

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2623

In Haotian's immortal's cave in the divine temple.

Tang Hao sat in the hall, holding the pill cauldron and working hard on refining pills.

It had been three months since he came back from the divine Spirit Mountain. During this time, he had been making elixirs. After making the child divine pill, he would make the aperture opening pill.

The multi-child divine pill wasn't difficult. He could finish refining it quickly once he got the materials. The aperture opening pill, on the other hand, was slightly more difficult.

Even though he had continuously improved the refining method and shortened the time needed to refine a furnace, he still needed more than half a day to refine a furnace. At most, he could only refine two pills a day.

In three months, he'd made thousands of children divine pills, but he'd only made 140 aperture opening pills.

He had collected a total of 300 sets of ingredients from the alchemy Pavilion, but he had only refined half of them.

"I'll go to the pill Pavilion to pay first!"

Tang Hao stood up and left the cave abode.

The aperture opening pills in the hall were too lacking. He had to hand them over quickly and give some to the Treasury. Otherwise, the elders in the hall would not have any aperture opening pills to exchange for.

At the same time, he also had to go to the pill house to hand over the true spirit pills he had saved up over the past three months and then exchange them for more.

The materials for refining the true spirit elixir were all provided by the elixir dispensary, so he had to go through the process. Anyway, he had the many child divine pill and he didn't lack merit points.

In the last month, the old silver Dragon and the others had refined 120000 true spirit pills in the spirit wheel. This time, they had accumulated 380000 pills in three months.

At the same time, the quality had also improved a lot. After all, they had refined so many pills, and their alchemy skills had also improved greatly.

"Greetings, pill ancestor!"

The moment they arrived at the pill Pavilion, the people in the pavilion all bowed and greeted them.

"Just call me elder!"

Tang Hao was surprised at first, then he smiled wryly.

These people must have learned from the people outside and called him the ancestor of alchemy.

“How can we do that? you don’t know how famous you’ve been in the alchemy world in the past few months. In the past, we didn’t dare to tell anyone about your deeds because of the Supreme martial artist’s order to keep quiet. Now that there’s no such taboo, your deeds in the alchemy Pavilion have been spread.”

“Yeah! The world of alchemy has been too lively recently, and you’ve been praised as a God. Your status and reputation are even higher than that of our old ancestor. How could we still dare to call you elder?”

Everyone in the pavilion said one after another, their expressions extremely respectful.

Tang Hao felt a little helpless.

He didn’t mind too much and took out all the pills to hand over. Then, he exchanged half of the aperture opening pills and all the true spirit pills.

He didn’t return to his cave abode, but instead walked around and met many fellow Daoists. He inquired about the situation in the Holy region.

“It’s not a big deal. No matter what it is, it’s a small matter compared to what happened when you attacked the divine Spirit Mountain!”

Since Daoist Yunyi was not cultivating in seclusion, he decided to visit his immortal’s cave.

Daoist Yunyi sipped his tea and looked at his colleague in front of him with a rather sorrowful expression.

It was a pity that he didn’t get to witness the excitement of the past three months.

A person who overturned the divine Spirit Mountain and fought against seven end realm divine spirits as a half-step to Supreme was enough to make one’s blood boil!

“Now, everyone outside knows that you’re the ancestor of alchemy. They call you ancestor of alchemy Tang. This title is not ordinary. It’s the same level as a Supreme martial artist ...”

“There’s no movement from the Yushi clan either. I heard that they’ve all gone into hiding. That’s true. If I were those three old fellows from the Yushi clan, I’d definitely dig an immortal’s cave and hide there for a few decades.”

Tang Hao sipped his tea as he listened to Daoist cloudy one.

After saying all that was related to him, Daoist Yunyi continued to talk about some unimportant things, such as which clan’s venerable sovereign married another concubine, which venerable sovereign’s cultivation partner was pregnant again, and what triplets and quadruplets. He talked about them with great interest.

Tang Hao liked it too.

He always felt a sense of relief when he heard this news.

He had invented the fertility pill so that they could have more children, and the current situation was very good.

“Argh! By the way, there’s one more thing, but it’s not a big deal. Jiutian temple and the orthodoxy of Emperor Xi recently went to the lower realm and brought up a treasure of Emperor Xi heaven.”

“Emperor Xi’s ruler?”

Tang Hao’s expression changed.

“That’s right! This is the treasure!”

Daoist cloudy one nodded and said.

As he spoke, he stroked his beard and his face revealed a look of admiration. “This Emperor Xi ruler is a magical treasure! You can predict everything, from the general situation of the world, fate, and destiny, to the whereabouts of a few people.”

“The Cangjie clan is also good at divination. However, they are not as good as the orthodoxy of Emperor Xi. The orthodoxy of Emperor Xi is the ancestor of the way of divination.”

Tang Hao nodded in agreement when he heard that.

The orthodoxy of Emperor Xi was indeed powerful. In the 33 heavens below, the strength of Emperor Xi heaven was not inferior to that of the great void heaven. It was on the same level as the ruins Emperor and Kunwu heaven. Furthermore, it was rather low-key.

He didn’t have much contact with sovereign Xi heaven and had only come to collect wood element tribulation artifacts. He had only met sovereign Xi Dao master a few times and had a good relationship with him.

“This Emperor Xi ruler is a divine artifact of the way of divination. Ever since they brought this treasure up, many people have come to ask for divination. There are many Supreme martial artists and many famous venerable sovereigns.”

“Perhaps it’s because there are so many people going, so the orthodoxy of Emperor Xi announced that everyone can come to ask for a divination as long as they can pay the price. I wonder if fellow cultivator Tang is interested?”

Daoist cloudy one said with a smile.

“There’s such a thing!”

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow. His eyes glowed.

He was really interested in the ruler of Emperor Xi.

The great void heaven had a divine wheel that could control the flow of time, while the Emperor Xi heaven had a foot that could divine everything in the world. He had long been interested in these two treasures.

“This price ... It shouldn’t be low, right?”

Tang Hao said.

“Of course! After all, it’s a celestial artifact, and it’s the extremely mysterious Dao of divination!”

Daoist cloudy one nodded. “However, it’s only a drop in the bucket for you, Daoist Tang. Don’t worry about it.”

Many venerable sovereigns could afford the price, not to mention this one. Since the upper realm, this one had taken away countless treasures from the divine temple’s Treasury. Now, in the Holy region, there were few people who could compare to this one.

Tang Hao smiled. “I’ll go and have a look then. Oh, is there a time limit?”

“No, I can go anytime!”

“That’s good!”

They chatted for a while longer, then Tang Hao stood up and left.

He returned to his own cave abode and gave the aperture opening pill to sis Xiangyi and the others. Then, he went into seclusion and began to consume the true spirit pill.

Several days later, he came out of seclusion.

After absorbing all 380000 true spirit pills, his eight true spirits had grown to nearly 90000 feet tall.

Previously, 120,000 true spirit pills could increase it by more than 40000 feet. Now, with more than three times the amount, it only increased by 30000 feet. It would only get harder and harder in the future.

After all, the larger the true spirit was, the harder it was to grow, and it would require more true spirit pills.

He left the Saint Palace and headed to the nine Heavens continent.
