

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2739

The reverent-God at the front noticed it, but he was disdainful.

He was just a coward and an idiot. How powerful could he be with a strange celestial artifact? it wouldn't even be enough to scratch his itch!

With this thought in mind, he didn't Dodge, but opened up a light screen.

However, what happened next almost scared him out of his wits.

When the big stick came, it was as easy as breaking dry weeds and smashing rotten wood. It broke his protective light curtain and then smashed his head. He didn't have time to react at all. With a bang, his entire body exploded.

The three people behind were instantly dumbfounded.

When they looked up again and sensed it carefully, they were shocked.

This guy was not a coward or an idiot. He was clearly an old monster at the peak of the Dao integration realm, a top-tier master of the human race!

F * ck your mother!

You're a top old monster, why are you acting like an idiot? is this fun? He was simply too despicable and shameless!

They cursed in their hearts and turned to escape.

They were only in the middle stage, and they were no match for an expert in the peak of the late stage.

"You want to run? Hmph!"

Liu heihu raised his hand, and beams of divine light flew out.

"I'll smash it! I'll smash! I'll smash, smash, smash!"

He shouted excitedly and threw out one treasure after another. All of them were immortal artifacts, making the three reverent-god level experts spit out blood. Soon, they couldn't take it anymore and their bodies exploded.

"F * ck! This guy is that awesome?"

The temple's paragons were completely dumbfounded.

Didn't this guy just advance not long ago? it's only been one or two years! How did he reach the peak of the Dao integration realm?

This was too F * cking abnormal!

Even hegemon vast heaven wasn't that impressive, and his cultivation base was only at the Dao glimpse realm. Yet, you're at the peak Dao integration realm? What kind of heaven-defying luck do you have?

The people from the four major forces were also stunned.

"I remember him. He's Liu heihu. He came up with ruler Haotian. He was quite famous before. Supreme Xuan Hong called him the pillar of the sacred Hall!"

"As expected of a pillar! It was indeed powerful! Supreme martial artist Xuan Hong truly has a pair of sharp eyes!"

Everyone exclaimed in admiration, their expressions excited.

He was also a peerless monster!

The heavens were really blessing the human race!

"Hahaha! It's alright! Don't praise me like that, I'll be embarrassed. "

Liu heihu looked around and laughed. He looked very humble, but he was very happy in his heart.

"Hurry up! Kill these four!"

At this moment, the Supreme-beings from all four sides attacked at the same time, blocking the four seriously injured reverent-god level experts and killing them completely.

"This guy ... I've never seen him before!"

"Where did this Supreme Master come from?"

Many reverent-god level cultivators in the nine-colored camp looked at Liu heihu with confusion.

There were very few top powerhouses in the human race, and they all knew each other. However, this guy was very unfamiliar.

"Hmph! Who cares where he came from, let's kill him!"

A reverent-God in black armor stepped out, exuding a peerless aura.

He stretched out his hand and a pitch-black battle blade appeared. It was ten meters long and had a Dragon coiling around it. It was shrouded in a shocking killing intent.

"Black ... Little black cat, I'll fight you!"

The nine-colored warrior looked at Liu heihu and was stunned.

“What black cat? are you blind? This is a Tiger, a Black Tiger, what a majestic black Tiger. You are the cat, your whole family are cats!” Liu heihu was furious. He hated it when people called him a black cat.

“This is ... A Tiger?”

The peak expert of the nine-colored tribe was stunned.

It was clearly a cat!

“Hmph! I don’t care if you’re a cat or a Tiger, I’ll kill you without hesitation!”

“Die!” He shouted as he waved his saber and attacked.

“I’ll F * ck you! If you want to kill your uncle Black Tiger, you’ll have to cultivate for a few thousand years!”

Liu heihu cursed and released his peak-level Dao integration aura. Then, he waved his hand and endless divine light flew out. They were all Immortal Weapons and bombarded the area.

As the two of them fought intensely, the human sovereigns who had rushed out from the side also began to fight with the nine-colored reverent-God.

“Let’s make our move!”

The longevity Supreme and the silver Divine Spirit stepped out from the city wall and released their auras.

The silver God expanded its body and turned into a giant God. It waved its giant palm and slapped toward the nine-colored clansmen. A few Supreme gods were immediately sent flying, and blood spurted out.

The venerable sovereigns exploded and turned into dust upon contact.

“This is ... A real ancient God?”

“How can there be such an ancient God in Pangu world?”

The nine-colored tribe cried out in alarm.

They looked at the silver God spirit with shock.

This was not a descendant, but a real ancient God!

“I’ll do it!”

With a loud shout, a nine-colored Supreme Peak Master walked out and pounced on the silver God.

“Aooo!”

A deafening dragon roar.

The winged rain-Dragon extended its body and pounced forward. The might it exuded once again shocked the nine-colored tribe.

Top!

Another peerless aura!

Where did this Supreme Being come from?

This was completely beyond their expectations.

Before they could recover from their shock, a few more figures flew out. One of them also had a top-notch aura, while the others were slightly weaker, but they were also in the Dao integration realm.

“I’ve never seen these people before! Where did you get them?”

The nine-colored clansmen were even more shocked.

Their expressions also became unsightly. They had thought that this group of survivors was already extremely weak, and they could easily crush them. But now, they realized that this group of survivors was unexpectedly strong.

Even if they could, they would have to pay a huge price.

“Hmph! So what if we have a few more peerless experts? they won’t be able to cause any waves!”

The nine-colored Hierarch sneered.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

In the next moment, many figures swept out and pounced forward.

“That’s the ye clan’s battleship. I’m going to find old man ye. I didn’t kill him last time, but it’s a pity that he can’t escape this time!”

“I’ll go to the Ji clan!”

After that, these reverent-god level experts found their own targets and pounced over. As long as there was a Supreme-level expert, they would be targeted.

“Let us take care of this brat!”

The rest of the Supreme gods looked around before shifting their gazes to the side of the sacred city. Their eyes fell on the huge golden divine boat, and their faces were filled with anger and coldness.

That heaven-defying genius, the leader of the human race, was sitting on this battleship!

As long as he killed this monster, he would be able to severely injure the human race and wash away the humiliation he had suffered before the battle!

“Nine peerless experts, that’s enough!”

The reverent-God in the lead turned around and nodded.

Even though so many reverent-god level cultivators were dispatched, there were still hundreds of reverent-god level cultivators left. Among them, nine were peerless and 20 to 30 were late-god level cultivators. Such overwhelming strength was enough to easily kill this monster.

And his force, the Haotian Daoist sect, would be razed to the ground.

“Let’s do it! Let’s destroy this battleship first! Then, kill that demon!” The Hierarch in the lead shouted. He raised his hand and a golden sword flew out. It expanded instantly and released a shocking sword intent.

The hundreds of reverent-god level cultivators behind him also attacked.

Combat weapons flew out one after another, giving off a shocking aura.

Countless terrifying killing intents instantly enveloped the creation warship.

“BOOM!”

The Hierarch in the lead shouted, his face full of excitement.

As long as the waves of energy poured over, this divine boat would definitely explode, and that brat would have no choice but to show himself. At that time, it would be the time of his death!

However, at this moment, a golden light suddenly leaped out of the divine boat. It expanded and turned into a golden locust tree that stood in the void.

“What ... What is this?”

The reverent-God looked at it and was stunned.

Before he could react, the locust tree shook, and countless golden lightning bolts appeared in the air and struck down.
