

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2741

"It didn't work?"

"How could this be ..."

Not far away, the peerless master pros' expressions changed drastically.

They were all in slight disbelief. Even after using a true God weapon, and it was a sneak attack, they were actually still unable to break through that brat's fleshy body.

What kind of freak was this?

For a moment, they felt their blood run cold.

"Grind! Grind him to death! Right now, he's still at his peak. When he's exhausted, it'll be easy to break his body!"

"That's right!"

The few paragons looked at each other and came to a consensus.

They had originally wanted to end the battle quickly, but it didn't work now. They could only change it to grinding. Anyway, they had more people, and they would grind this monster to death sooner or later!

"All of you, attack together!"

They looked behind them and shouted at the reverent-god level cultivators.

The group of reverent-god level experts responded and prepared to attack.

"Hmph!"

At this moment, a cold snort exploded.

The figure suddenly disappeared.

In the next moment, he appeared in front of the reverent-god level cultivators and threw a punch at them.

Bang!

The reverent-God at the front immediately shattered his armor. His chest exploded and he flew back while spitting blood.

He screamed in horror, his soul almost flying out of his body.

He was a middle-stage nine-star cultivator and could be considered as a powerful expert. However, he could not even take one punch from this guy. The strength of this human race's monstrous talent was completely overwhelming for a middle-stage Hierarch like him.

He didn't even want to resist. His body turned into divine light and he wanted to escape.

However, at this moment, a huge force came from behind him and pulled him. Then, a dark gold furnace came over and swallowed him.

All of this happened in the blink of an eye.

When the rest of the reverent-god level experts came back to their senses, their faces turned pale. Even the late-stage reverent-god level experts were terrified and frantically retreated.

It would be a nightmare to be so close to this demon!

Tang Hao's eyes swept over them indifferently.

He stretched out his hand, and a green spear appeared in his palm. The next moment, the divine spear turned into a stream of light with golden lightning surrounding it and instantly pierced a nine-colored Hierarch.

The reverent-God's body stiffened, and his expression was still a little dazed.

He didn't seem to believe that he had been pierced through. When he lowered his head and saw the Big Hole in his chest, he immediately revealed an extremely frightened expression.

The next moment, his body exploded with a bang.

Si si si!

In an instant, the surroundings were filled with loud gasps.

One punch and one spear, blowing up two reverent-god level experts!

Such combat strength was truly terrifying!

"Hmph! Don't be so insolent!"

"Stop him!"

The nine peerless master pros' eyes almost popped out of their sockets. They let out a hiss and pounced over.

"What a hindrance!"

Tang Hao glanced at them and furrowed his brows.

“It’s time to let you out!”

He flicked his sleeve, and a token flew out. It spun around, and suddenly, a bright divine light bloomed.

“This is ...?”

The nine paragons were stunned as they looked at the token.

In the next moment, their expressions changed drastically.

From the token, there was a monstrous and ferocious aura, accompanied by a deafening roar.

There was an extremely vicious object inside the token!

They immediately withdrew and wanted to retreat. However, at this moment, an extremely huge dragon head drilled out. It opened its mouth and a shocking divine light shot out.

Ah!

One of the top-tier old monsters was hit by the explosion, and one of his arms and half of his shoulder exploded.

“It’s a Black Dragon!”

“It’s also top-notch! What a brutal and terrifying aura!”

They retreated into the distance and looked at the unimaginably huge black Dragon that had burrowed out of the token. Their expressions were filled with shock.

This brat actually had such a terrifying great beast on his body!

“How did he manage to subdue such a great evil?”

Some peerless experts exclaimed in shock.

“Subdue? ‘Subdue your mother!’ I’ve always been the Supreme ruler of the world. How could I be subdued by others? You little bug, you deserve to die!”

The Black Dragon was furious the moment it came out.

He was already very unhappy that he was working for this human brat, but this little worm was actually mocking him. He really deserved to die!

“Go to hell! Go to hell! Go to hell!”

He opened his mouth, and rays of divine light shot out crazily, pouring down on the peerless master.

Puff! Puff! Puff! Puff!

That peak was struck until it spat out blood repeatedly, looking extremely miserable.

“Hurry up! Quickly stop this beast!”

The rest of the people saw this and hurriedly attacked.

Tang Hao flicked his sleeve again, and another token flew out. The roars of all kinds of beasts came from the token. The Hierarch of nine colors watched in shock as giant beasts walked out one after another.

Every single one of them was terrifyingly huge and were all Dao integration stage super mighty beasts.

“Daomerge! They’re all at the daomerge!”

“Why are there so many Dao integration stage super beasts?”

They all exclaimed in shock.

Then, they started to panic. Those great beasts walked out and pounced on them.

The situation on the battlefield suddenly became chaotic.

“Ah!”

An early Hierarch was sent flying by a great inauspicious beast. Then, a few great inauspicious beasts swarmed forward and tore him into pieces before swallowing him.

The situation of hundreds of reverent-god level cultivators attacking Tang Hao was broken.

“What’s going on over there?”

“Why are those reverent-god level experts running away?”

Very quickly, the nine-colored clansmen from all four directions noticed the situation. When they looked over, they were all stunned.

There were hundreds of reverent-god level cultivators, but they were all beaten up and running away. They were being chased by giant beasts, each of which had a terrifying aura and was extremely brutal.

What was even more terrifying was the figure standing on the shoulder of a giant golden ape.

The divine light around him was so bright that it was impossible to look at him directly.

He raised his hand and rays of golden-green divine light shot out. With every strike, a reverent-God fell. From time to time, a reverent-God would pounce over to kill him, but they were all sent flying by his punches.

He stood there, his divine might shocking the heavens, and he was invincible.

The nine-colored clansmen were all stunned and deeply shocked.

What a valiant and invincible stance!

Then, they were stunned and frightened.

Such an invincible enemy would be their nightmare!

On the other hand, the humans cheered when they saw this, and their fighting spirit rose even higher.

“Not good!”

In the distance, several top old monsters who were fighting against the descendants of the gods, the untainted tribe, and the Wu tribe turned around and were shocked.

The battlefield over there was going to collapse!

They were even more in disbelief. The battlefield over there clearly had the most number of peak experts, so how could it have collapsed like this?

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

They immediately withdrew and rushed over from all directions to help this battlefield.

“The three of you, stop this Black Dragon. The three of you, kill these great beasts. The rest of you, follow me and kill this monster!”

The gray-robed old man who had fought with the wizard corpse earlier gathered his men and led the charge toward Tang Hao.
