

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 268

That kick landed squarely on the man's face.

His glasses shattered and his nose collapsed. The elderly face was entirely contorted.

Dean Fu wailed in pain as he stumbled and fell backward. The back of his head struck the floor with a thud.

Everyone was dumbstruck at that moment. They had incredulous looks on their faces.

Even Teacher Jiang's mouth was wide open.

Tang Hao was Teacher Jiang's student, which meant that he was also a student of Z University. It was impossible that he did not know who Dean Fu was.

Even so, he did not hesitate in kicking Dean Fu, and at his face, even.

Was he insane?

Even Young Master Lu could not believe what he saw. Then, his mouth stretched into a wide grin.

'That kid is finished!

'That kid's future with Z University is over.'

Dean Fu stood up while clutching his face. He was trembling.

His anger was immeasurable. He was a respected figure in the university, but he had just been kicked in the face by a student.

He rubbed his face as it contorted into viciousness.

His beady eyes narrowed as he glared at Tang Hao.

“Let me tell you, you’re dead meat! What is your name? Tell me your name! I’ll make sure that you never graduate!” He roared maniacally.

“That’s nothing! You ought to expel him from Z University and ruin his future!”

The plump man that was kicked earlier also got to his feet. His face was vicious and savage.

Everyone in the room was looking at Tang Hao sternly.

They looked at him with condescension, though there was also a hint of pity.

All the people there wielded some authority. It was all too easy for them to ruin a mere university student.

In their eyes, university students, no matter if they were from Z University or some other college, were all the same. They had not made a mark in society and therefore had no authority or influence.

“Well...” Teacher Jiang was anxious. She did not expect the situation to devolve that way.

Tang Hao had once again gotten himself into big trouble by rescuing her.

Dean Fu laughed gleefully when he saw her face. “See that, Teacher Jiang? All this wouldn’t have happened if you had cooperated. Young Master Lu would be happy, and he won’t get into trouble!

“Haha! You must be happy now, right? Your student is finished because of you. His life is over!”

Dean Fu roared maniacally as his expression became more arrogant.

Jiang Wanying felt guiltier than ever.

Tang Hao had claimed one life because of Gao Wenqiang, and now he was in big trouble with so many figures of authority.

She knew how much authority those people wielded, especially Young Master Lu.

Tang Hao rolled his eyes, then slapped Dean Fu.

“You’re the one who’s finished! You look like a gentleman, but who knows that you behave worse than an animal? Do you even deserve to be a dean?”

“And you want to be vice-chancellor too? In your dreams!”

Dean Fu was utterly dumbfounded by that slap.

“You... You dare slap me?” He shrieked while covering his face.

Tang Hao did not reply but instead slapped him again.

Dean Fu stumbled and fell on his butt. His face was already swollen and he looked pathetic.

“Stop!” Young Master Lu finally could not take it anymore. He stood up and yelled at Tang Hao.

“Who the hell are you?”

Tang Hao smirked, then kicked at Dean Fu.

“Ah....!” Dean Fu wailed in agony.

A hint of frustrated anger appeared on Young Master Lu’s face.

‘Did that kid just ignore me?’

The fat man chuckled. “You’re finished, you filthy kid! Don’t you know that Young Master Lu here is the son of the top-ranked government official in Province Z? He’s also known as the Crown Prince of Province Z!

“He can send you to the depths of hell with just one finger.”

Tang Hao was indeed shocked when he heard that.

He did not expect that the young person would have such high social standing.

If he was the son of the top-ranked government official in the province, it meant that even He Yifei could not compare to him.

“Ha! Are you scared now! It’s too late!” The man laughed.

Meanwhile, Young Master Lu glared coldly at Tang Hao.

His mood had been ruined.

The woman was about to become his, but the kid had taken her away.

He cackled fiercely. “If you f*ck off this instant, leave her here and pretend that nothing happened, I can consider letting you go.

“Otherwise, you’ll know the true meaning of despair!”

He was confident that the kid would obey him after his identity was revealed.

Everyone who knew who he was obediently followed his commands.

That was why he stepped forward without hesitation.

Jiang Wanying’s frail body trembled. Her face was suffused with agony.

She should have known that the situation would come to this. That person was the son of the highest-ranked government official in the province. His social standing was way above her and Tang Hao.

She was unlucky to have been caught in the situation, and she had now involved Tang Hao in it.

All this would not have happened if she did not make the phone call.

She finally reached a decision after struggling internally. "Let him go. I'll stay!" She said with much difficulty.

Young Master Lu was shocked. Then, he was ecstatic.

"Alright!" He replied without hesitation.

In his eyes, mere university students like Tang Hao were lesser than insects.

"Young Master Lu!" Dean Fu was worried. "That kid just thrashed me! How can you let him go?"

Young Master Lu rolled his eyes at him.

'You're such an idiot! Can you not further ruin my mood? There are so many chances of taking your revenge in the future!' He thought.

"Shut up!" He yelled at Dean Fu, then he smiled and reached toward Jiang Wanying's wrist.

"Come here, Teacher Jiang. Let us continue."

His hand was about to grasp Jiang Wanying's wrist. Suddenly, another hand came from the side and firmly grasped his wrist.

He was shocked at that moment.

Then, someone said coldly into his ear.

“The Crown Prince of Province Z? That’s all nonsense! Do you think that you’re superior just because your dad is a government official?”

He felt a kick on his stomach.

He grunted and his fair and handsome face contorted.

Then, his body flew backward and landed on the floor.
