

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2627

In front of the passage, three figures swept over.

“It’s right in front of us. The light curtain is a little thin, but we can definitely pass through it and reach Pangu world!”

A tall and thin man on the left pointed ahead and said excitedly.

“Hahaha! I didn’t expect the rumors to be true. Moreover, we’ve really found it! This is a great service. When I report this to the young master, I will be rewarded!” The man in the middle was tall and strong, like an iron tower.

He laughed out loud in excitement.

“Yup! With this passage, the young master can also be rewarded by the clan and his position will be more stable.” The tall and thin man laughed.

“You two, don’t be happy too early!”

The man on the right suddenly said, his expression turning serious.

“It’s said that the people who discovered this passageway all went into it to search for Pangu world. However, they never came out again after going in. They have completely disappeared.”

“Therefore, the existence of this passage has become a legend. No one knows its exact location.”

“Those people were all eight-star cultivators, so it was impossible for them to be lost in the crack in the void. There is only one possibility, which is that they successfully found Pangu world, but were discovered by the people of Pangu world, and they were all dead!”

“The people of Pangu world must know about the existence of this passage. They might have set up a killing formation at the other end, and a Supreme human being is guarding it!”

“Perhaps that’s why very few people have investigated this legend for so many years.”

The man on the right analyzed.

“That’s true!”

When the other two heard this, their expressions turned cold and their speed slowed down.

“A human Supreme Being ... Is not easy to deal with!”

The big man in the middle frowned and said.

They were only eight-star cultivators, while the Supreme-beings of the human race were nine-star cultivators, the same level as Supreme-god level cultivators.

Furthermore, although the human race's Supreme martial artists were few in number, each and every one of them possessed extraordinary strength. Otherwise, they wouldn't have been able to survive the Great War.

If there really was a human race Supreme Being on that one, then the three of them would be dead for sure.

"What do we do?"

The tall and thin man on the left looked forward and showed a bit of fear.

This passage was real, and it could lead to Pangu, but it was not easy to break through.

"How about this, we'll Scout ahead first. Once we sense that something is wrong, we'll leave and pass the news to the young master. Let him come." The man on the right said.

"Alright!"

The other two muttered to themselves for a moment before nodding their heads.

They slowed down even more and moved forward carefully.

In front of them, Tang Hao concealed his aura and hid in a corner.

He was thinking about the conversation between the three of them.

He could tell that the tunnel was only a legend in the nine-colored realm. After so many years, it was possible that someone had found this place in pursuit of the legend. However, only a few of them had. Furthermore, the secret had not been spread to the extent that everyone knew.

These three people belonged to a certain faction within the nine-colored God clan. They had also come here in pursuit of the legends.

They also wanted to report this news back to their clan to claim credit, and this force was definitely not ordinary.

If this news was allowed to spread, this passageway would be completely exposed, and it would become the passageway for this power to enter Pangu.

At that time, Pangu would be in trouble.

He could not let such a thing happen!

These three people must die!

He squinted his eyes and a strong killing intent surged in his heart.

He concealed his aura and continued to wait.

The three of them were approaching.

When he was only a thousand meters away, Tang Hao moved. If he got any closer, the three would notice him.

His figure flashed and he rushed out. In the blink of an eye, he was in front of the three people.

“It’s the human race!”

The three of them were taken aback and caught off guard.

Subconsciously, they even wanted to turn around and escape.

But then, they were stunned, because they realized that it was not a human Supreme, but an eight-tribulation venerable sovereign!

“Hahaha! I thought you were some powerful character, but you’re only an 8th tribulation!”

The burly man in the middle laughed out loud, his expression full of disdain.

He didn’t care about a human venerable sovereign at all.

He even felt that it was a little ridiculous. An eighth tribulation dared to attack the three of them. Wasn’t he courting death?

“I’ll do it!”

He shouted and stepped forward, his body shining with divine light.

The other two didn’t make a move. Instead, the corners of their mouths curled up, revealing an expression of watching a good show. Their eyes were even more playful and mocking.

However, in the next moment, they were dumbfounded.

The human’s body suddenly burst with a dazzling immortal radiance like the sun. At the same time, deafening Dragon roars came from the immortal radiance.

Their eyes gradually widened as they watched true dragons that were nearly 10000 feet long emerge from the immortal radiance and pounce toward them.

The burly man with the Iron Tower-like figure, who was the first to bear the brunt of the attack, was completely stunned.

His eyes were as big as copper bells, almost popping out of their sockets.

F * ck!

Was this the true spirit of the human race?

Didn't they say that there was only one true spirit in the human race? How could this guy have so many?

Moreover, each of them was so huge!

Looking at its body size, it was probably over 90000 feet long, which was already close to the standard of breaking through to the Supreme-being realm.

To have such strength, he must be a super old monster among the human race. No wonder he was here!

He realized that something was wrong and wanted to turn around and escape.

However, when the seven true dragons pounced over, his divine soul was instantly suppressed. His body trembled and he was stunned on the spot.

Following that, a dazzling Saber Light slashed over and easily ground him into fine powder, destroying his body and soul.

"Hiss! Hiss! Hiss!"

When the other two saw this, they both sucked in a breath of cold air, their faces filled with shock.

At this moment, they were almost scared out of their wits!

To be able to kill an eight star great emperor in a single blow, this level of strength was simply too terrifying!

"Let's go!"

The tall and thin man screamed, turned around in panic, and fled.

The other person shuddered and turned around to escape as well.

However, he was a step too slow. Before he could move, the seven true dragons pounced on him and suppressed his divine soul. Then, a brilliant saber radiance slashed at him and easily cut his body into pieces, completely killing him.

After running for a while, the tall and thin man turned around and almost fell down in fear.

The human behind them was too terrifying!

He was already starting to regret pursuing that bullsh * t legend and coming here to die.

"You want to run?"

Behind him, a cold voice that seemed to come from the abyss floated over.

He turned around again and his body trembled as if he had fallen into an ice cellar.

The white-robed figure flew up like a ghost and followed closely behind him.

“Stay here!”

With a cold shout, a fair palm slapped over. At the same time, the seven true dragons pounced over.

His mind went blank, and he instantly lost consciousness.
