

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2606

“Do you need ten hours?”

“That kid won’t come!”

The divine mountain was in an uproar.

The crowd looked at the candlelight in front of the divine mountain and laughed.

It had been several hours since the appearance of this divine mountain, and that brat had yet to appear. What was the point of waiting another twenty hours? would that brat come to his death on his own?

They were all waiting for this matter to end. The main event would be to see a group of Supreme martial artists join forces to question the Holy Palace.

“Hmph! That’s unnecessary!”

On the divine Spirit Mountain, among the descendants of divine spirits, one of them snorted coldly.

He looked at the mountain Gate with a dissatisfied expression.

“A mere human dares to come to our Divine Spirit Mountain? What a joke! This is simply impossible. I guess he just said it casually to show off. I don’t know why the clan elders still want to mobilize so many people!”

He snorted again.

His words were filled with disdain for the human race.

In the eyes of the descendants of the gods, they had always looked down on the human race. In their eyes, the human race was too weak, only low-level creatures. Even if some humans could become stronger through cultivation, they couldn’t change the entire race.

The descendants of the gods were different. They had inherited the bloodline power of the ancient gods, and they were born with great strength. Humans were no match for them at the same level.

It would not be an exaggeration to say that they could kill humans of the same level in seconds.

“Our Divine Spirit Mountain hasn’t appeared in the world for a long time. Now that the human race has provoked us, of course we have to take the opportunity to fight back and show our face. Otherwise, the people of the Holy region will soon forget about our Divine Spirit Mountain!”

Someone at the side replied.

“What’s that guy’s name? Forget it, I don’t care what his name is. I’m not interested in knowing. I heard that this guy is quite strong. Even the human prologue was no match for him. ”

“Hmph! The human race’s prologue was just like that, so how powerful could this guy be! The people who want to Rob our Divine Spirit Mountain are really overconfident!”

“That’s right, since he came to the divine Spirit Mountain, he is a member of our Divine Spirit Mountain. How can we let him go? Moreover, that person is a match for our Son of God. This matter concerns the face of our Son of God. ”

The group of people discussed in low voices, their eyes occasionally sweeping upwards.

On the peak of the divine mountain, seven divine Thrones were arranged in a row.

In front of each divine throne, there was a group of people. They were the elders of the various clans, divine sons, and other important figures.

The so-called divine sons were similar to the prologue of the human race. They were the most outstanding young people of each clan.

There were seven divine sons in seven clans.

What they were talking about was the divine Son of the green god clan, the first clan on the right.

Some time ago, there was a great alchemy God in the human race of the Holy region called the alchemy ancestor. He had developed a rare and wondrous pill called the many children divine pill. At that time, someone on the mountain heard the news and went to the divine temple to ask for a few pills with the intention of trying it out.

After trying it out, the effect was unexpectedly good. This pill was also effective for the descendants of gods.

The entire divine mountain was in an uproar.

As the descendants of gods, it was extremely difficult for them to reproduce. Therefore, their population had been small for so many years. But this many children divine pill gave them the hope of strengthening their race.

At this moment, the Yushi clan sent someone to the divine Spirit Mountain, saying that they wanted to marry the Yushi clan. The divine Spirit Mountain was naturally very happy. The Yushi clan was also a clan that was descended from the divine Spirit. If they were to marry the Yushi clan, they would naturally be able to give birth to descendants with outstanding bloodlines.

Therefore, after a discussion, the marriage was decided to be with the divine Son of the green god clan.

Originally, this matter was going smoothly. They had already brought him over and were about to get married. However, such an unforeseen event suddenly occurred. Someone went to smash the rain master clan and even said that they would go to his God Spirit Mountain to snatch him.

No one would be able to accept this!

If he really let her go, where would the face of the divine Spirit Mountain go?

The people of the green god clan were especially furious. The divine Son even threatened to kill that guy in the Saint Palace, but he was held back by the elders of the green god clan.

If that guy dared to come up here today, this Divine Son would definitely be the first to jump out and exterminate him!

However, it was a pity that he would probably not be able to see such a situation. That human brat would not come at all!

The group of descendants of the gods discussed for a while and then lost interest. They stood there and waited in boredom.

Outside the mountain, the cultivators were also waiting.

From time to time, they would look at the candlelight in front of the mountain Gate, then look up in the direction of the Holy Temple. They would shake their heads and laugh mockingly.

After two hours, many people lost their patience and closed their eyes, no longer looking at the sacred Hall.

Ten hours passed, and everyone became a little anxious.

“Hey! What are you waiting for! Wouldn’t it be better to quickly go to the divine temple and arrest that brat for questioning?”

Someone shouted.

“Yeah! Go to the temple and ask for punishment!”

The crowd was in an uproar.

Many xiuzhe followed and shouted.

The great void sovereign, who was sitting with his eyes closed, raised the corner of his eye and revealed a smug look.

It was like this!

The higher everyone’s emotions were, the greater the pressure on the divine temple. At that time, the punishment that kid would receive would be even heavier!

“Al! Don’t be anxious!”

Although he was pleased with himself, he did not show it at all. Instead, he waved his hands in all directions and said, "we've already waited for ten hours. We don't need much more time. When the time is up, we'll immediately go to the divine temple and question them!"

"Alright!"

Only then did the cultivators gradually calm down.

"There's no point in waiting!" On the Zhenlong warship, Tang Bukong snorted and said impatiently, "that guy won't come at all. If he dares to come, I'll eat this whole ship!"

As he spoke, he subconsciously raised his head and looked in the direction of the Holy Temple.

However, when he raised his head, he was stunned.

In the next moment, his body trembled as if he had been struck by lightning.

"Young master? What's wrong?"

Tang Qingshan, who was behind him, was a little confused. He looked up and was shocked. His mouth and eyes were wide open. He was shocked and in disbelief.

"That ... That ..."

Then, he excitedly raised his hand and pointed to the sky.

When the xiuzhe at the side saw this, they raised their heads and were also dumbstruck.

A white-robed figure with jet-black hair was descending from the sky. It was Tang Hao!

"It's ... It's coming!" He said.

After a moment of silence, someone suddenly pointed at the sky and shouted.

"He's here!"

"Heavens! It really was him! He's here!"

Following that, the crowd on the divine mountain burst into an uproar. Everyone looked up at the sky. At first, they were stunned for a moment, then they burst into an uproar. They were shocked and their faces were filled with disbelief.

The divine mountain was in an uproar.
