

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2570

“Eh? What is this aura?”

The great void sovereign furrowed his brows and a look of surprise appeared on his face.

There was a very strange aura coming from the kid’s dantian.

This aura caused his mind to tremble, and he actually felt very uneasy.

He felt that it was a bit ridiculous. What could this brat have that made him, a Supreme martial artist, feel uneasy?

“What is this?”

As the aura grew stronger, the uneasiness in his heart grew stronger.

He questioned Tang Hao sternly.

Tang Hao did not respond. He was hastening the dismantling of the formation.

“Why is there Thunder?”

When the Thunder exploded, he couldn’t help but be startled. He raised his head to look.

“What ... What’s that?”

When he saw the Golden lightning that was constantly surging out, his eyes instantly widened, and his expression became a little dull.

What kind of lightning was that?

How could it be so extreme and pure gold?

Also, how could this aura be so terrifying?

Immediately after, he seemed to have thought of something. His entire body trembled, and his face turned pale.

This was ... The world-destroying lightning!

It was a world-ending lightning tribulation that would only appear when a heaven-defying item was born! It was also the most terrifying lightning in the world!

Why would the world-destroying Thunder appear here?

Could it be because of this kid?

The great void sovereign was stunned for a moment. He lowered his head and looked at Tang Hao's dantian.

It was this aura that had attracted the world-destroying lightning!

This kid's dantian's Dao ocean had a heaven-defying item!

"You want to drag me down with you? Don't even think about it!"

He shouted and reached out his hand. He clenched his palm into a claw and ruthlessly grabbed at the dantian.

Clang!

The armor was taken off.

Then, the claw pierced through his body and went straight for his dantian.

He wanted to cripple his dantian and seal that heaven-defying object first.

Tang Hao's palm trembled, and a pill appeared. He clenched his fist, and countless bolts of divine lightning shot out of the pill toward the great void sovereign.

Ah!

The great void sovereign was caught off guard and was enveloped by the divine lightning. He let out a miserable cry.

He immediately activated his celestial core power and shook the divine lightning away.

With this delay, the seal inside Tang Hao's body was completely undone. The Golden figure stood up from the immortal abode and opened his eyes. His gaze pierced through the void and looked directly at the sea of lightning above the firmament.

He opened his mouth and let out an earth-shattering roar.

In the sky, the sea of lightning rolled violently, as if it had been enraged by the long howl.

"Not good!"

The great void sovereign looked up and his expression changed.

The world-ending lightning tribulation had already taken shape!

Since he was in this position, he would definitely be affected!

If one were to be caught in an ordinary lightning tribulation, they would be affected and be half-dead, not to mention this even more terrifying world-destroying lightning. Once this lightning struck, all living beings here would be completely obliterated.

Even if he was a nine tribulations Supreme martial artist, he would still find it difficult to block the world-destroying sacred Thunder!

He didn't want to die. He had cultivated for tens of thousands of years to reach his current realm, and he even saw the hope of advancing to the true immortal realm. He absolutely couldn't die like this!

His expression became a little flustered.

He wanted to kill this kid and seal that heaven-defying object, but he saw that the kid was protected by divine lightning, so it was difficult to do so.

He could go all out to kill this kid, but he couldn't. It would destroy the great void seal and his hope of becoming a true immortal!

"Come on!"

Tang Hao laughed coldly when he saw the man's hesitation.

"You ..."

The great void sovereign's tone was sluggish, but he was extremely angry.

He had thought that everything was under control, but he did not expect this kid to have such a trick up his sleeve.

"Hmph! You're just trying to scare me. Would a smart person like you really seek death?" The great void sovereign suddenly sneered.

He finally understood.

This brat was such a cunning person. Why would he seek death? this was just a trick to scare him. When he let go, this guy would seal the heaven-defying item and find a chance to escape.

As long as he let go and put away the celestial artifact, this kid would see the hope of escaping and stop.

At that time, he would have the opportunity to strike again.

After thinking it through, he released his hand decisively and was ready to take back the celestial artifact.

"Scare you? Who the hell has the time to do that, I just want you to die!"

"Let's go!" Tang Hao shouted. He reached out and grabbed his opponent. Then, the Golden figure rushed out of his Energy Center and into the arms of the Taixu sovereign. He hugged him tightly.

“You ... You ... This is your true self?”

The moment he saw the Golden figure, the great void sovereign was stunned.

Then, because of extreme shock and horror, his eyes burst open, and his eyeballs almost popped out.

Oh my God!

This was the self!

No wonder it triggered the world-ending tribulation!

Is this kid crazy?

Why would he repair this kind of thing? How did he survive until now?

At this moment, the great void sovereign’s mind went blank.

When he came back to his senses and saw the Golden object in his arms, his face instantly twisted and all the blood drained from his face.

This was crazy! This was crazy!

This kid was completely crazy!

This was really a mutual destruction!

He roared madly in his heart, and his wide-open eyes revealed extreme fear and panic.

He had lived for so long and experienced countless disasters, but he had never been as afraid as he was now.

At this moment, he truly felt the fear of death!

What calmness, what composure, at this moment, all of it had been thrown to the back of his mind, leaving only fear in his heart. The higher the cultivation, the more afraid of death, especially for people like him who saw the hope of advancing to true immortal.

“You lunatic, get lost!”

His voice was hoarse as he let out an earth-shaking roar.

Then, the celestial core power in his body shook and spread out crazily.

He didn’t care anymore, he wanted to completely exterminate this brat, not leaving even a residue!

However, at this moment, a thick golden lightning bolt struck down from the sea of lightning in the sky.

The golden light curtain blocking the entrance of the pit was instantly torn apart.

The immortal cauldron trembled and let out a wailing sound. Then, its light dimmed and it fell.

At the same time, the great void sovereign's body trembled, and his face turned pale.

After tearing the light curtain apart, the lightning continued to strike down, and it hit the two of them.

Ah!

The great void sovereign cried out in pain.

He was the one who had withstood the world-destroying lightning bolt, and it had caused his skin and flesh to split open.

This was the first bolt of lightning, and it was meant to kill the self, so its power was not enough to kill him. However, the next bolt of lightning would be even more powerful, and it would kill him as well.

"Get lost!"

He roared and struggled madly.

However, his opponent held onto him tightly, and his golden true self hugged him tightly, using him as a protective umbrella.

In the air, the sea of lightning churned for a moment, and two bolts of lightning were born.

There were two Swooshes.

The two bolts of world-destroying divine lightning struck down.
