

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2634

Tang Hao was speechless.

He was a little speechless when he saw the two guards 'admiring gazes.

"As expected, it's not a good thing!"

He grinned as he remembered that he had met Ji xuanmei when he came out of Emperor Xi's orthodoxy. At that time, he had a bad feeling.

However, he didn't care too much about it. It was just a small problem at most, and he had more important things to do now.

When he returned to his cave abode, he counted the number of true spirit pills he had saved up over the past few months.

He had been away for more than five months. Every month, there would be someone who entered the spirit wheel level to take out the true spirit pills that his clone and the others had refined and send them to the cave. There were more than 100000 pills every month.

After five tries, he had a total of 700000.

He estimated that this batch of true spirit pills and the souls of the nine-colored race would be enough for him to raise his eight true spirits to 30000 meters. At the same time, he could also refine the remaining 12 true spirits.

The more true spirits he had, the better.

The reason why others didn't refine it was because they didn't have enough resources. But now that he had sufficient resources, he naturally had to refine it. The more he refined, the stronger his strength would be. When he advanced to the ninth tribulation, he would have a few more advantages over the same level of Supreme martial artists.

He immediately went into seclusion and began to consume true spirit pills.

Ten days later, he successfully came out of his closed-door cultivation. His eight true spirits had all grown to 10000 feet. He had also successfully refined the twelve ancestors of sorcery, which had all grown to 1500 feet.

Then, he spent another half a month to make a batch of progeny pills and aperture opening pills.

He gave the progeny pill to elder lingqing, then delivered the aperture opening pill to the pill Pavilion. After completing his mission, Tang Hao breathed a sigh of relief. He finally had time to study bloodlines.

He first went to the treasure vault.

There was a lot of blood in the vault. There was the blood essence of humans, the blood of monsters, the Wu tribe, and a small amount of God spirit blood.

Tang Hao was more interested in demon blood. He had mixed a batch of all kinds of blood, such as Dragon blood, Phoenix blood, green Luan blood, Qilin blood, and the divine beasts of the four symbols ... He was going to try all of them.

Now that he had Monster Blood and divine crystals, the next step was to find people.

“A mortal’s body is too fragile. I’m afraid it can’t bear it and it’s easy to get into trouble. I’d better choose a cultivator. I can’t be too strong, or it won’t be easy to fuse with the divine crystal. It’s best if I become immortal or a Saint at the first or second tribulation!”

Tang Hao wanted to go out and explore the three continents below to find a group of people to experiment with. Suddenly, he thought of the blood slaughter world.

“Oh right! The blood slaughterer world, isn’t that the perfect place to experiment?”

Tang Hao was overjoyed.

The blood slaughterer world was a middle world and the passage was on the blood slaughterer blade. As long as he had the blade, this world was equivalent to his portable world. He could enter at any time, which was very convenient.

There were also quite a few people, enough for him to do experiments.

The master of the bloody massacre cult inside was no longer a problem. He was only a four-element sovereign. With his current strength, he could easily kill him.

Back in the cave, Tang Hao immediately took out the bloody Butcher knife and opened the passage again.

At this moment, an old man in a blood-red robe opened his eyes and looked in the direction of the passage.

His expression changed and became serious.

That guy must have returned!

This passage could only be opened by the person who had the ancestor’s celestial artifact!

“What does he want to do? He already took the last immortal Pearl, what is he doing here?”

He mumbled, his mind becoming a little uneasy.

A few years ago, that guy had opened three apertures. Now, he might have opened four apertures. With a complete celestial artifact in his hand, he was so powerful that he could not resist him at all.

“It doesn’t matter. I’ve opened four apertures at most. Even if I have a fairy weapon and a few helpers, I’m not afraid. As long as I activate the sect-protecting formation, I’ll be safe!”

After a moment’s silence, he was relieved.

The sect’s protective array was personally set up by the old ancestor. As long as it was activated in advance and that fellow could no longer sneak in, he would be able to rest easy.

With a flash of light, a jade talisman flew out of his palm.

He held the Jade talisman and started to activate the formation.

In the next moment, rays of divine light shot into the sky from all directions of mount blood massacre. Layers of light curtains opened up and covered mount blood massacre.

“What’s going on?”

“What happened?”

All around mount blood massacre, a group of disciples raised their heads and looked at the strange phenomenon in the sky. They kept exclaiming.

This was the full activation of the sect-protecting array!

This would only happen when the sect encountered a great enemy.

“Look, there’s someone there!”

A moment later, someone narrowed his eyes and saw a figure in the sky.

“Hmph! What can you do to me!”

The master of the bloody massacre cult also saw this figure and couldn’t help but sneer.

As expected, this guy was here for the bloody massacre sect. Unfortunately, this guy had made a wasted trip. Although the bloody massacre sect did not have a celestial artifact, they had the great formation left by their ancestor and he, the four elements Supreme Emperor.

In the sky, Tang Hao stood among the sea of clouds with his hands behind his back.

His eyes fell on the mountain range that was covered in layers of arrays.

“This old man’s reaction is quite fast. He activated the formation so quickly. But it’s a pity that this little thing can’t stop me!”

“Hmph!” Tang Hao snorted in disdain. He flicked his sleeve, and a golden immortal halberd flew out.

He grabbed the immortal halberd and threw it down.

Whoosh!

The immortal halberd turned into a golden lightning bolt, tearing open the void and falling from the sky.

“Heavens!”

In an instant, there were cries of shock in mount blood massacre.

Everyone from the sect of the bloody massacre looked up at the sky and saw the lightning that descended from the sky. Their faces were filled with fear.

The Golden Lightning’s aura was too terrifying. They could feel its terrifying power even through the layers of the formation.

They had never seen such a terrifying aura before, their sect master was a venerable sovereign, he had four immortal apertures opened, but he did not have such a terrifying aura.

The strength of the guy in the sky was probably several times stronger than their sect master.

“This ... This is impossible!”

In the hall, the master of the bloody massacre cult suddenly stood up and exclaimed.

His face was filled with extreme shock.

This aura ... How was it possible?

Shouldn’t that guy be at the four apertures level?

Even if he had some lucky encounter, he would at most open five or six apertures. But now, he couldn’t see clearly what realm that guy was in!

Eight apertures? Nine apertures?

Or perhaps an even more terrifying realm?

He stood in place, staring at the Golden lightning that descended from the sky, his face dazed.

He could not believe that in less than four years, this guy’s strength had made such an amazing progress. Was the great thousand world really so powerful that it could change so much in four years?

Bang!

Just as he was in a daze, the lightning struck the formation, creating a deafening sound.

At that moment, the entire mountain range trembled.

Everyone's heart trembled.

Their faces turned even paler.

Bang!

Very quickly, another loud noise was heard.

The earth trembled again.

The hearts of everyone in the mountain sank completely, sinking into despair.

The man in the sky was too terrifying. He was like an ancient God with monstrous power!

A simple attack could shake the formation of mount blood slaughter!

As long as this continued for an hour, the formation would definitely be broken. His Mount bloody massacre would also be easily razed to the ground and completely erased from this world.
