

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2758

Tang Hao stood where he was for a while.

Then, he laughed.

He sat on a bird and slowly flew back to the great fate sect.

As for Zhao Yan, he didn't ask about her anymore. He assumed that after they saw ye Siyao return, they would know that their plan had failed and wouldn't make a move for a while.

Ye Siyao probably wouldn't be fooled so easily again after this.

He could now deduce and study the great void realm in peace.

In the next few days, other than going out in the morning, sweeping the ground on the peak, and watering the fields, he would sit in the small wooden house and work hard on his deduction.

"It's time to buy soul crystals!"

That day, Tang Hao went to the great fate sect's Treasury and took four bags of crystals, then headed to clarity city.

"Shopkeeper, have the goods arrived?"

Tang Hao said to the shopkeeper after they entered the four treasures Pavilion.

"We're here! We're here!"

The shopkeeper chuckled and warmly welcomed him.

"Come, come to this private room."

He led Tang Hao to a private room, then took out four boxes and placed them on the table. Three of the boxes were of the same size, but one of them was especially big, four to five times bigger than the others.

Tang Hao's gaze immediately fell on the box.

"Young master, this is the largest Soul Source crystal I can get. Are you satisfied with it?"

The shopkeeper opened the box, revealing a large purple crystal.

Its entire body was covered in a hazy purple light. Inside, star sand surged, making it look quite dreamy.

"This is a top-grade one. It's three feet long and one foot wide. It's rare to see such a big one. Of course, it's more expensive than the average one. This one costs three million Yuan!"

The shopkeeper said.

“Good treasure!”

Tang Hao looked at it carefully and nodded in satisfaction.

To him, the bigger this thing was, the better.

With four soul crystals, he could do four experiments. He would use the small one first and then the big one.

“Four pills in total, four million. What do you think, manager?” Tang Hao said to the shopkeeper.

“Four million!”

The innkeeper was a little hesitant.

“Manager, I’m going to refine an important treasure. Four soul crystals won’t be enough. I need four or five more!” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Alright, four million it is!”

When the shopkeeper heard this, he was immediately amused and hurriedly nodded in agreement.

“No problem, it’s four million! Young master is indeed forthright!”

He took the storage bag from Tang Hao and counted the pills with his divine will. Then, he laughed. “How about this? I’ll make a few more pills in the next few days. It’ll take about ten days. You can come back then, young master!”

“Alright!”

Tang Hao nodded. He asked the shopkeeper to put the four boxes into a storage bag before he left clarity city.

In order to create a virtual world like the great void realm, eight or nine soul crystals were obviously not enough. It was not even enough for him to do experiments, not to mention that he would still need to make countless keys after he succeeded.

These keys also required soul crystals.

However, he couldn’t buy it in one place, as it would leave traces.

He was thinking very far ahead. Once he successfully refined the Mirage, it would definitely attract covetous eyes. At that time, the soul Origin crystal would become a clue that would lead people to clarity city, and even to little Cold Peak.

Therefore, he planned to buy them separately so that he wouldn't leave any traces.

When he returned to little Cold Peak, he continued to deduce.

Soon, another three days passed.

On this day, in the early morning.

As usual, Tang Hao got up and went to the herb garden outside to water it and take care of it.

Then, he picked up the broom and went up the mountain.

"Young master Tang!"

On the mountain road, graceful figures could be seen from time to time. Some were pure and pleasant, some were gorgeous and charming, and their temperaments were all different, dazzling people's eyes.

Most of them would greet Tang Hao warmly when they saw him.

Tang Hao's current reputation had long since spread throughout the entire little Cold Peak. As the first man in the history of little Cold Peak, he received a lot of attention.

Although he was a servant, he was very popular among the female disciples on little Cold Peak because of his outstanding temperament.

Most of the female disciples were young and had just joined the sect. Most of them were in their thirties or forties, which was considered young in the world of cultivation. They were all youthful and innocent. Tang Hao sighed with emotion when he saw them.

"Ai! Big liar, What are you looking at! Where are your eyes looking!"

At this time, an untimely voice broke his sigh.

Ye Siyao rushed over from above and shouted at him.

"I didn't see anything!"

Tang Hao was confused.

"You're still trying to deny it? weren't you looking at those junior sisters just now? Hmph! Men! As expected, none of them are good things!" Ye Siyao landed and glared at Tang Hao with her beautiful eyes.

"I'm just looking around, can't I?"

"No!"

Ye Siyao snorted.

“Siyao! Don’t make things difficult for young master Tang!” Another figure swept over, lithe and graceful, with a gentle voice. It was su Xuezi.

“Lady su!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands at her and smiled.

“Young master Tang, how have you been? “Your body ...” She glanced at Tang Hao. Suddenly, she seemed to have thought of something. Her face blushed, and her eyes became a little shy.

“Oh! I’m fine!”

Tang Hao said.

“What could happen to him? his body is so strange and hard that I can even bite ... Oh! No, I can ‘t!” Ye Siyao said.

Thinking of what had happened that day, her beautiful face also blushed.

“Young master Tang, we’re going to the sutras Depository. Do you want to come with us?” Su Xuezi said.

“I’m just an errand boy, can I go?” Tang Hao was surprised.

“Sure! With your status, you can’t read cultivation techniques, but you can read other books that have nothing to do with cultivation. There are many ancient books in the great fate sect’s Depository of Scriptures. You can go through them and perhaps find a way to restore your Dao ocean and your cultivation!”

Su Xuezi said.

“There’s no such way! The peak Master has already said that he can’t recover!” Ye Siyao said.

Su Xuezi smiled.”Siyao, there are countless secret techniques in this world. No one can guarantee that there’s no such way. If it can be recovered, isn’t that a great thing?”

“What lady su said makes sense!”

Tang Hao smiled.”I’ll go with you, then!”

Tang Hao had no interest in the method to repair the sea of the path, as it was not damaged at all. However, he was still quite interested in the great fate sect’s Scriptures.

“Then let’s go! It’s on great fortune Peak!”

Su Xuezi said gently.

With that, she took the lead and walked down.

“Woof! Who is this person?”

The three of them attracted a lot of attention as they walked.

They were all shocked when they saw Tang Hao.

Then, they noticed the servant token on his waist.

“Oh! He’s the servant!”

“Tsk! I thought it was some powerful figure! So he’s a cripple!”

Their gazes immediately changed, revealing a strong sense of disdain.

The news of that errand boy from little Cold Peak had spread in the sect a few days ago, but not many people paid attention to him. After all, he was just a cripple, and could not arouse their interest at all.

Some of them even felt a little jealous when they saw this cripple walking together with su Xuezi and ye Siyao.

However, when he thought about how this person was just a cripple, he felt relieved. He sneered a few times and walked away in disdain.

“Isn’t this ... Lady su!”

Just as the three of them were about to reach great fortune Peak, a familiar voice suddenly came from the air.

Following that, a few figures descended. The person in the lead was tall, burly, and handsome. He was the number one genius of the great fate sect, Jiang Yun!
