

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2609

“It’s the divine Son of the green god clan!”

“This green God clan is not weak. They are ranked fourth among the seven great clans!”

The four sides gasped.

Although they didn’t know much about the divine Spirit Mountain, and few people knew about this Divine Son of the green god clan, they knew how strong he was just by his name.

The strength of a race’s god child was definitely the best in the race and might only be second to the end realm God.

This Divine Son of the green god clan was definitely a strong opponent of this kid!

“What a powerful aura!”

“Could that be a true God weapon?”

When they saw the divine son’s body burst out with a brilliant divine light and a green divine halberd appeared in his hand, the exclamations from all directions became even louder.

“Human brat, die!”

The divine Son of the green god clan shouted as he held the divine halberd in his hand. He turned into a green lightning bolt and descended from the sky.

Tang Hao raised his eyes and looked at the lightning.

“It’s nothing more than this!”

There was no fear on his face. Instead, he laughed mockingly.

Then, a light flashed in his hand, and a broken immortal halberd appeared.

He grabbed the immortal halberd, aimed at the lightning coming down from above, and threw it with all his strength.

Whoosh!

An ear-piercing explosion.

The immortal halberd pierced through the void, turned into a dazzling meteor, and soared into the sky to meet the blue lightning.

Bang!

The two radiances collided with a deafening sound. With the point of collision as the center, rings of solid-like ripples spread out wildly.

“Hmph! It’s just a broken celestial artifact! How can it be a match for my clan’s divine halberd!”

The green god clan’s Divine Son snorted disdainfully and sent the immortal halberd flying away. He was about to charge down and kill this human brat.

However, at this moment, a blinding celestial light suddenly burst out from below, blinding his eyes and blinding him.

“This ... This is ...”

Then, an aura that made his heart palpitate instantly approached and slashed in front of him.

It was a saber that was shining with a seven-colored light. It was resplendent with immortal radiance and exuded a sharp aura.

Another celestial artifact!

And this was an undamaged celestial artifact!

This aura ... Was so terrifying that it made his scalp tingle.

By the way, the intelligence did say that the boy had two fairy weapons. One was brought up from the bottom, and no one knew which ancient genuine immortal and Almighty it came from. The other one was dug out from the battlefield of gods and demons.

He had read the message, but he didn’t pay attention to it at all. He thought it was just an ordinary celestial saber. He also thought that even if this guy had two celestial artifacts, he could only use one due to the restriction of celestial core power.

He didn’t expect that this guy could activate two celestial artifacts almost at the same time.

He could block the first one, but he couldn’t block the second.

Clang!

The tip of the blade and the tip of the halberd collided, creating another loud bang.

This time, he could no longer be as calm as before. Under the impact of the terrifying blade light, he gritted his teeth and madly urged the divine power in his body. His face was distorted and he looked extremely ferocious.

However, even though he had used all his strength, he still couldn’t block this blade, and his body was sent flying.

Seeing this, there was a clamor.

The human cultivators were all disappointed, and many of them even hushed.

When this Divine Son appeared, he was quite cool and full of momentum. He kept saying that he would kill that brat surnamed Tang. They thought that a powerful character had come and could fight with that brat evenly.

However, he did not expect that he would be forced into such a sorry state in just one exchange.

Hearing the boos from all directions, the Son of God's face immediately flushed red with embarrassment and anger.

He was the divine Son. When had he ever been ridiculed like this? furthermore, they were a group of humans!

He gritted his teeth and was about to regroup and charge forward.

But at this time, a black shadow flashed from below, and a figure had already swept up like a ghost, holding a broken immortal halberd, and struck.

At the same time, there were seven true dragons that were thousands of feet long.

Before he even arrived, that heaven-shaking roar had already caused his heart to tremble.

Clang!

Facing this halberd, he could only hastily block it. The surging power surged over and directly sent the halberd in his hand flying. Then, his body was sent flying up like a cannonball.

With a wuwa sound, he couldn't help but spit out a mouthful of blood, and his green face became somewhat pale.

"Mm! Good halberd!"

Tang Hao stopped and reached out to grab the divine halberd. He examined it closely, and his eyes brightened.

This was a true God weapon, which was equivalent to an immortal weapon. Moreover, it was a weapon forged by the God spirit race, which was more suitable for close combat than an immortal halberd.

He really wanted to take this halberd. It would be easy for him to erase all of his divine sense and put it in his bag.

However, when he looked up at the seven brilliant divine lights, he stopped thinking about it.

The treasure was good, but the timing wasn't good.

“I’ll return it to you!”

He weighed the halberd in his hand, grabbed it, and threw it at the Son of God.

The Son of God retracted his body and was about to activate the divine halberd to call him back.

But then, he realized that something was wrong. He couldn’t sense his divine halberd at all. No matter how he urged it, the divine halberd didn’t react at all and continued to charge at him.

Pfft!

The green divine halberd turned into lightning and pierced through his chest, causing blood to splatter everywhere.

“This ... How is this possible?”

“What’s going on? Isn’t that a divine weapon from the green god clan?”

Everyone on the divine Spirit Mountain exclaimed.

All the descendants of the gods were in disbelief.

A Divine Son had actually been pierced through by a divine weapon of his own race. This was truly inconceivable.

“This ... This is a ghost!”

There were also shocked cries among the human race.

The divine Son had already shown signs of defeat, and it was only a matter of time before he was defeated by that brat. However, none of them had expected him to be defeated in such a way.

“Awesome!”

“This guy is indeed more cunning than me!”

In the crowd, a burly man slapped his thigh and shouted excitedly.

As an expert, he could tell what had just happened with one look.

The moment that brat had gotten his hands on the divine halberd, he had already wiped away all the marks that the Son of God had left on it. That was why the Son of God could no longer control his divine halberd.

This familiar posture, this speed faster than lightning, as expected of him!

“This kid has some tricks up his sleeve!”

On the peak of the godly Spirit Mountain, the seven were also stunned for a while before they figured out what had happened.

This human brat had actually found the imprint left on the treasure by the divine Son of the green god clan in an instant, erased it, and then returned it with a backhand. He had used his opponent's treasure to defeat his opponent. This move was too ruthless.

Not only did this destroy the opponent's physical body, but it also destroyed the heart!

"Hmph!"

An angry groan came from the last divine throne.

This human brat was beating him, no, he was stomping on the face of the green god clan. He deserved to die!
