

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2658

Tang Hao turned around and looked at a cave in the distance.

It was the cave dwelling of the Mahesvara Buddha.

The aura just now must have come from there.

There were no Buddhist cultivators in the Holy region. Moreover, the only Buddhist cultivator in the world who could advance to the ninth tribulation was Mahesvara Buddha, The Guardian of Buddhism in ancient times.

“Four years ... From five to six apertures to nine tribulations, what a fast speed!”

“Wow!” Tang Hao exclaimed.

Previously, he had taken away half of the believers of the Mahesvara Buddha to delay the speed of his recovery. He did not expect that he would recover so quickly.

It seemed that the Mahesvara Buddha had not been idle at all during these four years. The number of believers in the Buddhist Kingdom had probably recovered a long time ago, and even exceeded what it was before. Otherwise, it would have been impossible to recover to the ninth tribulation realm in only four years.

He stood in place for a long time, and his expression gradually became serious.

The Mahesvara Buddha was one of his greatest enemies. There was a deep grudge between them that could not be easily resolved.

He already had enough enemies in the Holy region. One was the great void sovereign and the other was the Tang Clan patriarch. Both of them were terrifyingly powerful.

The former was a veteran Supreme martial artist with an unfathomable cultivation level. He was extremely shrewd and extremely sinister and cunning.

As for the latter, he was the only new Supreme in the Holy region in the past thousand years. His magical ability was so powerful that even the other Supremes had to be wary of him. Even the Holy Temple had to treat him with respect.

The two old men were enough to give Tang Hao a headache.

Now, his nemesis, the Mahesvara Buddha, had appeared. This was really adding fuel to the fire.

But fortunately, his status was very high now, and with the strict rules of the Holy region, these three people did not dare to deal with him openly.

“It seems that I have to rush to the ninth tribulation!”

Tang Hao said to himself.

In the past three months, his clone and the others had sent out nearly 400000 true spirit elixirs. In addition to the few wisps of the black ape's soul, the true spirits of the twelve ancestors of sorcery that he had newly refined had already reached a scale of 50000 to 60000 feet.

However, it would still take some time for them to reach 10000 feet in size.

After all, he had refined 12 true spirit pills and the higher the level of his true spirit, the harder it was for his body to grow. He would need more true spirit pills.

“Look! It's elder lingqing!”

Just as he was deep in thought, several spiritual lights swept over from the side, causing the elders of the four holy temples to exclaim in surprise.

The person in the lead was elder lingqing, who was currently in charge of the divine temple.

The direction he was heading in was the cave abode where the Mahesvara Buddha was.

“Congratulations on recovering your cultivation and ascending to the ninth tribulation!”

Elder Ling Qing stood in front of the cave and bowed slightly.

As soon as these words came out, everyone was shocked.

All the elders of the divine halls looked at the cave in shock.

Restore the nine tribulations?

Didn't that mean that he was an ancient Almighty of the nine tribulations? otherwise, how could he have recovered?

“I know him. He came up from below four years ago. I think he was ranked second in the road to heaven trial. He rarely goes out. I haven't seen him in the divine temple for the past four years. I didn't expect him to have such a big background!”

“What is his identity?”

The crowd was in a heated discussion.

They had never thought that there would be a hidden ancient Almighty among them.

Their eyes were all focused on the entrance of the cave dwelling, full of curiosity and excitement.

A moment later, the door of the cave dwelling opened, and a golden figure walked out.

When everyone saw this, they were all stunned, their faces filled with astonishment.

The aura coming from this person's body was not immortal Qi, but the aura of Buddhism. This was a mighty figure of Buddhism!

"You all know about it?"

The Mahesvara Buddha had already removed his disguise and looked like a young monk. He was wearing a golden Kasaya and looked very solemn. He looked at elder Ling Qing with a calm expression. It was obvious that he had expected that he would not be able to hide from the divine temple.

"Naturally!"

Elder Ling Qing smiled and nodded.

During the trial test, the Supreme martial artists had noticed something unusual about this person. With a little more investigation, it wasn't difficult for them to find out this person's identity.

"Alright!"

The Mahesvara Buddha did not say much. He only nodded his head in response.

The divine temple's attitude was very obvious. They would not be entangled with the ancient dispute between Immortals and Buddha, but chose to accept him.

"My friend, you have already passed the ninth tribulation. You are the supremacy of the Holy region and enjoy the treatment of a supremacy. You can choose to continue staying in the Holy Temple or leave. With your status, you can open up an Island, a continent, and create a new force."

Elder Ling Qing said.

"Oh?"

The Mahesvara Buddha was a little surprised. He did not expect the divine temple to be so generous. Not only did they accept him, but they also allowed him to open up a new land and pass on Buddhism!

"The conflict between the immortals and the Buddhas is all in the past. Although the immortals and Buddhas are different, they are all the same. They are all the human race. The establishment of the divine temple was not for a single path, but for the entire human race in the Holy region to protect this great thousand world."

"If Buddhism can grow stronger, it would be the good fortune of the Holy region!"

Elder lingqing said with a smile.

"Well said!"

The Mahesvara Buddha nodded his head again and praised.

“As long as you, the dipamkara temple, can abide by the rules and be under the control of the divine temple like the other forces, the divine temple will fully support you and help you open up a new continent.” Elder Ling Qing said.

“Elder, please rest assured. The dipamkara temple will follow the rules and be under the command of the Holy sanctum!”

The Mahesvara Buddha put his palms together and said respectfully.

He looked a little happy. Since he woke up, his only long-cherished wish was to restore Buddhism and carry it forward. The divine temple’s proposal fit his long-cherished wish.

“Good! From today on, you will be titled dipamkara Supreme. You will open the ancient Buddha continent and establish a new Buddhism, becoming the sixth Daoist Rite, dipamkara. ”

Elder Ling Qing said.

“Many thanks, elder!”

Mahesvara Buddha said excitedly.

Everyone was shocked when they heard this.

Since the establishment of the Holy region, there had always been five dojos, followed by the Feng clan, Tang Clan, and Hong clan. Now, the sixth dojos had been sealed, completely breaking the tradition.

This also showed how much importance the higher-ups of the divine temple attached to this mighty person and Buddhism.

“Dipamkara temple? I’ve heard of him before. He’s an extremely ancient figure. ”

“This is the leader of the ancient Buddhism. He is a Guardian Buddha. No wonder the divine Hall values him so much.”

The cultivators discussed again, unable to hide the shock on their faces.

They all knew that with the establishment of the sixth dojo, the situation in the Holy region would change again.

“It’ll take some time to open up the mainland. It’ll take about a month. We’ll inform you when it’s done ...” Elder lingqing conversed with the Mahesvara Buddha for a while more before she bowed and left.

The Mahesvara Buddha also bowed before he turned around and was about to enter the cave.

He suddenly stopped and turned around to look at Tang Hao.

In an instant, their eyes met.

As their gazes collided, a few invisible sparks erupted.
