

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2704

Tang Hao's mind entered the ring.

The next moment, he was dazzled by a brilliant divine light.

In the spatial ring, a dozen immortal artifacts were piled up into a small mountain. Each immortal artifact was flowing with a divine light, and a shocking phenomenon emerged. One of them was a saber, which was particularly eye-catching. It was golden and had a Dragon coiling on it, looking extremely cool.

"F * ck! The blade is still here!"

Tang Hao grinned when he saw the knife.

This saber's design was really too coquettish and eye-catching!

"One, two, three ... Fourteen, fifteen, fifteen in total!"

He counted and found that there were 15 celestial artifacts in total.

Before, this place had been filled with at least 200 celestial artifacts. But now, there were only 15 left, less than one-tenth.

"It's alright!"

Tang Hao mumbled.

In the black and yellow tower, he had taken such a big risk and only got five celestial artifacts. Now, he had 15, which was not bad.

"It's a pity that I don't have any immortal armor!"

He took a look and found that most of the celestial artifacts were Dharma Treasures and combat weapons. There were several celestial swords among them, but there was not a single armor.

He remembered that he had picked up two immortal armors before, but he didn't leave any behind.

Immortal armors were really rare.

"There's an immortal shield. It's good stuff. Give it to sister Xiangyi!"

There was only one defensive treasure among the pile of immortal artifacts. It was a green immortal shield. Tang Hao immediately thought of sis Xiangyi. He had given her an immortal sword before, so a green immortal shield would be enough to complete the set.

Although he would not let sis Xiangyi and the others fight in the face of danger, he still had to consider accidents just in case.

“There are 14 left. I’ll leave one combat weapon for my origin core clone. I’ll split the remaining 13 later!”

Tang Hao picked up the immortal Weapons and looked at them one by one. In the end, he put them away.

These were all celestial artifacts and were too precious. They couldn’t be distributed randomly and had to be very careful.

Then, he started to look at the other rings. The things in these rings were very complicated. There were all kinds of things: divine materials, immortal medicine, medicinal pills, cultivation techniques, and all kinds of tribulation weapons. He was dazzled by them.

These items were all of high grade and were ancient items. Furthermore, there were so many of them that he could not even count them.

In the spiritual fantasy wonderland, he had travelled through countless worlds and robbed countless treasures. Even if only one-tenth of it was left, it was still a huge amount.

He could only summon his many split souls to help him organize them and place them separately.

“These ancient armors and tribulation weapons are all useful. There are too many people who need them. We’ll just distribute them later. These pills have been distributed as well. The spiritual and divine materials have to be stored for refining weapons.”

It took him more than half a day and tens of thousands of split souls to sort it out.

Tang Hao finally let out a sigh of relief.

Looking at the mountains of treasures in each ring, he was even more overjoyed.

This time, the harvest was too great.

Although he had no use for these treasures, they could greatly increase the strength of the gate of fortune, Kunlun, and the demon God’s sect. They could allow more people to break through and reach a higher level. They could also arm more people.

Although he had refined a large number of armors and treasures, and had also exchanged a lot from the Treasury of the divine temple, all of which were at the ninth tribulation, it was still far from enough.

This batch of treasures could at least make up for a large portion of the gap.

“These are all things that can raise one’s true spirit. Some ancient pills and souls are probably worth hundreds of thousands of true spirit pills! After three months inside, I’ve accumulated another 400000 true spirit pills. In total, I have nearly 800000 pills!”

Tang Hao held a ring in his hand as he calculated.

“I still have a thirty-thousand-year-old soul fruit and nearly eight hundred thousand true spirit pills. It’s enough for two people to advance. One of them will definitely be for sis Xiangyi, but what about the other?”

“The son of fortune? No! In terms of innate divine powers, the conformists were still not enough. He’s strong enough, but he’s not really on our side. Blood crocodile and the old silver Dragon are alright ...”

Tang Hao considered the candidates one by one.

This was a spot to pass the nine tribulations directly, and there was only one, so he had to be very careful.

“It’s better to ... Give it to young master Li!”

Tang Hao finally came to a decision after a long consideration.

Ever since the upper realm, the two of them had not seen each other much. He had not given her much help, so he always felt that he owed her.

Young master Li was the eldest young master of Vermillion Bird heaven, so his talent was naturally the best. It was the best choice to let her advance to the ninth tribulation.

“Let’s do this!”

Tang Hao cut up the soul fruit and refined it into two balls of essence, then put them into Jade bottles.

He put away the Jade bottle. There were three things left in front of him. One was a box that contained the tea of Dao, the other was a five-colored Demon Heart, and the last was a ring that contained all kinds of rare plants.

“I’ll drink this tea later. I’ll be able to condense a lot of Taoist connotation. This demon’s heart and the ring, just wait for my avatar to come out!”

After putting away the three items, he was done sorting out the gains from this trip.

Then, Tang Hao stood up, took out the blood butcher knife, opened a void passage, and entered the demon God Realm.

The changes in the demon God World were not small either. The bloody massacre mountain range had expanded several times. Immortal Qi from all directions had gathered, turning the mountain range into a paradise.

It had been a year since Tang Hao came in, bestowed flesh and blood, established the demon God Army, opened up the herb field, and imparted knowledge of various DAOs.

A year had passed, and the demon God clan was on the right track. The alchemy Dao and the craftsmanship Dao were well-built, and the number of eight-tribulation great emperors had increased to more than 60000. He was not far from his target of 100000 people.

In a year, these people had experienced the harshest training, and their battle formations had also been trained to a decent level.

“My Lord, I’ve been personally supervising and training them every day for the past year. They’ve been trained to death. They’ve been reborn and their combat power has increased greatly.”

Jiang Yang brought Tang Hao to inspect the demon God Army.

“Not bad!”

Compared to the last time they came, the temperament of this group of people was completely different. They were filled with a sharp killing intent, and their movements were neat and uniform. They were well-disciplined. They really had the style of an iron army.

No one had ever trained an eight-tribulation venerable sovereign into an Army!

Tang Hao said to himself.

He did not know if anyone had done this in the prehistoric times, but since the era of Qiyuan, no one had done this. What he had done was definitely a world-shaking feat that could shock everyone in the world.

This would also be one of his trump cards.

“The training is not enough. Make it harsher.”

Tang Hao personally modified the training program and increased the difficulty by several times.

“These are some of the demon God’s sect’s treasures. Tribulation artifacts, pills, spirit medicines, and divine materials. Take them and place them in the Treasury. Use them appropriately.”

Then, Tang Hao took out the things he had prepared and gave them to Jiang Yang.

“Also, this is for you. It can help you pass the nine tribulations!”

In the end, Tang Hao took out a ring and handed it over. It contained half of the blood and flesh of the ancient beast, the black ape.
