

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2747

Tang Hao was surprised when he saw the clothes.

Then, his face turned red.

Only then did he realize that he was not wearing anything.

“This is embarrassing!”

He scratched his head and smiled bitterly.

He stood up and unfolded the clothes. It was an ordinary white plain clothes, which was exactly what he liked.

He put on his clothes, but did not go out immediately. Instead, he sat down and began to ponder.

According to his original plan, after defeating the nine-colored tribe, he would find a passage to the outer realm and find star pupil and sia. Now that he had come here by accident, it was no different from bringing his plan forward.

Although he was injured, his sea of the path was sealed, and he couldn't use his celestial core power easily, his physical body and true spirit were still there. Even if he encountered the ninth tribulation, he wasn't afraid, so his safety was not a problem.

The next step was to find out more about this Azure meteor star and the situation of this star field.

“Oh right, my ring! Which bastard took it away!”

Suddenly, he thought of his immortal execution king ring.

He was originally wearing it on his finger. When the explosion occurred, he didn't see the ring shatter, but now that he had woken up, the ring was gone. It must have fallen into this Azure meteor and been snatched away.

He still had a lot of treasures in the ring, including his portable herb garden.

“How dare you steal my treasure! I'll teach you a lesson when I find it!”

He snorted softly, a little annoyed.

He had always been the one stealing from others. He didn't expect that he would be robbed by others today.

He wasn't worried. He had set up many restrictions on the ring and it was protected by his spiritual will. Even a ninth tribulation would not be able to break it.

His other treasures, such as the Yan Luo divine spear and the bloody Butcher knife, were all in the battlefield of gods and demons. His two clones were with sis Xiangyi. They should know that he was fine through his clones.

At such a distance, the clone naturally could not sense him. However, if he was dead, the clone would definitely sense it.

As for the divine furnace, it was still in the sea of the path, and so was his self. They were both sealed in the sea of the path.

“Since we’re here, we’ll take things as they come!”

Tang Hao took a deep breath and stood up.

It just so happened that he could experience the elegant demeanor of this foreign land.

This starry sky was countless times larger than the endless starry sky from before. This was the real starry sky!

His mood also became much more relaxed.

In the past, when he was in the sacred zone, he had been thinking about how to prepare for battle and how to deal with the nine-colored race. Now that the war was over, he didn’t have to work as hard as before.

He happily walked out of the cave.

Outside the cave, su Xuezi and ye Siyao were waiting. When they turned around, they were both stunned.

The person who walked out of the cave abode was dressed in white. He stood tall and straight like a sword. His face was handsome and extraordinary, especially his eyes. They were deep and full of spirit. It was as if they had magic and were especially attractive.

At a glance, the two of them were shocked.

In just a short while, this person’s temperament had changed greatly, and he was like a completely different person.

The man in front of her seemed to have a kind of peerless elegance. It was the temperament of a peerless expert who looked down on all directions.

Ye Siyao’s little mouth was wide open, and her face was full of disbelief.

Could it be that this fellow was originally a very powerful figure?

She couldn’t help but think.

But then, her face fell.

Awesome, my ass!

If he was really that amazing, why would he be crippled and then picked up from the river like garbage?

How could that be possible?

His strength was probably just average and not that powerful. And now, he was even more of a cripple. What was there to pretend about?

At the thought of this, she pouted her lips in disdain.

“What a pity!”

Su Xuezi’s eyes flickered with a strange light, and then, she sighed inwardly.

She felt that this person should have had some status, otherwise he would not have such a temperament. But now, he had ended up with his cultivation crippled. It was really a pity!

They were sizing Tang Hao up, and Tang Hao was doing the same.

Ye Siyao had a beautiful oval face, and her eyebrows were like a painting. She was indeed beautiful, and her body was graceful and full. She was quite hot, and he had seen her just now.

However, his temper was not very good.

Tang Hao did not like it, but he did not hate it either.

Su Xuezi, who was standing beside him, was much gentler and more dignified. Her figure and appearance were both stunning, but Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he saw her face.

Her veil had its own mist that could block most people’s gazes, but it could not block his divine eyes.

He could see that on her originally fair face, there was a patch of black spots. It didn’t look like it was naturally grown, but more like some kind of poison.

Seeing that Tang Hao was staring at her face, su Xuezi subconsciously lowered her head and dodged.

No wonder she had to wear a veil!

Tang Hao said to himself.

He didn’t continue to stare at it. He walked over and cupped his hands.”Lady su, thank you!”

He was very grateful to this man. If it weren’t for him, he would probably still be floating in the river!

“No need! It’s no trouble at all!”

Su Xuezi smiled. "Oh right, I still don't know your name."

"Surnamed Tang, name Chuan!"

Tang Hao said.

The name Tang Chuan was one of his many aliases.

"Then I'll call you young master Tang!"

Su Xuezi replied, "I've already sent a message to the peak Master. She asked me to take you there to take a look."

"Alright!"

Tang Hao nodded.

Then, he followed the two girls to the peak. Along the way, he saw many female cultivators. They were all quite young and beautiful, some pure, some charming, and had different temperaments. He was a little dazzled.

"It's really all women!"

He said in surprise.

"Of course. The great fate sect has five peaks. The other four are all male cultivators, and all the female cultivators are here on little Cold Peak." Su Xuezi replied, "our Peak Master is a seventh tribulation sage realm expert! His Daoist name is Red Cloud, and he's the sect master of the great fate sect. He's an 8th tribulation cultivator."

As she said this, her tone became a little proud.

Eight tribulations?

Not bad!

Tang Hao nodded to himself.

The great fate sect was not considered a big sect on the vast meteor star, but they actually had an 8th tribulation expert. This proved that the cultivation level of this star was quite high, and there might be many 9th tribulation Supremes.

Along the way, the female cultivators also looked at him with surprise.

On this little Cold Peak, it was rare to see a man all year round.

Moreover, he was such a handsome man with an extraordinary temperament.

“Who is this?”

“I don’t know him! There’s no such person in the sect!”

They whispered to each other.

After reaching the peak, the three of them entered a large hall.

Tang Hao finally met the red Cloud Sage, the peak Master of little Cold Peak.

She looked like she was in her forties and was dressed in blue. Her temperament was a little cold and old-fashioned.

She was shocked when she saw Tang Hao.

When she came back to her senses, she shook her head and said, “it’s a pity.”

Then, she stepped forward, grabbed Tang Hao’s wrist, and started examining him.
