

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2562

“Young master Bukong has run away ...”

All the cultivators were stunned as they watched the figure disappear into the distance.

One of the five prologue, young master Bukong, had actually run away just like that, and his back looked a little disheveled.

“Speaking of which, young master Bukong is really unlucky. With such a powerful divine eye, even if he encountered other prologue, he would be able to suppress it. I never thought that he would encounter such an abnormal being!”

“Yup! Who would carry three venerable emperors Jiu Qiao with them?”

The cultivators sighed with emotion.

Today, their horizons had been broadened. A half-zhizun actually had three nine acupores opened. This combat strength was truly heaven-defying!

“Look, that really is a clone. It’s not considered cheating!”

All the cultivators looked at the Golden figure and pointed at him.

The clone had an astonishing aura. Moreover, it was wearing the nine tribulations armor and holding a broken immortal halberd. With such combat strength, it could kill an ordinary venerable sovereign Jiu Qiao in seconds!

“Where did he get so many aperture opening pills to cultivate his clone?”

The cultivators discussed, all extremely confused.

There were too many unbelievable things about this monster.

“Fellow cultivator Tang ... You’re truly a godly person!”

Xu Yuan and Thearch golden scales were also dumbfounded as they watched from afar.

They had never expected that fellow cultivator Tang would have already opened nine apertures. Let’s not talk about the blood crocodile, who was from the primeval tribe, and who was that guy with monstrous demonic Qi?

“Daoist Tang has too many secrets!”

Emperor Xu Yuan exclaimed after coming back to his senses.

Towards this person, he was already prostrating himself in admiration.

“Polycoria!”

Tang Hao stood where he was. He looked at the figure in the distance with a serious expression.

This dual-pupiled individual was indeed very powerful, and it was terrifyingly powerful.

This was because there was only one of them, and it was not complete. If the pair of polycoria eyes were fully activated, he might not be able to resist at all.

“Be careful of the nine-colored blood and the dual-pupiled individual ...”

Tang Hao remembered that sentence.

“Don’t tell me ... There are quite a few people with polycoria over there?”

Tang Hao mumbled. His heart trembled.

A pair of polycoria eyes was already terrifying enough. If there were a few more pairs, it would be terrible. He would be suppressed to death!

“Born with polycoria is one of the most powerful qualities among all the potential Saints have. Those who are born with polycoria are all people who can shock the world. However, since ancient times, there have been very few people like them.”

“Why are there so many people with polycoria at the nine-colored clan?”

Tang Hao was confused.

Natural polycoria was too rare!

“It seems like it has something to do with the Dragon count divine clan. The nine-colored clan was originally created by them.”

After a while, Tang Hao shook his head and stopped thinking about it.

There was no point in struggling over this.

“It seems that I have to cultivate the Dao of self as soon as possible. If I have my self, I don’t have to be afraid of this pair of polycoria!”

Tang Hao felt a sense of urgency.

Whether it was to deal with the five progressors or the nine-colored clan in the future, he would need his true self.

“Fellow Daoist, if there’s nothing else, I’ll take my leave!”

The demonic soul looked left and right. Seeing that everything was fine, he went back in.

The blood crocodile also followed and hurriedly went back.

The world inside was much more interesting than the outside world. There were cards, chess, and all sorts of entertainment activities.

“Fellow Daoist Tang, you’re really good at hiding your skills!”

Xu Yuan and venerable golden scales returned and smiled at Tang Hao.

Tang Hao smiled at them and said, “Alright, that guy’s gone. Let’s continue digging!”

“Good, good, good!”

The two of them immediately nodded excitedly.

To them, digging for treasures was the most important thing.

The three of them then returned to the cave and continued digging.

Not only did they dig downwards, but they also dug horizontally for several days in a row.

The hole had expanded several times, becoming a huge sinkhole.

More and more xiuzhe were attracted over and squatted to watch.

They had heard that after the battle between young master Bukong and this person, they were all extremely regretful. They only hated themselves for being late and not being able to catch up.

A progressor-level battle was not something that could be easily seen.

If he missed this opportunity, he would have to wait for many years.

The news even reached the holy city, and many of their colleagues from the Holy sanctum came.

They were both envious and proud.

They were envious of Tang Hao’s luck and the damaged immortal weapon. As for pride, it was because fellow cultivator Tang was an elder of his temple. He had defeated the Tang clan’s overseer, which made them all feel proud.

In five days ‘time, the pit had already been dug to a depth of more than 30000 meters, but the harvest was not very great, only a piece of scrap weapon was found.

“Alright, let’s go to another place!”

They dug for another half a day without any results, so Tang Hao decided to change locations.

“Alright!”

Xu Yuan and the others nodded. They also felt that it was impossible to sell anything from this place.

“An incomplete celestial artifact and five pieces of trash artifacts. That’s not bad!”

Tang Hao counted his loot.

There was no need to talk about incomplete immortal artifacts. They were priceless treasures that even Supremes would be envious of. As for useless artifacts, they would be of great use in the future and could be used to refine immortal artifacts.

He was definitely going to forge a celestial artifact.

The group found a place and continued digging.

This digging took another seven or eight days. It had already been half a month since they arrived.

Tang Hao had gained a lot from digging up a few pieces of scrap equipment.

During this period, there was no movement from the holy city. There was no news, which also meant that nothing had happened.

On this day, a group of people was digging when suddenly, the Jade talismans at their waists shook.

“There’s news!”

“Elder lingqing wants us to go back!”

The cultivators’ expressions changed when they saw the Jade talismans.

Something must have happened for elder lingqing to call them back.

Then, the group returned to the holy city.

“Look, this place, and this place. Recently, we’ve found many venerable sovereigns of the enemy clans. There are quite a number of them, and they’re quite frequent.”

Elder lingqing pointed to a few places on the map on the wall and said to the crowd.

“According to the information we’ve gathered these days, we can deduce that the enemy has a purpose this time. It might be a trial activity for them, or it could also be ... That they’ve discovered something somewhere.”

“No matter what it is, we still need to find out. So I’ve decided to send all of you out in groups of five. Take note, your mission is just to find out the truth. Don’t try to show off. Once you find something, report back immediately.”

“Alright, you guys can set off now!”

When the cultivators heard this, they were all a little excited. Since there was a mission, there would be merit points. The first team to be cleared would definitely get a lot of merit points.

Moreover, this mission wasn't dangerous.

They were all venerable sovereigns, so they were not afraid of being killed by the enemy.

“Let's go together, fellow cultivator Tang!”

Many venerable sovereigns who were on good terms with him walked toward Tang Hao.

There were so many of them that they almost started fighting.

It took Tang Hao an hour to pick the right people. They left the city together and headed to the marked location.
