

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2564

“Two 8th tribulation!”

“His cultivation doesn’t look high. He’s only at the level of one or two apertures!”

After seeing it clearly, the four of them were somewhat delighted.

The two low-rank venerable sovereigns were undoubtedly the perfect targets.

With the strength of the four of them, as long as they attacked one person together, they had a seventy to eighty percent chance of killing him.

“Look at their clothes, they are from the divine temple.”

“Hahaha! That’s great! The heavens are really helping me!”

They were even more delighted when they noticed the Daoist robes of the two people below.

The human temple had always been the mortal enemy of the God clan!

At that moment, they couldn’t help but make a move.

But at this moment, one of them suddenly whispered, “Look, the halberd in that man’s hand ...”

“That’s ... My God! It was the immortal halberd! It’s a broken immortal halberd!”

When the others saw this, they all revealed shocked expressions.

Then, their eyes turned red and their gazes became fiery.

This was a Supreme treasure!

“No wonder they could dig so easily!” They were even more enlightened.

The hole was about 3000 meters deep, and the hard Crystal Soil beneath it had been soaked in the blood of Immortals and gods. Ordinary treasures couldn’t dig through it at all, and only immortal artifacts and divine artifacts could.

This time, they couldn’t hold back even more, and their breathing became hurried.

“Wait, there’s only one treasure. There are four of us. How should we split it? let’s make it clear first!”

One of them suddenly said.

“What do you mean by how to split it? it’ll be given to whoever is the strongest!”

The leader snorted coldly and said disdainfully.

He was the strongest here, so the halberd naturally belonged to him.

As soon as he said that, the other three people's faces changed.

Although in terms of cultivation level, this fellow was indeed the strongest, there was not much difference between them. How could he be willing to give up such a treasure?

"I think it'll belong to whoever gets it first!"

One of them suddenly shouted. His body flashed, and he turned into a divine light, rushing into the cave.

"You ... You're so shameless!"

The other three were furious and chased after him.

In order to snatch the treasure, they all burst out with the fastest speed in their lives and rushed into the pit. Before they reached the bottom of the pit, the four divine lights had already begun to fight.

"It's the nine-colored clan!"

"Not good!"

At this moment, the two people below looked up and couldn't help but shout in fear.

"You two, give me the celestial artifacts! I'll spare your lives!"

"Give it to me!"

Four beams of divine light intertwined as they rushed underground.

"Heavens! They were all at the level of six or seven apertures. I'm finished!"

"Fellow Daoist, quickly throw the treasure out. Let's run!"

The two of them shouted a few times, threw the immortal halberds in their hands, and fled upward.

"This is mine!"

Seeing the immortal halberd that was thrown high into the air, the four people's eyes turned red.

They didn't hold back anymore. The divine crystal in their glabella glowed, and divine light bloomed from their bodies.

Then, Peng Peng Peng!

The four of them began to fight, and the scene was a little chaotic.

“Hahaha! The treasure is mine!”

After some fighting, the leader was the first to withdraw and rush out. He raised his hand and the immortal halberd flew over and fell into his palm.

“I still haven’t refined it, hahaha! That’s great!”

He grabbed the immortal halberd and waved it a few times. He couldn’t help but laugh out loud, ecstatic.

This was a human race immortal weapon. To the gods race, it was a true God weapon. With such a treasure, it could increase his strength by more than double.

Then, he lifted his halberd and was about to rush up and leave this place.

However, just as he reached the entrance of the cave, he saw a flash of light above his head. Then, an extremely bright Saber Light slashed down. Its momentum was monstrous, as if it was going to destroy the world.

“This ... This is ...”

He was stunned.

He was completely stunned!

This slash was too terrifying!

This must be a celestial artifact!

Furthermore, this person’s cultivation level was far beyond that of an ordinary half-zhizun. Why was there such a terrifying figure squatting here?

Before he could react, the saber had already slashed down, completely crushing his physical body and turning it into nothingness.

All of this happened too suddenly. The three people below were also stunned. Their bodies froze there, and their expressions were incomparably dumbfounded.

‘What ... What’s going on?’

Who ... Was that?

Without waiting for them to react, another blade came crashing down.

A nine-colored venerable Emperor who had opened six apertures was killed.

“Not good! It’s a trap!”

At this time, the remaining two people finally reacted. With a cry of alarm, they revealed crazed expressions and were about to rush up.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

One figure after another suddenly appeared and attacked them.

“Nine apertures! So many nine acupores!”

“How can there be so many people!”

They were once again dumbfounded.

Suddenly, five venerable sovereigns jumped out. Each of them had an imposing aura, especially the golden and black figure. Their aura was so terrifying that they were not inferior to the nine-colored God clan.

This feeling was as if they had entered the grass and five burly men had jumped out all of a sudden, cutting them up.

Then, two saber flares slashed over and killed the two of them.

“Phew! Perfect!”

Tang Hao heaved a sigh of relief after killing the last person.

It was very difficult to kill four venerable sovereigns from the nine-colored tribe. Fortunately, he had a perfect grasp of the rhythm just now. He was able to kill them completely when they were extremely shocked and defenseless.

Of course, this was also due to his powerful strength.

It took a half-step Supreme and a powerful fairy weapon to completely destroy a venerable sovereign’s body, leaving nothing behind.

“We really did it!”

Yun Yi and Li Yue stood where they were, still in disbelief.

They were four venerable sovereigns!

All of them were at the level of six or seven apertures!

This battle result was too shocking!

They still felt like they were in a dream.

This person was really too strong!

They looked up at Tang Hao in awe.

“It’s all thanks to everyone’s good cooperation!”

Tang Hao landed and cupped his hands at them with a smile.

Then, he stretched out his hand and grabbed the things that had fallen from the four people.

“A bunch of poor bastards!”

They all had storage tools on them. Tang Hao’s face darkened when he opened them.

The four of them were all paupers, and the things inside were pitifully few.

“We have to keep this token, it can be exchanged for merit points!”

Elder Yunyi pointed at the four tokens.

“It’s just a few merit points, what’s there to exchange? forget it, I’ll keep it for now!”

Tang Hao mumbled as he put the four tokens away.

“I’ll take a rest first, we’ll continue later!”

Tang Hao landed at the bottom of the pit and sat down cross-legged.

Activating four saber flares in a row had almost drained his celestial core power, and he was a little tired.

While he was resting, all kinds of ideas popped up in his mind again, and he laughed out loud from time to time.

When Yun Yi, Xu Yuan, and the others heard this, they didn’t know why but they felt that the laughter was a little creepy and couldn’t help but shiver a few times.

They knew that this person was thinking of how to trick people again.

“This kind of person is too terrifying. We must never provoke him!”

They all thought in their hearts.

When his celestial core power was restored, Tang Hao stood up and led the others to continue scamming people.
