

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2652

“How many is this already?”

A Supreme martial artist said in a daze as he looked into the distance.

“I don’t know! There should be at least ten of them!”

A Supreme martial artist at the side responded with a dazed expression.

A half-zhizun realm expert was able to move freely between a group of terrifying ancient beasts and snatch treasure chests one after another. This was truly unbelievable.

At the same time, they were a little jealous.

That was a rainbow treasure chest, and it contained either ancient tai Chu Qi or immortal artifact-level treasures. Each of these items could make Supreme martial artists like them extremely jealous.

In order to obtain the treasure chest, they had to work together. They might even be injured during this period of time, and they might even attract other great evils and be besieged by them. The risk was extremely high.

And this guy had obtained more than ten treasure chests by himself. How could they not be envious?

“We can’t let this kid take all of it!”

Some Supreme martial artists couldn’t bear it anymore. Their figures flickered and disappeared from their original spots.

The next moment, he appeared on the battlefield. He aimed at a treasure chest and rushed over.

“Yo! A little worm is here!”

The Black Dragon that was currently engaged in a fierce battle with the great beasts was still at ease. The more it fought, the more courageous it became. From the beginning until now, by devouring the flesh and blood of these great beasts, its body had more than doubled in size, and its aura had become more and more terrifying.

He immediately discovered this Supreme martial artist. With a mocking smile, he opened his mouth and spat out a beam of divine light.

Then, he charged at a Giant Tiger that was pouncing at him and spat out a shocking divine light. The giant Tiger let out a blood-curdling screech as its chest exploded, and golden blood and flesh splattered everywhere.

The Black Dragon pounced forward and bit down, devouring the flesh and blood in large mouthfuls.

“Not good!”

The Supreme-being’s expression changed drastically, and he hurriedly took out a treasure to block it.

Bang!

With an explosion of divine light, his body was also sent flying backward, and he plunged into the ground.

Cough cough!

By the time he got up, his face was already a little pale.

He raised his head and looked at the wreaking havoc above him. His heart trembled.

The Black Dragon was too terrifying!

He had wanted to try again, but when he saw the Black Dragon turn its head and look at him again, his scalp exploded. He didn’t dare to stay for a moment longer, and he turned and ran away as fast as he could.

When he returned to the safe zone, he turned around and saw that the kid was still jumping around. He was depressed.

On what basis!

If that brat could jump around inside, why couldn’t he? why did that beast only stare at him and not the brat?

This didn’t make any sense!

He scratched his ears and cheeks, but he was puzzled.

The other Supreme martial artists who were watching from the side were also puzzled.

This situation was extremely strange!

There were also Supreme martial artists who had learned their lesson. They didn’t head towards the center of the battlefield, but towards the great beasts on the periphery. However, their luck wasn’t good, and they were discovered the moment they appeared. The great beasts swiped their claws over.

“Damned human reptile!”

The great beast even cursed angrily.

The few great beasts at the side also looked over. Their eyes were cold and filled with killing intent. The Supreme martial artist was so scared that he shivered and ran for his life.

Upon seeing this, the rest of the Supreme martial artists dismissed the idea of taking advantage of the chaos to obtain the treasure.

The central area was obviously the best place to obtain treasures. Those great beasts were busy fighting the Black Dragon and had no time to care about it. However, they couldn't enter because they would be targeted by the terrifying Black Dragon the moment they entered.

In the outer area, the great beasts were gathered together and were extremely vigilant, so they couldn't attack.

"Look, that kid has appeared again! I got another one!"

"I've really seen a ghost!"

They looked at the battlefield. When they saw the figure that had appeared again, their eyes were so jealous that they were about to spit fire!

This kid is here again!

Why wasn't he targeted by the Black Dragon?! Did he have an affair with that Black Dragon?

"Do you guys think that this Black Dragon was released by him?"

Suddenly, a Supreme martial artist said.

As soon as these words came out, everyone was shocked.

If someone had said so at the beginning, they would have scoffed at it. That was a true immortal formation! How could a mere half-zhizun break it?

But now, that was hard to say.

"No way! That's a true immortal formation, after all!"

"Yup!"

There were still some Supreme martial artists who were unwilling to believe it.

After all, it sounded ridiculous that a half-step Supreme could break a perfected immortal formation.

"Look, that great beast is about to die!"

At this time, another Supreme martial artist cried out in surprise and raised his hand to point forward.

All the cultivators looked up and turned pale with fright.

On the battlefield, the black ape was entangled by the Black Dragon. Half of its body had been eaten up, revealing its golden skeleton.

The Black Dragon's aura skyrocketed and became more and more brutal. The black ape, on the other hand, was on the verge of death. Its originally strong vitality was also swaying like a candle flame.

The great beasts from all four directions also revealed a look of fear. They stopped in their tracks, not daring to attack.

This Black Dragon was getting stronger and stronger as it fought. They besieged it for a long time, but there was no effect.

"Hahaha! Come on! Let's attack together!"

The Black Dragon swallowed a piece of meat and laughed in delight. "Since you are all going to die, I will kill and eat all the living beings in this world! You little human crawlies, don't even think about running away!"

As he spoke, he swept his gaze over the group of human Supreme martial artists.

The faces of the Supreme martial artists were slightly dazed.

This Black Dragon could devour the flesh and blood of its own kind, and the more it ate, the stronger it became. When he finished eating this black ape, his strength would increase by a large amount. At that time, there would be no doubt that he would sweep them all away.

"Damn it, which bastard let this pervert out!"

A Supreme martial artist cursed in a low voice.

What was supposed to be a good trial was about to turn into a nightmare because of this abnormal Black Dragon.

Kachaa! Kachaa!

Soon, only loud chewing sounds were left in this world.

The Black Dragon didn't let go of just the flesh and blood, it even bit the bones and swallowed them.

At first, the black ape could still move and wail a few times, but gradually, it stopped moving, as if it was dead.

At this time, there was another space above the ninth floor. There was a Daoist temple with a futon in the middle. A white-haired elder in white clothes sat cross-legged on it.

On both sides of the temple, there were rows of candles. One of them suddenly shook and quickly dimmed, almost going out.

"What?"

At this moment, the old man suddenly opened his eyes and glanced at the candle flame.

“It’s that vicious ape! It’s really strange. This vicious ape’s strength isn’t ordinary. In ancient times, it had devoured hundreds of millions of creatures and committed heinous crimes. In order to capture it, many people were killed or injured.”

“Among the great beasts, his strength can be ranked in the top three. Who can kill him?”

The old man frowned.

There were many Supreme martial artists who had entered the ninth level. Some of them were quite powerful. For example, the one from the great void sect had attained the Dao for a long time and his powers were unfathomable. However, it was still impossible for him to kill this ferocious ape!

If he wanted to kill the vicious ape, his strength must be close to the true immortal level.

“Let me see what happened on the ninth level!”

With a wave of his sleeve, the void in front of him changed, and the scene of the ninth floor appeared in front of him.
