

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2675

“He’s succeeded!”

“Too amazing! When will I be able to transcend the Tribulation so easily and become a Supreme martial artist?”

In the hidden cave abodes all around the Qiyuan star, a group of half-step Supreme martial artists looked from afar. They were all amazed and emotional.

Most of them had been stuck in this realm for more than a thousand years, and some had even been stuck for an even longer time, not daring to cross the Tribulation. But this young man, who was so many generations younger than them, had actually succeeded in crossing the Tribulation just like that.

This really made them sigh with emotion.

Their hearts were filled with heartfelt admiration.

Cultivating 20 true spirits before the age of 100 and becoming a Supreme!

This person’s achievements were too shocking!

Even in the golden age of the ancient era, there was no such monster!

“That’s a true immortal’s body!”

When they saw the remains of the true immortals, they were even more shocked and envious.

These true Immortal Remains were definitely the most top-notch treasures in this world. No one had ever obtained them here before, but this person had done it.

“The incomplete body of a true immortal! This brat ... On what basis!”

The great void sovereign looked on from afar, his eyes bloodshot.

Not only did this kid pass the Tribulation easily, but he also obtained the most top-notch treasure in this world!

To use the remains of a true immortal to forge an immortal estate ... What a great fortune this was!

He gritted his teeth, and he was so jealous that he was about to go crazy.

“Many thanks to all the seniors!”

Tang Hao was stunned for a moment, then he came back to his senses and said excitedly,”

He immediately put away all the nine tribulation divine materials. In front of the body of a true immortal, these nine tribulation divine materials were nothing but trash.

He could forge a Supreme immortal abode with the remains of these true immortals!

“It’s still the refinement gods Palace. It’s bigger and has more god statues!”

Tang Hao mumbled excitedly.

The original gods Palace was supposed to have 10000 god statues, but he didn’t finish it. Now, he could complete this original idea.

He stretched out his hand, and the melted pieces of the true immortal’s body flew over, merging and transforming in front of him. Soon, magnificent palaces rose from the ground. Although they were designed according to the previous design, they were even more magnificent and imposing.

When the palace was completed, it was filled with god statues. There were winged Dragons, true phoenixes, demonic ROCs ... Ancient gods and Buddhas. The God statues were erected one after another, sitting in the palaces.

There were 10000 of them!

In the center of the gods Palace was a huge Palace. Dao patterns were engraved everywhere. All the DAOs he had cultivated were engraved on the walls. Life and death, reincarnation, slaughter, illusion, sword Dao, fire Dao ...

All kinds of great DAOs and phenomena appeared in the hall.

In the middle of the hall, there was a Daoist platform. A golden figure sat cross-legged on it. It was his true self!

“Hahaha! This is the true gods Palace!”

Tang Hao laughed joyfully. He waved his hand, and the palace flew over. It shrank rapidly and entered his dantian’s sea of Dao.

Next, Fang Yuan’s true spirits flew over and returned to his immortal aperture.

At this time, his physical body had also completed its transformation, and the light pillar that pierced through the sky and earth gradually dissipated.

“Finally ... The ninth tribulation!”

Tang Hao clenched his fists. He felt his body undergo a complete transformation, and he could not help but feel a surge of emotions.

From the 8th tribulation to the 9th tribulation, it was a huge leap.

Not only had his body become stronger, but his true spirit had also transformed from an ordinary true spirit to an indestructible true spirit. From then on, his body was indestructible, and his true spirit was indestructible. He had reached the realm of perfection.

The next step was to slowly condense his Taoist connotation, form his Dao attainment, and step into the half-immortal realm of Dao integration.

At this level, he was no longer afraid of the great void master or the Tang Clan patriarch.

He already had the strength to fight against them.

“Congratulations, fellow Daoist, for proving your Dao and becoming a Supreme Being. You’ve obtained the broken body of a true immortal and refined a Supreme immortal abode!”

The ancient sovereigns all congratulated him once again.

Tang Hao retracted his aura, smiled at them, and returned the gesture.

After becoming a zhizun realm expert, his mental state had also undergone some changes. He had become more relaxed and free-spirited.

To him, this world was no longer as dangerous as before.

“Hmph! Even if he has advanced to the ninth tribulation, so what? he’s still just a newcomer!”

A Supreme martial artist from the rebellious side couldn’t stand it anymore and said sarcastically.

From the moment this guy appeared, he had become the focus of everyone. Even the mighty true immortals were attracted to him. They gifted him the incomplete body of a true immortal to help him verify his Dao. It could be said that he was in the limelight to the extreme, and he could not stand it anymore.

No matter how talented he was, he was still a newly advanced Supreme martial artist!

If he bragged so much, wouldn’t it be embarrassing if he were to be blasted to pieces by them or slapped to death by the highgods?

Tang Hao immediately looked over.

“Fellow Daoist, why don’t you come down and have a spar?” Tang Hao grinned when he looked at it.

Now that he had advanced, he could see the specific stages of these Supreme martial artists.

The Supreme martial artist who had spoken had a strong Taoist connotation, but it was not to the extreme. It was obvious that he was in the middle stage of the Dao gathering realm.

The Supreme martial artist was stunned and couldn’t believe his ears.

This brat who had just advanced dared to provoke him?

Can't this guy see that he's already in the middle stage of the ninth tribulation?

The Supreme martial artists were also slightly surprised.

However, they did not intervene. This fellow cultivator Tang was not an ordinary person. He had a monstrous talent that they had never seen before. Although he had just advanced, he might really have the strength to contend with the middle stage of the nine tribulations.

"Hahaha! You little brat, you really have balls! Good! I'll grant you your wish!"

The Supreme-being laughed out loud, and his body sank as he swept down.

"Listen up, I'm venerable you lie from the nine nether Dao!" He patted his chest and shouted.

His body was somewhat burly, as strong as an iron tower. He was very different from the average nine nether Daoist sect member. He clearly cultivated his body and fought in close combat.

Tang Hao did not say a word. He stomped his foot and shot forward with a punch.

"Hahaha! Fighting with your father, are you stupid?"

You lie laughed out loud.

His physical body was well-known among the many Supreme-beings of the human race. It was impossible for this brat to be stronger than him. He still had a huge advantage in terms of realm, but this brat's only advantage was the 20 undiscovered true spirits!

This was easy to deal with as long as he protected his true spirit.

He laughed, clenched his fist, and met the attack.

Bang!

A deafening explosion.

Two figures, one black and one white, collided with each other.

Tang Hao's body trembled and he retreated a few meters. On the other hand, venerable you lie only retreated a few meters.

"There's still a huge gap between our cultivation levels. I'm sure he has quite a bit of Dao accumulation in his body, while I haven't even condensed a trace of it. If I hadn't cultivated a few wisps of primordial Qi, I definitely wouldn't have been able to take this punch."

Tang Hao said to himself.

“This kid ... What a strong body!”

You lie was extremely shocked.

He had thought that he would be able to crush this kid with one punch, but he had only gained a slight advantage.

This kid was too abnormal!

One had to know that he could be considered an old Supreme martial artist, while this brat had just transcended his tribulation and advanced to the Supreme martial artist realm. He hadn't even warmed up his realm yet!

If he could fight against him now, what would he do in the future?
