

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2621

Supreme Taixu's expression changed as he looked around.

He recognized all of these alchemy gods, especially Daoist dan Wu. He was a man of virtue and prestige, and his words carried a lot of weight.

Since lingqing was able to invite this person over, could it be that what he said just now was true?

But how was that possible?!

The many children divine pill was an unprecedented miracle pill that could be recorded in the history of pills and be passed down through the ages. The person who invented this pill was even crowned with the Supreme title of the ancestor of pills!

How could such a divine pill be invented by this brat?

One had to know that this was a divine pill!

Even if this kid's alchemy talent was extraordinary, and he had become an alchemy God before he was a hundred years old, he could only refine divine pills. He did not have the ability to create a new divine pill.

In history, which one of those who could invent divine pills was not a veteran alchemy God?!

"It can't be true, right?"

The crowd began to discuss in low voices.

Everyone looked at those few alchemy gods, their minds already wavering a little.

However, deep down in their hearts, they still couldn't believe it. A kid who wasn't even 100 years old was the alchemy ancestor who invented the multi-child divine pill. This was too unbelievable.

"Everyone, elder lingqing's words just now were all true!"

Daoist dan Wu stepped out and shouted in all directions.

"I know this is hard to believe, but I can swear on my Dao heart that all of this is true. This elder Tang is the inventor of the multi-child divine pill, and only he can refine this pill."

He paused for a moment before he continued.

Whoosh!

The crowd was in an uproar.

Everyone was shocked and excited.

Daoist dan Wu actually dared to swear on his Dao heart, which proved that everything was true. The pill was really invented by this kid, and he was the ancestor of alchemy!

This was too unbelievable!

“How old is he? Not only did he attain the position of alchemy God, he could actually even create such a miraculous pill! This pill Dao talent is a little too terrifying!”

Everyone looked at the white-robed figure in shock.

Just now, this brat had fought against seven end realm gods and overturned the entire God Spirit Mountain. He had also shown his peerless talent, which was comparable to the ancient immortal Emperor. This had already made them extremely shocked.

Now, this brat actually even became the recently widely spread alchemy ancestor, revealing world-shocking alchemy Dao talent!

Such talent was simply too monstrous!

Other than ‘awesome’, they could not find any other words to describe this person.

“I’ve long heard that his alchemy Dao is very powerful. When he was down there, he single-handedly developed the Fortune alchemy Dao into the center of alchemy Dao. But I didn’t expect him to be so powerful!”

“So he’s the ancestor of pills! Just with this divine pill, how much merit has he accumulated? how great of a blessing has he brought to our Holy region!”

The cultivators discussed enthusiastically, their expressions excited.

The way they looked at the figure changed, revealing extreme respect.

The many children divine pill was an epoch-making divine pill. It had fulfilled many cultivators’ dreams of having children. It had completely changed the situation in the sanctuary and greatly enhanced the power of the sanctuary. The merits and contributions it had brought were immeasurable!

With just this pill, not to mention tens of millions of merit points, even giving him hundreds of millions of merit points would not be too much.

“Is it really him?”

“How could this be ...”

While the cultivators were exclaiming in excitement, the face of the great void sovereign turned paler and paler.

His expression was extremely dazed.

That many children divine pill was really invented by this kid!

All his plans would have been for naught.

Furthermore, this brat's status in the Holy region would be even higher than his, a Supreme-being, in the future. He would be unshakeable.

Recalling his performance just now, he felt as if he had swallowed a fly, extremely uncomfortable.

He had put in so much effort, but it was all in vain. No wonder this kid was still laughing. He had arranged everything long ago and was just watching him make a fool of himself!

"This kid!"

He looked over and met Tang Hao's provocative gaze. He gritted his teeth, and his face contorted in anger and shame.

"Do You Believe Me Now, Autarch?"

At this moment, elder lingqing looked at him and smiled.

"Hmph!"

Supreme Taixu glared at him, flicked his sleeves, and turned to leave.

"Farewell, Supreme!"

Elder Ling Qing bowed slightly. Although she had a smile on her face, her tone was somewhat mocking.

"Fellow paragons, do you have any other questions?"

Then, he turned around and looked at the other human sovereigns.

"No! Elder dan Wu has already sworn an oath with his Dao heart, so we naturally believe him!"

The group of Supreme martial artists shook their heads.

Their expressions were all somewhat excited. Not only was this brat's cultivation talent so monstrous, but even his alchemy talent was the same. It really made them overjoyed!

"Not only do you have the potential to become an immortal Emperor, but you've also invented an unparalleled divine pill. This is really a blessing for our human race!"

"Yes, yes, yes! The Fortune of the human race is the Fortune of the sanctuary!"

They looked at Tang Hao again and laughed out loud. They were overjoyed.

“Hahaha! Little friend Tang, it was all a misunderstanding just now. Please don’t take it to heart!” One of the Supreme martial artists withdrew his immortal radiance and laughed heartily as he walked forward with an extremely enthusiastic expression.

“I’m the ye clan’s Supreme martial artist. You should have heard of me. I have exchanged a lot of your pills from Xuan Hong. The effect was amazing. I really have to thank you. The entire ye clan has to thank you!”

He walked closer and said gratefully.

“You’re too polite, Supreme martial artist ye!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands and smiled.

“Al! You don’t have to be so polite! Although I’m a few thousand years older than you, my heart isn’t old yet. I think I’m still quite young. You can just call me big brother!”

Supreme ye patted his chest and laughed out loud. His tone was very forthright.

“F * ck! This old man is really shameless!”

Many Supreme martial artists cursed in their hearts.

This old man ye, what’s he pretending for? he’s clearly a super old monster, yet he still wants to call a young man less than a hundred years old brother. He’s really shameless to the extreme!

Pretending to be so enthusiastic, wasn’t it because he wanted to rope in that kid!

“Hahaha! Little friend Tang, I’m the Supreme Being of the Hong tribe. I’m younger than old man ye, so it’s more appropriate to call me big brother!”

Another Supreme-being withdrew his immortal radiance and walked forward as he spoke enthusiastically.

Upon seeing this, the rest of the Supreme martial artists couldn’t hold back any longer. They withdrew their immortal radiance and came forward. They weren’t that shameless, but they were still extremely enthusiastic.

Not to mention little friend Tang’s talent in cultivation, he also has the potential to become an immortal Emperor and his eight true spirits have reached a scale of 50000 to 60000 feet. There’s a high chance that he’ll become a Supreme. At that time, he’ll be their Daoist friend.

Moreover, his talent in alchemy was even more amazing. He was able to invent the multi-child divine pill at such a young age. His attainments in alchemy were probably not inferior to that of the Supreme old monster from the alchemy Pavilion.

They had to be on good terms with such a genius Alchemist. This would be of great benefit to them and the forces behind them.
