

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2636

“What kind of technique is this?”

The master of the bloody massacre cult knelt on the ground and looked at this scene. He was extremely shocked.

In just a short while, that disciple’s cultivation had advanced from the 2nd tribulation to the 6th tribulation, and it was still increasing.

What shocked him even more was that even his aura had changed.

“Hiss! Even the bloodline has changed!”

He looked at it carefully, and suddenly, his body trembled, and his face revealed extreme shock.

This disciple’s cultivation base was not the only thing that had changed. Even his most fundamental bloodline had been completely transformed. He was no longer a human!

This was simply too unbelievable!

It was very easy to change a person’s physique. There were many ways in the world of cultivation, but it was extremely difficult to change a person’s bloodline. His blood slaughter sect was the inheritance of a true immortal, and there was no such secret technique in the sect.

However, this person could change a person’s bloodline so easily. Moreover, he had also raised the person’s cultivation from the second tribulation to the sixth tribulation. Such means were really too shocking!

“What is this person’s identity outside?”

“He must have a terrifying background!”

He secretly guessed, and his reverence grew.

In just four short years, he had gone from a three apertures master to a 10000-foot true spirit. This heaven-defying cultivation speed, coupled with the miraculous secret technique of changing bloodline, all showed that this person was extraordinary.

“His aura is still rising. He’s already at the 7th tribulation. This is amazing!”

“What’s that? Is it a dragon scale?”

Everyone was paying close attention to the young man, exclaiming from time to time.

Many people recognized this person. He was originally at the bottom of the sect and was not eye-catching at all. However, he suddenly emerged four years ago. With his strong physique and extremely fast cultivation speed, he stood out in the sect.

Now, he actually had a fortuitous encounter again, making them extremely envious.

After a long time, the young man finally stopped twitching and the aura on his body stabilized.

His appearance had changed greatly. His skin was now a faint golden color, and some places were even covered with fine golden scales. Between his brows, eight tiny crystals were embedded, showing seven colors.

“I’m ...”

He stood up and looked down. He clenched his fist and felt the surging power in his body. He couldn’t help but reveal a look of disbelief.

What was this unbelievably powerful force?

He felt as if he had been completely Reborn!

“Senior, this is ...”

He lifted his head and looked at Tang Hao excitedly.

“I just gave you a God crystal core,” ye mo said. “It contains the bloodline of the nine-colored God race. I modified it and fused it with several true dragon bloodlines, turning it into a new bloodline.”

Tang Hao said.

With that, his eyes shone with divine light as he carefully sized up the young man. He couldn’t help but nod, revealing a satisfied expression.

The first transformation was very successful. Not only did this person perfectly absorb the power of the divine crystal and advance to the eighth tribulation level, but he also perfectly fused with the power of his bloodline and successfully transformed.

“A God ... True dragon?”

Everyone was shocked, and their eyes turned red, and their breathing became rapid.

Gods and true dragons were the most powerful creatures in the world. How powerful would a new bloodline born from the fusion of these two bloodlines be?

The young man was dumbfounded. He couldn’t believe it.

Then, he knelt down and started to kowtow.

“Jiang Yang will never forget senior’s kindness for giving us a new life!”

He was so excited that his voice was trembling.

“The bloodline of a God ... He has actually modified the bloodline of a God ...”

The master of the bloody massacre cult muttered with a dazed expression.

The bloodline of the gods was far more powerful than the bloodline of the human race. However, this man was able to transform it and merge it with the human body perfectly, creating a new bloodline. This was simply too heaven-defying!

“This disciple’s fleshly body and cultivation base are both stronger than mine! It’s too shocking!”

He looked at the disciple and felt the powerful aura emanating from his body. He was extremely shocked.

In less than half an hour, this 2nd tribulation disciple was already more powerful than him. Not only his bloodline, but even his realm had surpassed his. If he had not seen it with his own eyes, he would never have believed it.

This ... This was simply a miracle!

This person’s divine abilities and means were too terrifying!

When he looked at the white-robed figure again, he was even more reverent.

“Senior, may I ask what kind of bloodline this is?”

The young man raised his head and asked excitedly.

Tang Hao was surprised. He had never thought about a name.

“Since it’s a new bloodline born from the fusion of the divine Spirit and the demon race, let’s call it the demon God bloodline. You’ll be the first Clansman of the demon God race!”

“You’re also the Lord of the demon God clan in the future!” Tang Hao said after a moment of thought.

“Many thanks, senior!”

The young man kowtowed a few more times, becoming more and more excited.

“All 2nd tribulation disciples, come out!”

Tang Hao shouted as he looked around.

One figure after another rushed out and knelt in front of Tang Hao.

They looked up at Tang Hao with excitement and anticipation.

“You can fuse with the Qilin’s blood!”

“As for you, you’ll have the true Phoenix blood!”

Tang Hao walked over and took out divine crystals, blood essence, and bloodline. He fused them together and then injected the modified divine crystals into the glabella of the disciples of the bloody massacre sect.

Soon, the demon God clansmen were born.

They all had different characteristics, and all of them had inherited some of the characteristics of the demon race’s bloodline.

“Next, a tribulation!”

Tang Hao shouted again.

More and more disciples rushed up and knelt down in front of him. They were extremely excited.

They all knew that this was a great fortune!

Not only could they become powerful Demon God clansmen, but their realms could also soar, instantly possessing the strength of a 7th tribulation or 8th tribulation expert.

Tang Hao flicked his sleeve, and more than a hundred divine crystals flew out. They were all seventh tribulation divine crystals. There were not many eighth tribulation divine crystals, only a hundred or so. He had just used them all.

He then took out the blood essence, extracted the blood vessels, and infused them into the disciples’ foreheads.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Rainbow divine crystals flew out one after another and crashed into the foreheads of these disciples, creating 7th tribulation Demon God clansmen!

“Heavens!”

The master of the bloody massacre cult knelt on the ground. His face was completely lifeless.

His mouth was wide open as he looked at this scene in a daze. His mind had long been shocked to an extreme degree!

“Next, immortal transformation!”

“Dao-severing!”

“I’m asking!”

“All of you, get out and bring everyone from the four sides of Mount bloody massacre over!”

Tang Hao had too many divine gems on him. He had more than forty million divine gems. The blood massacre sect was the most powerful force in this world, but they only had tens of thousands of people. It was not enough. He needed more people!

The disciples of the church of the bloody massacre scattered and quickly brought more cultivators. They were all transformed by him and fused with divine crystals to become members of the demon God clan.

It took Tang Hao half a month to use up all the divine crystals. The number of Demon God clan members had reached forty million!
