

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2641

“It’s the pill ancestor!”

After Tang Hao’s immortal halberd attack, the crowd burst into an uproar.

They finally noticed Tang Hao’s arrival.

In the Holy region, this broken immortal halberd was already very famous.

Many people glanced at Tang Hao with a grim expression. This alchemy ancestor was very powerful. He had once suppressed the entire Divine Spirit Mountain and even fought against a Supreme Divine Spirit with his terrifying immortal Emperor divine ability.

With this level of strength, no one below the Supreme level could be stronger than him.

With him joining in, there was no doubt who this Overlord would belong to.

“The pill ancestor is also interested in this nine-headed Eagle? Then my ye clan will withdraw!”

An elder of the ye clan bowed and said respectfully.

Not only did the alchemy ancestor enjoy a high status in the entire Holy region, but he was also a brother of the ye clan’s ancestor. In terms of seniority, he was many generations older than him, an elder of the ye clan.

Seeing this person, he could only be polite and did not dare to compete with him for the treasure.

“My Hong tribe will also withdraw!”

The elder of the Hong tribe chimed in.

In an instant, there was an uproar.

They had only just appeared, and two great clans had already taken the initiative to withdraw. Moreover, their attitudes were so respectful. This was simply too great of a face!

“Thank you for your kind intentions!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands at them and smiled.

“What are you saying!”

“You’re too polite, alchemy ancestor!”

The elders of the two clans cupped their hands again and complimented.

“My hundred Spirit Mountain will also withdraw! I’ll give you some face, pill ancestor!”

“The same goes for my cloud light cave!”

Following that, people from all directions began to shout.

They had also thought it through very clearly. Since the alchemy ancestor was here, they wouldn’t have a share in the nine-headed Eagle anyway. They might as well make a stand and leave a good impression on him, forming good relations.

“Hmph!”

However, at this moment, a cold snort suddenly sounded.

“As expected of the pill ancestor! What a big face!”

In the direction of the Tang family, Tang Bukong stood in front of the crowd. He looked at them coldly and said in a bitter tone.

Tang Hao looked at him and smiled. He was not angry.

When he had just entered the Saint realm, he had still regarded this fellow as an opponent. But now, this fellow was not even qualified to be his opponent.

“What are you looking at me for? my Tang Clan is not like some other clans. My Tang Clan has a tough body and a backbone. We never bow and bend our knees to others. This nine-headed Eagle, my Tang Clan will fight you for it!”

As he spoke, he turned to the Ji clansmen and smiled, “I’m sure the fellow Daoists of the Ji clan are the same as my Tang Clan!”

“We’ve been dealing with this nine-headed Eagle for so long. Why should we hand it over to a newcomer? no matter how high his status is, so what? don’t you think so, Daoist Ji?”

He turned his eyes and looked at the Luan’s Palace, at the graceful and enchanting figure.

The Ji clan’s Supreme Being was not here, but he had already entered the ninth floor. This man was the master of the Ji clan, and this man was also a prologer. He must have disliked Tang Hao for a long time, just like him, and would definitely stand with the Tang Clan now.

As long as the three major forces worked together, they could compete with this guy.

Hearing this, the cultivators all understood his intentions and looked towards the Ji clan’s prologue.

“Keke!”

A soft, magnetic, and charming voice came from the palace.

“That’s not right, Daoist Tang!”

Tang Bukong was stunned.

“Daoist Ji, am I wrong?” He looked at the palace and wondered.

Fellow Daoist Ji’s reaction was truly out of his expectations. She didn’t immediately agree to stand on his side. Could it be that the Ji clan, like the ye clan and Hong clan, had taken a fancy to that fellow?

That’s impossible!

He had never heard of such a thing. The Ji clan’s Supreme martial artist was indifferent and did not like to make friends. He was completely different from the ye clan and Hong clan’s Supreme martial artists.

“Of course it’s wrong! The person you’re talking about is someone who has benefited the Holy region and has great merit. Isn’t it just a nine-headed Eagle? My Ji clan doesn’t lack this little bit of stuff!” Ji xuanmei chuckled.

That voice was incomparably alluring, causing the hearts of all the cultivators to sway.

“This ...”

Tang Bukong was stunned again.

He had not expected this reaction from the man.

“Fellow Daoist Ji, are you willing to see this guy so glorious that he completely overshadows us prologue? I might as well compete with him today and let him know how powerful our xuzi is!”

Tang Bukong said unwillingly.

The xiuzhe of the four sides listened and discussed.

They were all aware of the grudges between the Tang clan’s overseer and the ancestor of alchemy. It seemed that he was determined to fight the ancestor of Alchemy today. Moreover, he was going to join forces with the other two overseer to fight against the ancestor of alchemy.

In the past, they would definitely support this person. After all, they were all from the sanctuary, while that person was only from the lower realm and was considered an outsider.

However, things were different now. The creator of the multi-child divine pill had benefited the Holy region. Everyone respected him from the bottom of their hearts. They naturally sided with him, but they were somewhat disdainful of the Tang clan’s overseer.

“Ji xuzi couldn’t have really been incited, right?”

“I can’t say for sure! After all, he’s just a prologue. He’s arrogant, just like Tang Bukong!”

The cultivators discussed in low voices and shook their heads.

"I'm willing! The more powerful he is, the happier I am. Why should I fight with him? isn't it just a nine-headed Eagle? he wanted it, so I gave it to him." Ji Xuan said with a charming smile.

"No matter what he wants, our Ji clan will give it to him!"

Then, she added another sentence, which was rather meaningful.

When Tang Bukong heard that, he was stunned and his mouth was wide open.

F * ck your mother!

What was going on?

This Ji guy was obviously not like this in the past. He was cold to everyone and was extremely arrogant. If it was in the past, this Ji guy would have jumped out and joined forces with him.

But now, he was in such a terrible state!

What do you mean by the more powerful he is, the happier you are? what are you happy about?

He couldn't help but curse in his heart.

The cultivators around him were just as dumbfounded as he was.

The Ji clan's prologue's performance was really beyond their expectations!

This attitude was completely abnormal, causing them to be greatly taken aback!

"Ji, what do you mean?"

Tang Bukong pointed at the palace and shouted in dissatisfaction after he regained his senses.

"I've made myself very clear! I'll give him whatever he wants, right? My husband!" Ji Xuan smiled charmingly as he flew out of the palace and landed in front of Tang Hao under everyone's dumbfounded gaze.

She looked at Tang Hao with a sly smile on her soul-stirring face.

As she said that, she raised her hand and lifted Tang Hao's chin with her fingers.

Everyone's eyes were wide open, and their eyeballs were about to pop out.

Behind Tang Hao, Xu Yuan and Jin Lin's mouths were wide open!

Tang Hao, on the other hand, rolled his eyes helplessly.

He really regretted going to the Ji clan. He shouldn't have been greedy for their treasures. He was blinded by greed!
