

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2645

“Another little worm!”

“Eh? Why was this little worm’s aura so weak? So pitiful!”

The giant black ape lowered its head and looked at Tang Hao.

His eyes were cold and indifferent, as if he was looking at an ant.

“Who’s so F * cking pitiful!”

Tang Hao rolled his eyes.

This fellow was too infuriating! How could he say that he was pitiful? wasn’t his cultivation level just a little weaker? he was just a little bit away from Supreme-being level! How was he pitiful?

“Die! All of you insects are going to die!”

Suddenly, the giant ape roared in anger. It waved its giant palm and slapped it toward Tang Hao.

Whoosh!

As the giant palm moved, it brought with it the sound of wind and thunder. The immortal Qi in the entire world rolled up and surged wildly.

“Mother of God!”

Tang Hao’s expression changed.

This giant ape’s cultivation level was too high, far surpassing his own. This physical strength was not something he could withstand at all. Just this palm strike alone would be enough to send him half to death.

Without any hesitation, he jumped up and ran.

“Hmph! You want to run?”

The giant ape snorted and casually pulled down a mountain beside him as if it was a bamboo shoot.

He grabbed the mountain and crushed it into pieces.

Then, he took a deep breath and blew it out.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The shattered rocks turned into beams of light and shot toward Tang Hao.

Bang!

There was a loud explosion.

Tang Hao tried to block one of them, but his body trembled and he was sent flying.

By the time he stopped, his expression was already extremely aghast.

It was just a piece of gravel. How could it be so hard that it didn't break after colliding with him? one should know that he was an eight-tribulation venerable sovereign. His body was comparable to divine materials of gold and iron. It was not something that a piece of gravel could compare to!

He squinted his eyes to take a look and found that the gravel was wrapped in a layer of black material. It was this thing that made the gravel so hard.

"F * ck! Don't tell me it's this guy's spit!"

Tang Hao sniffed at it. It was a disgusting smell that made him nauseous.

"This is too disgusting!"

He grinned and felt a chill.

At the same time, he was extremely shocked.

Just a mouthful of phlegm was able to harden ordinary rocks and a breath of air was comparable to a full-force strike of a half-zhizun. Such divine power and strength were truly terrifying!

Without waiting for the next wave of crushed stones to come, he turned around and continued to escape, his speed exploding to the extreme.

After pulling apart some distance, he activated the clear sky gang, tore open the void, and shuttled away.

He shuttled back and forth a few times before he stopped.

He turned around and heaved a sigh of relief when he didn't see the beast.

"Hu!"

He sat down and panted heavily.

The giant ape just now had truly frightened him.

"It's really strange. Didn't they say that the fierce beasts here are all raised in captivity? That guy obviously isn't, he can even talk!"

Tang Hao was a little depressed.

The situation on the ninth floor was really out of his expectations.

“It seems that I have to be more careful. I don’t want to lose my life here before I find the treasure!”

After resting for a while, Tang Hao stood up, concealed his aura, and walked carefully.

“F * ck!”

Not long after, he ran into another giant beast. It was like a round ball, floating in the air and slowly swimming. Its size was more than ten times that of the giant ape from before.

From a distance, it looked like a star in the sky.

“Star-devouring beast? It’s a little similar, so they should be from the same race!”

Tang Hao studied the map carefully.

In the endless starry sky, he had once seen a terrifying creature called the star Devourer beast. It was said that it ate stars, and the one in front of him was a bit like it.

“Not good! This guy also has spiritual intelligence!”

Tang Hao’s expression changed. He turned around and ran.

This star Devourer beast was like the giant ape, it had intelligence. Once it targeted him, he would be finished!

He shuttled through the void a few more times and escaped far away.

“It’s so big!”

“Why does this guy have intelligence?”

After that, Tang Hao encountered a few more terrifying giant beasts. They all had intelligence, and their personalities were equally violent and Savage.

“And ... Where’s the treasure chest? Where’s the promised celestial artifact?”

Tang Hao was even more depressed.

He had been here for more than half a day and had searched several places, but he had not seen a single treasure chest. There were only various rare spirit herbs, immortal herbs, and the terrifying Supreme level beasts.

Every time he encountered a fierce beast, he had to run away. It was truly somewhat embarrassing.

“It seems that the ninth floor is completely different from the previous eight floors. Not only are the treasures different, but the level of danger is also on a different level. There’s a high chance that a half-zhizun will die Here. No wonder those half-zhizun old monsters and those prologue don’t dare to come up.”

Tang Hao found a place to sit down and thought about it.

The first eight levels were too easy. The ferocious beasts did not have any intelligence, so it was much easier to deal with them. However, the difficulty of this level rose sharply.

Even an ordinary Supreme-being would have to be careful and not provoke those terrifying beasts.

From the moment he entered until now, he hadn’t heard the sound of an intense battle, nor had he seen the figures of other Supremes. This was enough to prove that those Supremes had all concealed their auras and concealed themselves.

“Are there only immortal herbs here? That’s impossible! This place clearly has celestial artifacts!”

“Then where is this celestial artifact hidden?”

Tang Hao muttered to himself.

After a while, he stood up and looked around. After making sure that there were no Supreme beasts nearby, he waved his sleeve and shot out beams of divine light, which turned into array flags and array discs.

Soon, formations were laid out one after another. There were defensive formations and illusion formations that concealed auras.

After setting up the array, he sat down in the middle.

Then, rays of golden light came out from the back of his head and turned into his appearance.

This was his split soul!

One beam, two beams ... Golden light gushed out continuously, and thousands of split souls swept out from this place, scattering in all directions of this world.

They went to every ancient forest, every lake, and every cave. Everything they saw and heard was gathered in Tang Hao’s mind.

Through these split souls, Tang Hao was able to get a clear picture of the situation.

He knew what kind of rare spirit herbs there were and what kind of fierce beasts there were.

Even though his wisps of soul were constantly being destroyed by the beasts, he could still create ten, or even a hundred wisps of soul whenever he lost one. His true spirit was simply too powerful, and he didn’t lack a soul.

He also dared to go to those ferocious beasts' lairs. If one was not enough, then he would charge into thousands of lairs at the same time. There would always be someone who could charge in and find out the situation in the lairs.

"Eh? What kind of nest is this?"

One of the soul Fragments went deep into a crack in the ground. After going down 100000 feet, it entered a huge cave.

In the darkness, he saw a ray of light, a colorful divine light!

"It's a treasure chest!"

Tang Hao's eyes narrowed, and his breathing quickened.

It was a treasure chest, and it was a rainbow color that he had never seen before.
