

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2626

“Long time no see, fellow Daoists!”

Tang Hao smiled at them and said politely, “how have you been?”

“It’s alright!”

Daoist Tianshui and the others smiled bitterly.

“What can we do? all we can do is bitterly wait here and earn some meager merit points. We’re not as carefree as you!”

The SkyWater Daoist grumbled inwardly.

He had heard that this fellow had earned tens of millions of merit points during this period of time in the upper realm, and he was extremely envious.

“May I know why elder Tang has come down?”

One of them asked.

“Nothing much, I just came back to take a look and meet some old friends!” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Oh! Then it’s fine, you can go!”

That person immediately replied respectfully.

Tang Hao cupped his hands, then turned around and left for the beihuang region.

When he returned to the gate of fortune, he first understood the changes that had occurred within the gate during this period of time.

Two years had passed, and the sect had changed a lot.

Those people from the ancestor’s land had basically all come out and all of them had advanced to the seventh tribulation. Now, there were as many as 1300 seven tribulation Sir gods in the sect. Moreover, many of them were already at the ten thousand blood level. As long as there were enough Nirvana pills and wood element tribulation weapons, they could all advance to the eighth tribulation.

Among them, Yun Rong, yinfeng, and the others who were the first to advance to ten thousand blood had obtained the Nirvana pills from the incense clone and had already succeeded in their Nirvana.

During this period of time, the people in the sect had been rushing to refine wood element tribulation weapons. They had already gathered a pile and would soon be able to pass the Tribulation.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao was quite satisfied with the situation.

Then, he passed through the tunnel and went to the Kunlun star.

In the past two years, the development of the Kunlun star was also very fast. For example, the Taoist priest and the others, as well as the heavenly Masters of Mount Longhu, the disciples of the old Kunlun, and monk Huan hai, they were basically all at the peak of the 6th tribulation and were in closed-door training to condense blood.

When they come out of seclusion, they can easily pass the Tribulation and advance to the seventh tribulation. After that, they will spend more than a year to undergo Nirvana and can attempt the eighth tribulation.

There was also the great Qin Dynasty, the Phoenix tribe, and other forces that moved out of Qi Yuan, they also developed rather quickly.

Geniuses kept emerging, and Saints were everywhere. The entire cultivation world of Kunlun was full of vitality.

Tang Hao went to see the old locust tree, left some treasures behind, and left.

After leaving the gate of fortune, he headed straight for the depths of the vast void.

Following his memory, he found the vortex.

Entering the center of the vortex was a dead space with fragments of the Tribulation weapons floating everywhere. Tang Hao could even find some traces of the last battle.

He had killed the medicine master and the others here.

He stood on the spot and blinked his eyes, activating a pair of heavenly eyes.

Divine light burst out from his eyes and swept across the void.

“Eh? What’s that?”

A moment later, he found something and focused his eyes on a corner of the void.

“It’s a passageway!”

In that corner, the void had formed a fold, and it was filled with passages.

“There’s one over there too!”

He carefully looked around and found a few more similar places.

“By the way, this part of the void is not a greater world. It is a place like the interlayer of the void. These cracks are all passages that lead to various places. One of them is connected to the other side.”

Tang Hao mumbled.

The crack in the void was so magical that even the perfected immortal formation might not be able to completely block it. Therefore, there were a few void passages that had slipped through the net and could even connect the two worlds.

Back then, the nine-colored race had found one of these passages and arrived here, where they had encountered the first generation of the Lord of creation.

“Let’s look around first!”

Tang Hao’s divine will moved, and countless split souls surged out. They turned into beams of golden light and surged toward the cracks.

“Not enough! It’s far from enough!”

All of his split souls had come out, but it was not enough to cover all the cracks, because there were still cracks in the cracks that could split into countless paths.

He continued to slash out soul clones that continued to surge forward.

“This golden light is ...?”

Suddenly, one of the soul Fragments encountered a layer of golden light in one of the cracks.

Tang Hao took a closer look and realized that the aura of the golden light was the same as that of the perfected immortal formation.

He tried to move forward, but he was blocked by the golden light.

“It seems that this is also a passage to the other side. However, it is also covered by the perfected immortal formation and is impassable.”

Tang Hao quickly understood.

This passageway was not the one that the nine-colored tribe had used to enter. This was because the aura of this golden light was undamaged. The nine-colored tribe would not be able to enter.

There must be another passage here. It would pass through the gap above the battlefield of gods and demons. The golden light there was much weaker, so the nine-colored tribe could pass through it freely.

Tang Hao continued his search.

He had to find this passage, not only because he wanted to find star Tong and the others, but also because the existence of this passage was a huge hidden danger.

If the other nine-colored tribesmen found this passage and used it to enter Pangu en masse, it would be disastrous.

“There it is!”

After half a day, he finally found another passage blocked by the golden light.

The golden light in this one was obviously much fainter, and it was the position of the gap.

When the true immortal formation was complete, it was impassable. Regardless of whether it was the human race or the Dragon count celestial race, after the formation was formed, the Dragon count celestial race had once thought of breaking through the formation and gathered many people to bombard it together.

Later on, perhaps they realized that they would have to pay a great price to completely blow up the formation, so they stopped.

However, their attacks had also caused some damage to the formation, which was the cause of the gap.

After that, the nine-colored God clan was born.

The nine-colored God clan could easily get in through the broken hole.

If the nine-colored celestial race could enter and leave, then the human race must be able to do so as well.

Tang Hao recalled all of his split souls and personally entered the passage, arriving before the golden light.

He took a light breath and reached out to the golden light.

“As expected!”

His five fingers easily passed through the golden light without any obstruction.

Then, he took a step forward and passed through the golden light to the other side.

After walking forward for a while, he encountered another fork. He released the split soul again and went into the fork.

His main body sat down cross-legged, and his mind attached itself to those split souls.

“There’s someone!”

All of a sudden, his expression changed. One of his soul clones had sensed the presence of other living beings through a crack.

He immediately sent his mind over.

Then, he sensed three figures in front of the crack. They were all dressed in black and had a mark between their eyebrows. He counted and found that they were all eight pieces of crystal.

This also meant that these three were all eighth tribulation venerable sovereigns.

“It seems like this is the path to the nine-colored tribe!”

After confirming that, Tang Hao retracted his split soul. Then, his true body flew over. When he got close to the three people, he retracted his aura.

He was going to investigate first to find out the identity of these three people and their purpose.
