

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2660

“Dao attainment is the foundation of a Dao integration expert and a genuine immortal. Just like celestial core power, the more Dao attainment one has, the higher their cultivation and strength will be. To them, Dao attainment is as precious as their lives. Therefore, even if it can be traded, very few people will do it.”

“As for snatching it, that’s even harder. At this level, how many can be weak?”

“Therefore, I can only accumulate it bit by bit. My cultivation speed will naturally slow down.”

Elder Ling Qing stroked her beard and smiled.

Tang Hao was surprised when he heard that.

He naturally knew about Dao, but this was the first time he had heard that this thing could be taken out to be traded.

“Dao peeking, Dao gathering, Dao integration ... I wonder which realm the Supremes of the Holy region are at?” Tang Hao asked curiously.

Elder Ling Qing pondered for a moment and said, ‘most of it is Dao peeking! There are also a small number of Dao condensation cultivators. As for the Dao integration cultivators, there are very few. Master Xuan Hong and the sword Supreme who guards the battlefield of the divines and Infernals are all Dao integration cultivators.’”

“Where is the great void sovereign?”

Tang Hao said.

He was only at the 8th tribulation and could not see through the cultivation of the 9th tribulation. Thus, he had never been clear about the detailed level of the great void sovereign.

“This ... I’m not sure. Maybe it’s between Dao gathering and Dao integration!” Elder Ling Qing replied, “it’s also possible that he has already reached the Dao integration realm. No one knows.”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard that.

The strength of this great void sovereign was indeed terrifying. When he had faced him back then, he had no ability to resist at all. If he had not triggered the world-ending tribulation with his own body, he would have been dead long ago.

In the black and yellow tower, he had also used the Black Dragon’s power to trick that old man. Otherwise, he could only turn around and run.

The gap between their cultivation levels was too great!

“Where’s the Tang clan’s ancestor?”

Tang Hao asked again.

“Him! He should be peeking at the Dao and is about to reach the Dao condensation realm!” Elder Ling Qing said, “although this person’s cultivation level is low, his magical powers are not weak. Not only does he have a pair of world-shocking divine eyes, but he also has an extremely powerful treasure!”

“Oh? What treasure?”

“A sword! It’s called the great Slaughter Sword!” Elder Ling Qing said, “this sword is one of the best immortal swords. It’s said that it was made by a Celestial King who killed Immortals and drank their blood. It’s very powerful!”

Tang Hao’s brows furrowed even more when he heard that.

This old man was not easy to deal with. Although his cultivation level was not as high as the Taixu sovereign’s, his supernatural powers were very strong. He was far from what he could contend with at the moment.

“What, he also wants to deal with you?”

Elder Lingqing asked worriedly.

“No!”

Tang Hao smiled but did not admit it.

It was useless even if he said it out loud. The other party was a Supreme-being and an expert that even the divine temple had to treat with respect. Even if he said it out loud, elder lingqing would not be able to do anything. At most, she would ask him to be careful.

“You’d better try to break through to the ninth tribulation as soon as possible! As long as you become a Supreme martial artist, you won’t have to be afraid!” Elder Ling Qing said.

“I know!”

Tang Hao smiled again.

“By the way, another trial ground will be open soon. You can make some preparations. This place is not ordinary. It is the highest level trial ground in our Holy region. Only half-zhizun and zhizun can enter.”

Elder Ling Qing said.

“This place is called the spiritual fantasy wonderland. It’s very magical inside. It’s a world that alternated between reality and illusion. It’s quite dangerous, and there are naturally many treasures inside. If you can find some, it should be of great help to you.”

Following that, he gave a simple introduction to the trial ground.

They chatted for a while longer, then Tang Hao stood up and returned to the cave abode.

He continued to make elixirs and studied alchemy techniques. He also made many armors, which were at the same level as Hao Tiangang 's. They were all made with Supreme-grade ninth tribulation divine materials, such as Dragon bones, Phoenix Feathers, and Qilin bones.

Tang Hao distributed the armors to the people around him.

He had been paying attention to the situation outside during this period of time.

The sixth Daoist Rite was successfully opened. The people of dipamkara temple had become the first batch of disciples. Compared to the other Daoist Rite temples, this number of people was pitifully small.

Because of this, many people in the world laughed at him.

As immortal cultivators, they naturally did not like Buddhism.

However, it didn't take long for Mahesvara Buddha to trick many forces from the lower and middle continents into joining his d Anka Daoist sect. After that, even a few forces from the 3000 Taoist sects joined.

In just a few months, dipamkara dojo had grown stronger. Although it was still far from being comparable to the other five dojos, it was not much worse than the Eight Families.

"This old bald donkey is also a talent!"

Tang Hao sighed.

This old bald donkey's ability to fool the forces of 3000 Taoist sects and convert them to Buddhism was not small.

Soon, six months had passed.

It was finally the day of the opening of the spiritual fantasy wonderland.

One day, Tang Hao left the cave and headed to the main hall of the Holy Temple.

Many figures had already gathered in the square in front of the main hall. Most of them were elders of the divine temple. They were old monsters who had reached the half-zhizun realm, and many of them were unfamiliar to Tang Hao.

This was normal, as such old monsters rarely went out.

"Greetings, pill ancestor!"

As soon as Tang Hao landed, many of the elders bowed in respect.

“Fellow Daoists, you’re too polite!”

Tang Hao quickly returned the gesture.

He stood to the side and waited.

As time passed, more and more people arrived. Beams of divine light swept over from all directions of the Holy Temple and landed on the square.

“Daoist Tang! We’re coming!”

Jin Lin and Xu Yuan had also arrived. After they landed, they laughed.

After the two of them returned from the black and yellow tower, they quickly advanced to nine apertures and refined their true spirits. When they reached the half-step to Supreme realm, they were qualified to participate in this trial.

“I heard that this is the most powerful trial ground in the Holy region. It’s extremely dangerous inside.”

“I heard that there are many treasures, but they are very difficult to get. The situation inside is a bit mysterious. I have asked many people, but they can’t tell me what the situation is like.”

The two of them discussed enthusiastically, their expressions somewhat excited.

The elders from all four sides had the same expression.

This spiritual fantasy wonderland was different from the xuanhuang tower. It was rarely opened. The last time it opened was more than two thousand years ago, and many of them had not entered it.

In their eyes, this place was extremely mysterious.

“Tang ... Fellow Daoist ...”

A moment later, another figure flashed over and attracted many gazes.

She was none other than Yushi Jue. She was dressed in a yellow Daoist robe, and as her robe fluttered in the wind, her graceful curves were faintly discernible. Her beautiful face was shrouded in a layer of hazy immortal light, making her look even more dreamy.

She landed in front of Tang Hao and smiled.

“Greetings, fellow Daoist rain master!”

Jin Lin and Xu Yuan quickly cupped their hands and bowed.

In the past, he was nothing in their eyes as he was only a seven-tribulation Sir God. But now, he was already a half-step Supreme like them. Moreover, he had an extraordinary relationship with fellow Daoist Tang, so they dared not neglect him.
