

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2694

A vast mountain range appeared in the distance.

The shape of this mountain range was very strange. The mountain peaks were all in a mess and crooked. Some of the mountain peaks were even crossed together. Their growth was very messy.

There was a shocking demonic Qi surrounding the mountain range.

At the same time, the pressure of a true immortal filled the air. Even from a distance, it was enough to make one's heart tremble.

"It seems like this is the place!"

Tang Hao mumbled as he gazed at the mountain range.

Based on this true immortal level pressure, he was sure that this was the tomb of the demonic Immortals, and those mountains were not naturally grown. They were produced by the essence of the immortal level stone demon after it passed away.

The so-called stone demon was a stone that absorbed the essence of heaven and earth, turned into a spirit, and developed spiritual intelligence. Only then did it become a demon.

This kind of demon was rare, and the difficulty of cultivation was higher than that of beast demons. It was rare to be able to cultivate to demon immortal.

"Let's go in!"

Tang Hao led the way toward the mountain range.

The closer he got, the stronger the true immortal's pressure became. Tang Hao's immortal energy was a little stagnant, and he could not use it freely.

"We're still outside, and it's already like this. If we go in, I'm afraid it'll be even more serious, and our strength will be greatly reduced!" Standing outside the mountain range, Paragon golden scales' expression was extremely grave.

"It's fine, the others are the same!"

Tang Hao smiled and entered the mountain.

"That's true!"

Thearch golden scales was stunned for a moment before he burst out laughing.

He shook his head, then followed closely behind Tang Hao.

At that moment, a figure swept over from not far away and arrived at the mountain. When he arrived, Tang Hao and the Golden scales Thearch happened to enter, and he caught a glimpse of their back.

But it was this back that made him stunned.

“That guy ... He looks so familiar! Why do I feel like I hate it?”

He stopped and muttered to himself.

“He’s dressed in white, and he’s giving off a disgusting aura. Oh, it’s that kid!” Then, he slapped his thigh in realization.

In this world, other than that damn, detestable brat, who else could make him so disgusted!

“Why is this kid here? He’s a human, what’s he doing here?”

He touched his chin and was a little puzzled.

“This kid must’ve heard the rumors about the fey immortal tomb and came here in search of treasure. That’s right, the human I heard about on the way here should be him! Hmph! This brat, how dare he steal from my monster race, he’s looking for death!”

“Hmph Hmph! Stinky brat, I was just looking for an opportunity to deal with you, but I didn’t expect that you would deliver yourself to my door. The heavens are really helping me!”

“You didn’t expect that I’ve already passed the Tribulation and advanced to the ninth tribulation, did you? I’m a nine tribulation demon venerable now. Even if you have a 10000-foot true spirit and some bullsh * t immortal Emperor divine power, I can still easily crush you to death!”

He looked at the mountain range in front of him, and a cold smile appeared on his face.

He was none other than demon Emperor Huang xie!

After lying dormant in the Holy region for more than four years and relying on the rich resources of the Holy Temple, he had finally recovered his peak cultivation of the ancient times and made further progress to break through to the ninth calamity.

In order to hide his cultivation level, he went to Pangu and found a hidden place to undergo his tribulation. He concealed the Thunder tribulation’s aura, so no one noticed him.

And the reason he did this was to deal with this kid.

He wanted revenge!

He was an ancient demon Thearch, an invincible existence during the myriad Thearch era. But after he woke up in the later generations, he was humiliated and tricked by a human brat. This was simply a great humiliation and a trampling on his demon character.

He had long sworn that one day, he would take revenge, and he would pay it back a hundred times!

Today, the opportunity had finally come!

“That’s great!”

He raised his head and looked at the sky at a 45-degree angle. There were tears in his eyes.

All these years, his life had not been easy. He had been bullied by a dog. A mere human boy could ride on his head and harm him again and again. He had doubted himself more than once. His invincible Dao heart had been shattered.

His demon life turned dark.

But now, he was back! Not only did he return to his peak, but he had also surpassed his previous realm!

He was still the invincible demon Thearch from ancient times. From today onwards, he would be himself again. He would start another legend of invincibility in the Holy region!

And the legend began with this kid!

“Hahaha!”

He laughed out loud, feeling that his thoughts had suddenly been cleared up, and his entire person had a feeling of sublimation.

“Brat, just wait for your death!”

“Let’s go!” He shouted and swept forward, entering the mountain range.

In the mountain, the demonic Qi was thick and the pressure of a true immortal was overwhelming, suppressing everything. Even his cultivation of the ninth tribulation was affected, but he didn’t care. If even he was affected, the boy must be more serious.

“Over there!”

After searching for a while, he finally found the kid and another person beside him. He recognized the person as Jin Lin, who was also a venerable sovereign of Pangu and a demon sovereign. He was considered his junior.

He didn’t even put this person in his eyes.

Who was he?

The invincible ancient Fey Thearch, the Overlord who had defeated all the other Fey thearchs in the myriad Thearch era, would not even think of an ordinary Fey Thearch. Only that brat was qualified to compete with him.

Even he had to admit that the kid was a monster. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been tricked so badly.

"What's that?"

He also saw that the two of them were engaged in a fierce battle with something. It was a huge stone monster, and the aura it exuded was quite powerful. It was half a step into the Supreme-being realm.

"Oh right! It's the remnant soul of a demonic immortal!"

He quickly understood.

That demon immortal had suffered irreversible injuries and eventually died. Before he died, his true spirit would collapse and dissipate, but some of his soul would still remain and attach to the stone, turning into a stone monster like this.

"It shouldn't be a problem for that kid!"

That brat's strength was rather formidable. Even though he was being suppressed, a half-zhizun creature like him was no match for him.

Sure enough, the stone monster was quickly defeated, and a soul was extracted from it and collected by the two of them.

The two of them continued forward and encountered a few more stone monsters. They were defeated one by one and their souls were collected.

He carefully concealed his aura and followed them.

"Keep it! You should collect more. It will be mine in the end anyway. All your things, including those celestial artifacts, will be mine!" He peeked in the dark, his eyes full of greed and ecstasy.

The number of treasures on this kid's body was beyond imagination. He was like a moving Treasure Mountain. Just from the Treasury of the divine temple, this kid had plundered countless treasures. It was impossible to estimate.

Moreover, there were also those two celestial artifacts!

A complete immortal saber and a broken immortal halberd!

He had been coveting the immortal saber for a long time. It was for this saber that he had set his eyes on this kid.

Today, he could finally get his wish!
