

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2586

“Alright, since no one has any objections, I’ll announce the first round of the test!”

“This round is very simple. In a while, you will enter a small world and stay there for three days. During this period, you will need to snatch each other’s number plates, regardless of the means.”

“Finally, those who have lost their number plates will be eliminated. As long as they have a number plate, they will be able to advance. The more number plates they have, the higher their final score will be.”

The Ji clan elder said.

With that, he flicked his sleeve and opened a void passage above the square.

“This is a training ground of my Ji clan, you can rest assured.” He pointed at the passage and smiled.

“Then what are we waiting for? hurry up!”

Immediately, some xiuzhe couldn’t help but shout.

“It is! Hurry up!”

The cultivators followed suit, all of them in high spirits.

“Good, good, good! Then let’s begin!” The old man smiled and said, “everyone, please come in!”

“Hahaha! The first place will definitely be mine!”

“Get lost! Let me go in first!”

The xiuzhe from all directions swarmed and fought to squeeze into the tunnel. Because it was too crowded, there were many disputes that almost started fighting.

“Woof! A man!”

Yu ‘er, the female cultivator standing next to Tang Hao, glared at him coldly and snorted.

It was too ugly!

So many men almost broke their heads just to fight for a woman.

“Cough, cough! Yu ‘er, you wait here. Eldest senior brother will go first. Don’t worry, I will definitely win first place and bring glory to our sky sword Mountain!”

Qi Lingxiao stood up and said with his head held high.

“Senior, let’s go!”

Then, he looked at Tang Hao.

“Oh! Good!” “Yes,” Tang Hao replied, then followed him into the tunnel.

“Aiya! Don’t push me!”

At the entrance of the passage, he once again saw that little wimp from the Chen clan. He was forced into the passage with great difficulty by the crowd.

He also saw that the old man was no longer on the verge of death like before. Instead, he had become a little vigorous and fierce. He took the lead and squeezed through the crowd, rushing into the passage.

“They’re all talents!”

Tang Hao sighed.

He planned to keep a low profile after he entered and just get into the top five. He had changed his appearance anyway. Even if the Ji clan’s overseer was blind, he wouldn’t like him!

At that time, he could choose a treasure and leave. Wouldn’t that be great?

Tang Hao thought to himself as he squeezed through the tunnel.

“Ah!”

As soon as they entered, they heard screams.

The fight had already started inside, and it was a fiery one.

“Brothers, that Qi guy is here! Kill him!”

The two of them entered the room. Before they could even stand properly, they heard a loud shout. Then, an overwhelming amount of immortal radiance surged toward them. Tang Hao was dumbfounded.

What was going on?

He looked up and saw the group of people who had attacked. All of them looked a little indescribable.

“Oh!” Tang Hao understood.

It turned out that this was a war between a handsome man and an ugly man!

“It’s not my fault!”

Tang Hao’s figure flashed and he dodged to the side.

The group of people glanced at Tang Hao, then ignored him. All they could see was Qi Lingxiao's handsome face, and they gritted their teeth in anger.

"F * ck! Kill these handsome guys!"

"As long as the handsome ones are eliminated, we will have a chance!"

They shouted and attacked even more ruthlessly.

"Hmph! You're overestimating yourself!"

Qi Lingxiao snorted in anger. His body trembled, and his nine apertures cultivation erupted. Endless sword Qi rushed out of his body, turning into an angry dragon and slashing forward.

A great battle instantly erupted.

As one of the top figures on The Prodigy roll, Qi Lingxiao's cultivation was at nine acupores, and his talent was also outstanding. His strength was quite impressive, but his opponents were not weak either. Those who dared to attack him were at least Emperor realm, and a few of them were also at nine acupores.

For a time, the battle was difficult to determine.

Tang Hao sat on the side and watched the show.

Not only Qi Lingxiao, but the genius of the ning clan was also besieged, and the situation was even more exaggerated than this.

"It's a sin to be handsome!"

Tang Hao looked around and sighed.

As long as he was a little handsome, he would be targeted. For someone as ordinary as him, no one would care.

He was also happy to be idle, so he lay there and watched the show comfortably.

In the past three days, he had seen all kinds of handsome men being besieged and chased all over the world. Some couldn't hold on and were caught up to and beaten half to death. They ended up in a miserable state. Some, like Qi Lingxiao, could still hold on and fight while fleeing, but they also looked a little miserable.

A few people who were blind came to find him, but they were also easily dealt with by him.

Three days later, when the time was up, the passage opened.

The Ji race elders rushed in and started to count.

In the end, there were only slightly more than 100000 people who managed to advance successfully with their number plates.

Qi Lingxiao, the eldest senior brother of sky sword sect, was the one who had received the most number plates.

“Senior, I did it!”

Qi Lingxiao stood beside Tang Hao, his expression excited.

“Not bad! You can do it!”

Tang Hao patted his shoulder and encouraged him.

He actually hoped to see this guy walk to the end. With this guy as a foil, the Ji clan prologue would definitely not choose him.

“Many thanks for senior’s help!”

Qi Lingxiao said gratefully.

He knew that this senior’s true strength was very strong. If he were to make a move, he would easily surpass him.

He was really a good senior with both integrity and talent!

He was a little touched.

The second place was naturally the genius of the ning clan. Tang Hao was surprised that the third place was actually the old man.

“What old man? that guy is a well-known venerable sovereign, one of the ten thousand ancient emperors. His title is seven kills, and it is said that he is a ruthless man. However, he has not appeared for a long time, so few people recognize him.”

Someone recognized this person.

One of the ten thousand ancient emperors!

As soon as this name spread, it immediately caused quite a stir.

Of the ten thousand ancient emperors, there were only over 3000 who had survived to this day. Most of them were already half a step into the sovereign realm and were in seclusion to cultivate their true spirit to break through to the end realm.

Many of these people were the founders of these clans and Taoist sects.

“Now, I’ll announce the second round of the test. This round will test your physical body and your endurance.”

“In this trial, you have to seal your celestial core power and use your physical strength to lift this mountain. The longer you persist, the higher your score will be, and you will be able to get into the top 500!”

As the Ji clan elder spoke, he flicked his sleeve and shot out a ray of spirit light.

The spiritual light turned and instantly expanded, turning into a divine mountain that was 10000 feet tall.

All the cultivators looked up and were speechless.

This mountain was not an ordinary mountain. Its entire body was made of metal and was many times heavier than an ordinary divine mountain. Even if he had an 8th tribulation undying immortal body, how long could he last?

“Let’s start with the first place!”

The elder of the Ji clan made the divine mountain grow bigger and then pressed it down on Qi Lingxiao’s head.

“It’s so big, who can bear it!”

All the cultivators were stunned.

Tang Hao, on the other hand, was calm. This round was simple. He only had a number plate, so he would be the last one to go up. All he had to do was endure for a while and squeeze into the top five hundred.
