

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2585

It's these guys!

Tang Hao raised his head and saw the people from sky sword Mountain.

Qi Lingxiao, the eldest senior brother of sky sword sect, walked over with a handsome face.

The men around him looked at him with envious expressions.

"It's really senior! They had just parted not long ago, and they had already met here! What a coincidence!" Qi Lingxiao said.

Then, he looked at the number plate in Tang Hao's hand and laughed. "I didn't expect that senior's heart would still be young despite his age!"

"Hahaha!"

The sky sword sect disciples behind him also laughed, their expressions mocking.

"Hmph! Old man, you're shameless!"

The female cultivator called Yu 'er snorted.

"Al! Yu 'er, don't talk nonsense. Look, there are many old seniors here!" Qi Lingxiao turned around and chided him softly.

"That ... I'm not ..."

Tang Hao raised the number plate in his hand and was about to throw it away.

"Senior, don't be embarrassed. I also have a number plate, so you can take it yourself!" As Qi Lingxiao spoke, he grabbed the number plate and pushed it back.

Then, he took out his number plate and showed it to Tang Hao.

"Senior, since we are so fated, let's go together!"

Qi Lingxiao said with a warm expression.

In the earth Fire abyss, this old senior did not expose him, so he was still somewhat grateful.

Tang Hao's mouth was wide open as he held the number plate. He was speechless.

He's really just here to watch the fun. Why do you guys have to make me participate?

"I'm just here to watch the fun!"

Tang Hao coughed lightly and said awkwardly.

“Senior, we understand!” Qi Lingxiao grinned and gave Tang Hao a knowing look.

Understand your sister!

Tang Hao almost rolled his eyes.

“Hmph! You’re already so old, and your looks are also ordinary. Can you compare to that tall and handsome young man? That Ji xuanmei is obsessed with looks. Didn’t you hear that she used to choose handsome and talented young men?”

Yu ‘er snorted and gave him a sidelong glance.

“Look at my eldest senior brother. He’s tall, handsome, and talented. In this world, there’s no better, more outstanding man than him. With him participating, you can give up early!”

She pointed at Qi Lingxiao and praised him.

Qi Lingxiao felt a little proud after being praised like that.

He thought so too. With him, Qi Lingxiao, participating, there would be no suspense in this conference.

Who was Qi Lingxiao? in terms of talent, he was second only to the five prologue, and only a little inferior to Ji xuanmei. In terms of looks, he was unparalleled and extraordinarily handsome. There were only a few people in the entire sacred zone who were more handsome than him.

What suspense could there be for this conference!

Of course, he couldn’t admit it directly. He still had to give this senior some face.

“Cough! Junior Sister, don’t talk nonsense! I’m not that good. Senior, let’s go and find a place to sit!”

He chided, then smiled at Tang Hao.

Before Tang Hao could respond, he pulled Tang Hao away enthusiastically.

The group found a place at the foot of the mountain nearby and sat down.

As time passed, more and more people arrived. The number of cultivators here had reached more than five hundred thousand.

When there were too many people, the quality would be uneven. He could be as handsome as Qi Lingxiao, but he could be so ugly that he could make people vomit the dinner they had last night.

“Another ugly person. I really don’t know who gave them the courage to participate in this conference!”

A few sky sword sect's disciples had nothing to do, so they pointed at the crowd and kept on talking. When they saw the ugly ones, they would sneer.

"Eldest senior brother, that fellow is here too!"

"Your old enemy!"

Suddenly, they pointed at a spot in the sky and shouted.

Tang Hao looked up and was shocked.

There, a figure was landing.

He was dressed in white, his ink-black hair was fluttering in the wind, and his entire body was shrouded in a hazy spiritual light. He looked extremely dreamy, and when he looked at his face again, he was so handsome that it was heaven-shaking and earth-shattering.

"It's the monster of the ning clan!"

"Why is this guy here?"

From all directions, many murderous gazes swept over this figure.

This guy is too damn handsome!

His talent was also very strong, and he was a monster in the top ten of The Prodigy roll.

This person's arrival had given them too much pressure.

"Why is this bastard here?"

Qi Lingxiao looked up, and his expression became a little nervous.

He had thought that he would definitely get first place, but now that this person had come, he was a little uncertain.

In terms of talent and looks, this person was on par with him and was a strong opponent.

"Not bad!"

Tang Hao mumbled as he looked at her.

Then, he retracted his gaze.

He had heard of the heaven's Pride Board before. It was the ranking of all the young geniuses except for the five prologue, but he didn't know the specific people, and there was no need to know.

In his eyes, these geniuses on The Prodigy roll were nothing special. Only the five prologue could barely catch his eye.

Two days passed while he waited.

The number of xiuzhe here had reached six hundred thousand.

” 600000 men fighting for a woman. What a spectacular sight!”

Tang Hao’s eyes swept across the crowd. He sighed.

“Fellow Daoists, I’ve been waiting for a long time!”

A group of people flew over from the Ji clan’s main hall. The first was an old man.

He came to the center of the square and smiled at the xiuzhe in the surroundings.

“I’m sure everyone knows that this selection is a little different from the past. This time, it’s very special. This time, we’re going to choose a male cultivator with an excellent bloodline and extraordinary strength to marry our Ji clan’s xuzi and give birth to the next generation.”

“The response to this competition was very enthusiastic. Countless outstanding men signed up, and the final number was as many as 610000. In order to select the most outstanding from so many people, we designed many tests.”

“After passing through many tests, we finally selected five outstanding men. In the end, our Ji clan’s xuzi will personally choose one of them.”

After the old man finished speaking, the four sides were in an uproar.

“What kind of stupid rules are these? it’s not enough to pass the test. You even have to let someone personally choose!”

Many male cultivators revealed indignant expressions.

Even if they did everything they could to pass the test and become the last five, it would still depend on their looks and affinity.

“Cough! This is a rule set by my clan’s overseer. If anyone is not satisfied, they can throw away the token and leave!” The old man said.

“Of course, we also know that this is not fair to the four who failed. So, we will compensate him with a treasure, or we can make a request. As long as it is not too excessive, our Ji clan will try our best to satisfy it.”

“This is not bad!”

This time, all the cultivators were satisfied.

With the Ji clan's wealth, the treasures they took out would definitely not be bad. Even if they didn't get chosen, they wouldn't lose out.

Tang Hao's eyes lit up.

The Ji clan really had the treasure he wanted!
