

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2715

In the blink of an eye, a year had passed.

In the past year, the Haotian continent had undoubtedly become the center of the Holy region.

All the alchemists and blacksmiths were gathered there. They studied the alchemy and blacksmithing Scriptures, exchanged pointers, and improved their skills rapidly.

In a year's time, the standard of the entire Holy region's alchemy and blacksmithing had improved by a large margin.

Countless Masters emerged.

With the support of the divine temple, all kinds of divine pills were produced continuously. Five Pangu divine ships were also produced.

When the first ship appeared, the entire Holy region was in an uproar. Countless people rushed over just to take a look.

This was no ordinary divine boat. It was a divine boat that surpassed the ancient divine boat of creation.

Elder lingqing had also come to take a look and was extremely shocked.

There were many ancient cities and battle arks in his sanctuary, all of which were made by ancient supreme beings. They were all very powerful, but they were nothing compared to the Pangu divine boat.

The Pangu divine boat was so huge that it was hard to imagine. It was millions of feet long and could accommodate countless cultivators.

And these xiuzhe could use the divine boat to merge their auras into one. When they fired a cannon, the power was terrifying.

"This is a super killer weapon!"

Elder Ling Qing sighed, her entire body trembling with excitement.

"This was designed by that kid? Is he a monster?"

"This is too abnormal!"

Some of the Supreme martial artists were dumbfounded after reading it.

How could there be such a terrifying weapon in this world?

Whether it was his sacred city, his battleship, or the black gold Pagoda of the nine-colored God race, none of them could compare to this divine boat.

This was simply a divine boat, an unprecedented creation in the history of crafts!

Some Supreme martial artists couldn't help but join the refining team.

During that year, Tang Hao was busy refining. He dismantled the divine fate boat of the gate of fortune and refined it again to increase its power.

Then, he took out the bones of the black ape and began to refine the giant God.

Ever since Qi Yuan had come out, he had not refined giant God again.

This black ape skeleton was the remains of an ancient great evil. Its cultivation base was at the Dao integration stage when it was alive, so it was the most suitable for refining the giant God.

Moreover, it was big enough, tens of millions of feet tall, and could accommodate countless formations, refining a super giant God.

He took out all the divine materials he had accumulated over the years. Nine-colored sky Crystal, Golden Phoenix marrow crystal, they were all rare divine materials. He also took out the even rarer Star Crystal cores.

He took the largest amount of those divine materials and smelted them together to refine the body of the giant God.

Only the bones of the black ape were left. It needed a heavenly amount of gold and iron to fill it up and cast it into a body.

On his body, he would carve countless formations.

For a giant God, the core was the most important. It was the source of his power. He chose the highest-grade star core and supplemented it with other crystal-like materials. In the end, an extremely huge core was refined.

This core far surpassed the one on the divine craft creation boat. It was the largest, most complicated core he had ever refined. It was also the most powerful.

Tang Hao had spent ten whole months and countless efforts to refine this giant God.

"Rise!"

"Let's go!" Tang Hao shouted as he faced the giant ape in front of him in a remote area of the demon God Realm.

This giant ape no longer had black skin. Its body had become a brilliant gold, completely made of gold and iron. Its entire body was covered with complex divine patterns.

He stood there motionlessly. His aura was already extremely terrifying because his body was too huge. In front of him, a human's body was not even comparable to an ant.

Following Tang Hao's clear shout, the giant ape moved. Its pair of golden eyes suddenly lit up, emitting a divine light that was nearly a thousand feet long.

In front of his chest, the huge core also lit up, shining with divine light like stars.

The divine patterns lit up and glowed with divine light.

"Roar!"

He waved his arm, opened his mouth, and let out an earth-shaking roar.

In an instant, rings of sound waves spread out with him as the center. Everything in the surroundings exploded and turned into dust.

He raised his foot and took a step forward. The ground shook and a thunderous sound was heard. It was extremely terrifying.

"Not bad!"

Tang Hao examined the giant ape. After confirming that there were no flaws, he nodded in satisfaction.

This giant God had been refined perfectly.

"In the future, I'll call you ape God!"

Tang Hao said after some thought.

Then, he took out a token, put the giant God away, and left the demon God World.

"My Lord!"

He summoned fairy Yunrong and asked her about the situation in the training hall.

Yun Rong reported one by one.

"Jin Lin and the others' truesouls have already reached 20000 meters? Not bad! In a year or two, the three of them will have a chance to pass the Tribulation!"

Tang Hao was quite satisfied when he heard that.

Once Jin Lin, Yu Shiyi, and the others transcended their tribulations, the training hall would have three more Supreme martial artists.

“Also, young master Li ... Has already transcended her tribulation. Recently, there have been a few who have successfully transcended their tribulation.” Yun Rong then briefly explained the situation outside.

Tang Hao was not surprised. He had expected this.

“Come with me to the temple!”

Tang Hao rose and brought her out of great heaven peak toward the divine temple.

Not far from the entrance of the Holy Palace, in front of the divine wheel, he saw Supreme Xuan Hong.

Upon sensing him, Supreme Xuan Hong opened his eyes and looked over.

“Greetings, Paragon!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands and said.

“You’re still calling me Supreme martial artist! Just call me fellow Daoist! Your current status is no longer ordinary!” Xuan Hong said with a smile. He sized up Tang Hao and revealed a look of approval.

He could sense that this person had already condensed a lot of Taoist connotation. He had entered the realm at a lightning speed, so he obviously had a great encounter.

“Greetings, Paragon!”

Yun Rong bowed and greeted him with respect.

“This little girl is ...?” Xuan Hong glanced at her.

“He’s just a servant of his Lord!” Yun Rong said.

“An attendant?”

Xuan Hong was stunned and a little surprised.

A half-zhizun realm servant, and such a gentle and beautiful fairy?

This display of power was big enough!

Even his temple didn’t have such a display!

“I’ve almost forgotten. I heard from lingqing that you have a lot of great emperors there, tens of thousands, right? No wonder!” Then, he thought of something and asked, “by the way, why did you come today?”

“Pick someone up from the spirit wheel level!”

Tang Hao said.

“A clone?”

Xuan Hong said.

Tang Hao nodded.

“Alright!”

“Yes,” Xuan Hong replied. With a wave of his sleeve, a void passage opened in the center of the divine wheel.

After a while, a golden figure flew out from inside and stopped in front of Tang Hao. He called out to Tang Hao, “fellow Daoist.” It was the origin core clone.
