

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2554

Two days later.

Tang Hao left the cave abode again.

“Daoist Tang!”

Xu Yuan and Jin Lin also came out of their cave abodes and headed toward Tang Hao.

The two of them had also participated in the recruitment this time.

A hundred contribution points for a single trip was much more worth it than refining artifacts by himself.

“My two fellow Daoists!”

Tang Hao smiled at the two of them and cupped his hands.

Xu Yuan and Jin Lin sized up Tang Hao as they approached, both of them looking dazed.

He had only been in the Holy region for less than two years. In such a short time, they had not even managed to exchange a single aperture opening pill, and this person was already a half-zhizun.

They had all heard of the amazing things he had done in the alchemy Pavilion and the tool Pavilion, and they were dumbfounded.

They only earned a hundred merit points a year, but this person earned 100000 merit points in a few months. It was too shocking!

And when they came out of seclusion this time, they were shocked again.

This time, he didn't earn 100000 Yuan, but more than a million Yuan.

Now, this man was known as the most popular and richest man in the temple!

It was too awesome!

They all had the urge to kneel down and worship him.

In fact, they even had the urge to stop working hard and be his underlings.

It was too difficult to work hard on his own. How long would it take for him to open nine apertures?

However, if he joined this person, he would have an endless supply of aperture opening pills and he would be able to open nine apertures soon. This temptation was too great!

“Xu Yuan, Xu Yuan, you're a man with a backbone. You can't do this!”

Emperor Xu Yuan bit his tongue and tried to wake himself up so that he wouldn't be blinded by temptation.

Thearch golden scales 'expression turned solemn as well, revealing a look of righteousness.

In Pan Gu world, he was a legend. How could he live off a woman? this wasn't his style!

No matter how difficult it was to cultivate, he had to stay clear-headed and maintain his sense of self ...

"Cough! Long time no see, fellow Daoists! Come, this is a small gift, accept it!"

Tang Hao's eyes swept over the two of them and he grinned.

Then, he reached out and took out two boxes, one for each of them.

"What ... What is this?"

The two of them were stunned.

"The aperture opening pill!" Tang Hao said with a smile.

The two of them opened their mouths, their expressions somewhat dazed.

This was the aperture opening pill! You just gave away a divine pill of the great emperor realm so casually?

"Please accept it, I still have a lot of these pills!" Tang Hao said.

Hearing this, the two people's faces became more and more sluggish.

There were many more?

F * ck!

How rich are you!

"Aiya! You're too kind, fellow cultivator Tang!" After a while, Emperor Xu Yuan suddenly grinned and revealed a warm smile. He took the box and opened it. His face was almost blooming with a smile.

Under the Golden glow of the elixir, he had already lost himself.

Backbone?

In front of a real treasure, what was backbone?

Thearch golden scales 'eyes lit up when he opened it.

“I’ll take this pill, fellow cultivator Tang. If you need anything in the future, just tell me. I’ll go through water and tread on fire without hesitation!” He patted his chest and vowed.

“Me too!”

Xu Yuan followed.

“You two are too serious! We’re all from the lower realm, so it’s only right for us to help each other.” Tang Hao said.

“Fellow Daoist Tang’s noble character and unquestionable integrity really makes us gasp in admiration!”

Emperor Xu Yuan praised.

After he finished speaking, he realized that he had a talent for flattery. His face didn’t even turn red.

“Let’s go! We’re about to set off!”

Tang Hao said, then led the way toward the gate.

When he arrived, he saw many venerable sovereigns waiting for him. There were about 30 of them, including the old demon huang xie and the Mahesvara Buddha.

“Fellow cultivator Tang is here!”

“Hahaha! Taoist Tang, you’re so friendly!”

The group of venerable sovereigns stepped forward and greeted Tang Hao warmly.

“Hmph!”

Upon seeing this, the old demon huang xie and the Mahesvara Buddha were both displeased and even a little jealous.

In the past two years, they had not been doing well in the upper realm. Although they earned more than ordinary venerable sovereigns, they were in short supply of aperture opening pills, so it was difficult for them to exchange for them. For example, the old demon desolate evil had only exchanged for one aperture opening pill until now.

Out of desperation, he could only exchange for a large number of Emperor essence pills, which allowed him to reach the nine apertures realm.

And all of this was because of this detestable brat!

If this kid didn’t exchange all the aperture opening pills, he wouldn’t be in such a miserable state!

As for this kid, he didn't know why, but he had recently become so powerful that he could earn millions of merit points at a time. He heard that he had emptied a corner of the divine temple's treasure vault, and even his ring couldn't hold it anymore. This made him extremely jealous.

He had recently heard about what had happened on Mount fallen Dao.

All the lights lit up!

Even the ancient immortal Emperor had lit up his light for this kid, which made him speechless.

What a F * cking pervert!

He could only curse in his heart.

"Everyone's here!"

After a while, a beam of divine light shot out of the sacred Hall and turned into an old man.

"I'm Ling Qing! He's the guide this time." The old man landed and cupped his hands towards the crowd as he spoke.

"Greetings, elder lingqing!"

All the cultivators bowed respectfully.

Ling Qing was the disciple of Supreme Xuan Hong and had been a half-step Supreme for a long time. It was said that his true spirit was so strong that he had the hope of passing the heavenly Tribulation. He was one of the few venerable sovereigns in the sacred Hall who had the highest chance of breaking through to the ninth tribulation.

"Everyone, you don't have to be so polite! Come, show me your identity token and your conscription order!"

Daoist Ling Qing smiled at the crowd.

His gaze swept across the crowd and stopped on Tang Hao for a moment. He smiled kindly.

"Good! If there's no problem, then let's go!"

After checking them one by one, Daoist Ling Qing nodded.

Then, he took the lead and flew upward.

Everyone followed.

Very quickly, he arrived in front of the black hole.

“We’ll reach the battlefield of gods and demons if we go through it. Don’t worry, it’s a special space Whirlpool, a genuine immortal’s technique. There won’t be any problem if we go through it directly.” Daoist Ling Qing took the lead and stepped into the black hole.

The black hole twisted and completely swallowed the figure.

“My fellow Daoists, it’s alright. I’ve been to the battlefield of gods and demons several times!”

The venerable sovereigns of the Holy Temple said to Tang Hao and the others.

Then, they entered the black hole one by one.

Tang Hao examined the black hole and fell into deep thought.

This was the first time he had seen such a black hole-like space vortex.

Then, he also stepped into it.

In an instant, the sky and earth spun, a violent distortion, and dizziness.

Soon, it disappeared again.

Tang Hao focused his gaze and scanned his surroundings. He found himself on a piece of land.

This piece of land was charred black and a little strange. It exuded a strong destructive and desolate aura.

And in the sky, there was a golden sky. It was the Golden Dome.
