

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2581

There were many training grounds in the Holy region.

One of them was called the earth Fire abyss.

As its name suggested, it was an abyss, the kind that was so deep that the bottom couldn't be seen.

In this abyss, there were countless layers, and each layer was filled with Earth Fire. If one wanted to pass through, they had to pass through the fire.

With every level they passed, the earth Fire on the next level would be more intense.

The more levels one went down, the more generous the final rewards would be. The rewards were mostly Fire Seeds, ranging from the most ordinary Dao fire to true fires like the purple void Heavenly Fire and the Vermilion Bird fire.

If a Saint wanted a flame, he would come here.

Because there were no cultivation restrictions, there were many xiuzhe that came here and it was always quite lively.

On this day, a ray of divine light swept over from the sky and landed beside the abyss. It turned into a young man in a simple white robe. His appearance was quite ordinary.

"Earth Fire abyss? Interesting!"

"This is ..." He mumbled as he looked into the abyss, grinning.

In this bottomless abyss, there was a tower. It went down level by level, and there was no end in sight. There were Windows on each level, and there were blazing flames coming out from inside.

Then, he lowered his body and flew toward the tower, entering through the entrance.

After a while, divine light fell from the sky again and transformed into figures.

There were a total of seven people, and the one at the front was a young man in a moon-white Daoist robe. His figure was as straight as a sword, and he had an imposing appearance. His face was as if it had been cut by a knife, and he was extremely handsome. His eyes, in particular, were as bright as the morning stars, and were extremely profound.

A woman followed closely behind him. She had a lithe figure and was quite beautiful. She was wearing a moon-white Daoist robe that perfectly revealed her curvaceous figure.

The other five people looked much more ordinary and were also wearing moon-white Daoist robes.

It was obvious that these seven people were from the same force.

“Senior brother, you’ll definitely break the record this time!”

Landing in front of the pagoda’s door, the woman looked at the handsome man in front of her and smiled.

Her eyes were filled with admiration.

This was the big senior brother of his sky sword Mountain. Not only was he born with a handsome appearance, but he also had an outstanding temperament. He had the appearance of an ancient banished immortal and his talent was even more outstanding. He was not inferior to those prologue at all. He was already venerable Emperor Jiu Qiao at a young age.

He was even ranked in the top three on the Saint realm’s prodigy roll.

Such a man was simply too outstanding. Countless female cultivators in the Holy region were in love with him and were crazy for him.

She was just one of them.

“Of course!”

The handsome man couldn’t help but smile confidently.

He had prepared for this day for a long time. This time, he would definitely break the record and surpass the record set by the five prologue. This would prove that he, Qi Lingxiao, was no worse than the five prologue.

He had always been unhappy with the five prologue. Those Five Guys had only been lucky enough to be chosen as prologue because they came from superpowers.

Qi Lingxiao’s talent wasn’t any worse than theirs. He only lacked a bit of luck.

“Senior brother, good luck!”

“Eldest senior brother, you can definitely do it!”

The five men also started to encourage him.

Senior brother Qi was their idol and the pride of the sky sword Mountain!

“Hahaha! Don’t worry, this time, I will definitely break the record and bring glory to our sky sword Mountain. Let’s go in!”

Qi Lingxiao chuckled.

He was full of confidence as he looked at the earth Fire tower in front of him.

At this moment, he could already imagine what kind of commotion he would cause after breaking the record. When that time came, his name would be on par with the five prologue, and his name would completely shake the sacred zone.

Just the thought of it made him feel extremely beautiful.

With such a beautiful vision, he raised his head and chest, and strode into the tower.

The first floor was right after they entered, and a sea of Earth Fire gushed over.

However, this fire was too weak. It wasn't even enough to scratch his itch.

He strode forward and went past the first floor. He walked down the stairs and entered the second floor.

The fire here was still very weak, and they could walk over directly.

The third, the fourth ...

He led the six people behind him and passed the 100th floor as fast as he could.

On the 100th floor, the earth Fire was already quite fierce. The six people behind him were all at the 7th tribulation. At this moment, they had to activate their treasures and open the light curtain to resist the earth Fire.

"Look, eldest senior brother didn't even activate his celestial core power. He's fighting with his body. He's so powerful!"

"Yup! We've already reached the 100th level!"

The six of them looked at the figure in front of them with deep admiration and worship.

"Hahaha! It was a piece of cake! I'll just carry this fire!"

Qi Lingxiao turned around and smiled.

He even flicked his sleeves and had a very calm appearance.

The six of them were dumbfounded.

He was so damn handsome.

If it was someone else, they would think that he was very pretentious, but this was their eldest senior brother. They would only think that he was very awesome and amazing.

The seven of them continued down.

Another 100 levels.

At the 200th level, the earth Fire became even more intense. Even though the six of them had activated their treasures, they still felt that it was somewhat difficult to withstand it.

“Look at eldest senior brother. He’s still using his physical body to take on the attack. He’s not even frowning. He’s too awesome!”

“Yup! At the 200th step, eldest senior brother is the first one who can still use his body to withstand it!”

The six of them looked at the tall and sturdy figure in front of them, their expressions full of admiration.

Hearing these flattering voices, Qi Lingxiao couldn’t help but puff out his chest and raise his nose even higher.

However, his handsome face twitched slightly from time to time.

He looked very relaxed, but in reality, he was just resisting it. He was almost unable to hold on.

“Hahaha! It’s a piece of cake, but I’ll have to use my treasures next. From here on out, all kinds of true flames will appear below, and with the support of the formation, the power is not something that can be withstood by just the body.”

As he spoke, he activated the treasured clothing and a layer of light screen appeared to resist the flames.

He took the lead and walked down to the two hundred and first floor.

“Look, this purple flame is the heavenly Fire of the purple void, the signature flame of the purple void orthodoxy. In this world, no one can use their physical body to resist this layer of flame, not even the five prologue.”

As he spoke, he passed through the flames and led the team to the next level.

He had just walked down and finished speaking.

He raised his head and looked in front of him. His body trembled and he was petrified on the spot.

“Senior brother, what’s wrong?”

The six people behind him saw him stop and couldn’t help but ask in surprise.

Under the protection of many treasures, they walked down and looked at the sea of fire in front of them. They were also stunned.

The seven figures stood rooted to the ground, dumbstruck.

In the sea of fire on this level, there was a figure in white. He did not take out any treasures. Even his clothes were plain and ordinary.

He just stood there, allowing the purple sea of fire to burn him, completely unharmed!
