

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2755

“What ... What’s going on?”

Liu Ying and the other four men were also stunned.

The person who attacked was a 3rd tribulation expert, and the sword he used was a 7th tribulation flying sword, which was extremely sharp. Even a 4th tribulation or 5th tribulation expert couldn’t receive it with his body intact!

Furthermore, he was a cripple!

“You’re just tickling me!”

The man in white finally spoke. His tone was a little lazy, as if what was hanging on his chest was not a sword, but a feather duster.

“This is impossible!”

The Thin Man gritted his teeth and madly activated his flying sword.

However, no matter how hard he tried, the figure remained unscathed.

“This sword is not very good! You see, it broke with a twist!”

The white-robed man stretched out his hand and grabbed the sword. He pinched the sword and gently broke it. With a ding sound, the seven tribulations flying sword broke into two pieces in front of the frightened eyes of Liu Ying and the five male cultivators.

Si si si!

The next moment, everyone gasped.

The six people’s faces were pale, and they were so scared that their souls almost flew away.

He had broken a seven tribulations flying sword with his bare hands!

What a terrifying strength!

With such strength, how could he be a cripple?

This was probably an old monster!

“How could this be? Didn’t they say that he was very young and that his strength wasn’t that great? Moreover, the peak Master has personally checked it out. He has indeed been crippled!”

Liu Ying couldn’t help but tremble as she muttered.

“Wait, is he an eighth tribulation great emperor?”

Suddenly, she thought of a possibility. Her whole body trembled as if she had been struck by lightning. Then, as if she had lost her soul, she almost fell to the ground.

Emperor realm cultivators were extremely powerful. In the entire great fate sect, the sect master was the only Emperor realm cultivator!

Such an expert’s physical body was almost indestructible and incomparably terrifying!

Therefore, even if his dantian’s sea of the path was crippled, he still had such a terrifying physical body that could easily break a seven tribulations flying sword!

“He ... He’s a Dethroned Emperor?”

When the five people heard this, they all trembled and widened their eyes in horror.

Although there was only a one-word difference between a crippled Emperor and a crippled person, the two were as different as heaven and earth.

To three-tribulation saints like them, a crippled Emperor was still a terrifying existence.

“Liu Ying, didn’t you say that he’s a cripple?”

A male cultivator looked at Liu Ying and roared madly.

“I ... I don’t know!”

Liu Ying’s face was pale as she muttered.

Her eyes widened as she looked at the white-robed figure in front of her, her face filled with despair.

“Se ... Senior, please ... Please spare me! We were just following orders, we didn’t want to do this!” The male cultivators knelt down and kowtowed desperately, crying and begging.

“Is that so?”

Tang Hao strolled toward them and glared at them coldly.

“Senior, this is all the plan of that B * tch Zhao Yan and that bastard Jiang Yun. They were the ones who threatened me, and I had no choice but to do this,” Liu Ying also knelt down and begged.

Tang Hao glanced at her indifferently and chuckled. He then turned around and walked toward ye Siyao.

She was paralyzed on the ground and was almost out of her mind.

Seeing him approach, it entangled itself with him, its body burning hot and its waist like a water snake.

"I'm in the way!"

"Tsk!" Tang Hao gave her a karate chop and knocked her out.

At this time, a swooshing sound came from behind him. It was a male cultivator who took the opportunity to escape in a divine light.

Tang Hao turned around to look and chuckled.

At the next moment, in the immortal aperture above his head, a golden light flashed as a figure walked out.

BOOM!

The moment this figure stepped out, an extremely majestic and powerful force spread out.

The void around them froze.

The divine light that had escaped also stopped and froze there.

"This ... This is ..."

Liu Ying knelt on the ground, and her body trembled even more violently. She could not control it at all.

This golden figure's power was too terrifying!

She had never seen such a terrifying thing before. Even the sect master of the great fate sect didn't have such a terrifying aura!

It was as if she was facing a true immortal. The overwhelming pressure almost suffocated her.

'What ... What is this?'

Who was he?

Her heart trembled, and she became more and more frightened and desperate.

She found it even more ridiculous. This guy, who was casually picked up from the river and was a cripple in many people's eyes, was actually such a terrifying and world-shocking expert who was so powerful that he exceeded her imagination, despite being an errand boy of her little Cold Peak!

"What is this?"

"Could it be the true spirit of the legends?"

The male cultivators were also trembling in fear.

The true spirit looked at them indifferently.

Then, he raised his hand and snapped his fingers.

The male cultivator in the distance who was suppressed immediately exploded with a bang, and his entire person turned into nothing.

Then, with another snap of his fingers, another person exploded. His physical body and primordial spirit were instantly turned into ashes.

“Senior, please don’t kill me. As long as you spare me, I’ll do anything you want! Servant, cauldron, I’m willing to do anything!” Liu Ying madly begged.

The true spirit glanced at her, raised his hand indifferently, and gently waved.

Her body shook and exploded with a bang.

“A bunch of scum, their deaths are not to be regretted!”

Tang Hao grunted.

He looked left and right again and was a little disappointed. That adulterous couple was actually not here. If they were, he would have killed them in passing to save himself the trouble.

Then, he turned around and looked at the unconscious ye Siyao, who was lying on the ground.

The poison was still taking effect, and her skin was almost red.

If she didn’t solve it now, it would probably affect her Foundation.

“Mm! This poison was simple! It’s just a Gu worm!”

Tang Hao grabbed her wrist and examined it.

The real spirit reached out and touched her stomach with two fingers. Then, it moved up to her throat.

Then, a pink mist came out of his mouth, it was a Gu worm.

Tang Hao reached out his hand and crushed the Gu worms.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao dusted his hands and stood up.

“This place is a dangerous place, there should be some spiritual essence. Since we’re already here, it’s a good time to explore.” Tang Hao pondered for a moment, then sent his true spirit down to search for the spiritual essence.

As for his main body, he sat down and waited.

“There really is one!”

After a while, the true spirit found a few immortal herbs in the depths of the Rift Valley. They were not very old, but it was still a good harvest.

When his true spirit returned, he opened his mouth and swallowed the immortal herbs.

After a long while, he heard a groan and the beauty beside him woke up.

Her beautiful eyes were a little dazed when she opened them. Then, she seemed to have remembered something. She looked at Tang Hao in shock. Then, she screamed out loud, her face full of shame and anger.

“Bastard!”

She screamed and pounced over, throwing a punch.
