of the cultivation techniques was called "life scripture," which was created by sky extermination immortal Emperor himself. It was about the cultivation method of self Dao.

The path of self was the most special and dangerous path among all the great paths. Almost all cultivators who cultivated this path would die. Many of them were struck to death by the world-destroying Thunder before they even reached the Saint realm.

From then on, each tribulation he faced would become more and more dangerous.

If Tang Hao had not sealed his true self in the immortal abode and cut off his aura from heaven and earth, he would have been killed by the world-annihilating Thunder.

But now, with sky extermination immortal Emperor's cultivation technique, he had the opportunity to continue cultivating.

"He's really an awesome person!"

Tang Hao could not help but sigh after he read it.

The method he had chosen was to isolate himself from his true self and deceive the heavens and earth. In truth, he was a little cowardly and didn't dare to continue cultivating. However, this person was different. He directly faced it head-on.

This person had created a cultivation technique that allowed the self to continuously cultivate and then resist the world-annihilating Thunder.

Moreover, he had actually succeeded. He had resisted the world-destroying Thunder and completed the self body!

In Tang Hao's opinion, it was crazy!

"Senior is truly a God!"

Tang Hao sighed, then bowed to the lamp to show his respect.

Tang Hao returned to the first lamp after he finished reading all the cultivation methods. The immortal Emperor's title was ancient desolation, which reminded Tang Hao of the ancient desolation of the eight desolates below.

Tang Hao spent half an hour reading through all the cultivation techniques.

There were a few more lamps further ahead. Tang Hao looked at them one by one. There was also an immortal Emperor with the title of nine luminaries, and two gods. One of them started with the word 'tai' and was named 'Tai Yin'. The other started with the word 'Emperor' and was named 'Emperor spirit'.

These two should be the so-called God-level.

Tang Hao saw it too.

In fact, many techniques of deities were similar to those of the celestial way. For example, the great ancient God Taixu and the others all left celestial inheritances!

"No more!"

This was already the peak of the divine mountain, and there were no more Dao lamps.

Tang Hao stood at the peak of the mountain and looked down at the countless Taoist lamps. He felt a little emotional.

These Dao lamps represented the most outstanding people of the primeval era. They were said to be as old as the heavens and earth, immortal and indestructible. But in the end, they still fell, their bodies and Dao vanishing.

Tang Hao stood there for a long time, then shook his head and pulled himself back to reality.

Along the way, he had seen too many cultivation methods of the true spirit realm. Some were overbearing, some were strange, and he didn't know which one he should cultivate.

"Since you don't know which one to cultivate, why don't you ... Cultivate both?"

Sitting on the mountain peak, Tang Hao muttered to himself for a while. Suddenly, his mind moved.

Who said that one could only cultivate one type of true spirit?

Among those cultivation techniques, weren't there ones that cultivated three or five types?

Since he was going to cultivate, of course he had to cultivate more. How could five be enough? he wanted to cultivate more ...

Of course, it was extremely difficult to cultivate so many true spirits, but he was not afraid. He could even cultivate such an abnormal skill as the chaos Scripture, so what was there to be afraid of?

"In order to cultivate so many true spirits, I have to create a new technique!"

Tang Hao began to review all the true spirit cultivation methods he had read before. He studied them one by one, then began to absorb some information from all the soul cultivation methods he had read before.

Gradually, Tang Hao had a general idea of what was going on.

The idea of cultivating multiple true spirits was actually not rare. There were still such techniques, but not many cultivators would choose them, because there was no need for it. Moreover, such techniques were too difficult.

If you cultivate one type of true spirit, you'll be able to withstand one bolt of lightning. If you cultivate three types, you'll be able to withstand three bolts of lightning. If you can't withstand one bolt of lightning, your true spirit will be gone. It's a waste of energy.

Moreover, his true spirit needed to be constantly enhanced in order to strengthen and resist the lightning tribulation.

If you cultivated one type, you only needed to pay a portion of resources and time. If you cultivated three types, that would be three times the amount.

Therefore, no one would cultivate two types of true spirits. Everyone would cultivate one type and madly invest resources. This was the correct way to break through to the Supreme level.

Soon, Tang Hao began to deduce the cultivation technique.

He closed his eyes and sat down. Thoughts flashed through his mind like lightning as he deduced the cultivation technique over and over again.

"It's done!"

He sat there for three days.

Three days later, Tang Hao opened his eyes. His face was filled with joy.

"Isn't the Tang Clan a nine-clawed Golden Dragon? no matter how powerful it is, there's only one. I want eight of them. A nine-clawed Golden Dragon, a Winged Dragon, a Silver Dragon, a Yellow Dragon, a Black Dragon ... I want all eight ancient dragon clans!"

"And the witch God and the twelve ancestors of sorcery. We can't lose a single one!"

Other people used the Yi Qi turning San Qing technique to cultivate three or five types, but he had more, a total of 20 types.

"I'll first cultivate the winged Dragon!"

Tang Hao closed his eyes again.

A golden light flashed above his head, and his primordial spirit stepped out.

The primordial spirit was golden and exuded an aura as deep as the ocean. It was extremely powerful.

The ninth aperture of the Emperor realm was the Tianmen aperture at the top of the skull. Once this aperture was opened, the primordial spirit would be tempered and become stronger. Furthermore, the primordial spirit would also move out of the sea of consciousness and enter this aperture.

The immortal essence in the aperture could be transformed into the power of the essence soul and continuously strengthen the essence soul.

Now, what he needed to do was to transform his Yuan Shen into the true spirit. Then, he would rely on this Tianmen aperture to continuously strengthen his true spirit until he could finally pass the ninth calamity.
