

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2764

The lights in the cave abode were dim.

“Young master Tang, please turn around!”

Su Xuezi walked to the bedside, sat down sideways, and slowly removed her veil.

Then, her long dress slipped down.

When Tang Hao turned around, she shuddered. Then, she smiled bitterly and said in a self-deprecating tone, “I’m very ugly now, right?”

“No!”

Tang Hao shook his head.

He could tell that this was originally a beautiful face that could topple cities. However, now that it was covered in poison, black spots had grown on half of her face, which was why she had become like this.

The poison had even spread to his entire body.

“This poison is called the demon seed fetus poison. It’s an ancient poison. Once this poison enters the body, it will invade the internal organs, blood vessels, and meridians. Even the dantian and Dao ocean will be corroded, and one’s cultivation will no longer be able to progress.”

“Once the poison is exposed to the surface of the body, it will form these black spots. Once they grow, they can’t be removed.”

“This poison is very difficult to deal with. It has already fused with my flesh and meridians. It can’t be removed at all. The peak Master has asked for many pills for me, but they were all useless!”

Su Xuezi said softly.

She lowered her head and did not dare to look at Tang Hao.

“This poison ... Is interesting!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself after he examined the area.

Poison was a branch of the Dao of alchemy, so he was naturally very proficient in it. When he first heard about the demon seed fetus poison, he thought it was some new poison that was unique to this world, but now it seemed that it wasn’t anything new.

In Pangu, this poison was called the devil corpse ancient poison.

As the name suggested, it was a poison that was born from a corpse. Moreover, it was not an ordinary corpse, but a demon corpse.

In the beginning, this poison was born naturally from the corpses of some ancient fiendcelestials. Later, some fiendish cultivators tried to make their own poison and managed to make a poison with similar effects.

And this poison was indeed difficult to cure.

No wonder the people here were so helpless.

“Young master Tang, do you have any ideas?”

Seeing Tang Hao remain silent for a long time, su Xuezi couldn't help but ask, her voice trembling.

“There are!”

Tang Hao said.

“Really?” She was a little surprised and turned around abruptly.

Then, she realized that something was wrong and quickly turned back, her face completely red.

“Young master Tang, are you serious?” She lowered her head and said shyly. There was an irrepressible joy in her tone. “Can this poison really be cured? Can my face be restored?”

“If you're cured, you'll naturally recover!”

“But ...” Tang Hao said.

“But what?”

Su Xuezi's heart trembled as she blurted out.

“I need some time to prepare, about ten days!” Tang Hao furrowed his brows and thought for a moment.

If he was in the Holy region, it would be too easy to detoxify this poison. He could get the materials at will and then refine a pill. One pill would be enough to get rid of the poison completely.

However, he had nothing now.

And with the great fate sect's strength, it was impossible for them to gather all the materials.

Therefore, it was almost impossible to detoxify the poison with pills. He had to use another method, which was also the most primitive way of detoxification, and that was acupuncture!

What he needed to prepare was, of course, needles.

He was going to refine a set of needles himself. Although his sea of the path was sealed now, it would not be a problem to refine a set of needles after it was unsealed for a short while. He just could not open his sea of the path for a long time.

“Do you need anything? I’ll go talk to the peak Master. ”

Su Xuezi said.

“Jingshi!” “Three million will do!” Tang Hao said.

He had been to clarity city before, so he was familiar with the materials sold in the shops. Three million was enough to make a set of better materials to make a set of needles.

“Only Jingshi?”

Su Xuezi was a little surprised.

“Right! I only want Jingshi!” Tang Hao nodded.

“Oh! Oh right, it’s done. ”

Tang Hao came to his senses when he saw her. He quickly turned around.

There was a rustling sound.

She quickly put on her clothes and veil, but under the veil, her face was still a little red. Her eyes were even more shy, and she did not dare to look at him.

“Then I’ll go out first. When you get the crystals, send them to me!”

Tang Hao walked toward the entrance of the cave abode.

“Young master Tang!”

At this moment, she called out to him in a low voice.

“What’s wrong?”

Tang Hao turned around and looked at her.

She stood there, and under the candlelight, her pair of beautiful eyes sparkled. They were especially bright and resplendent, and those two beams of light were fixed on him, staring at him without blinking.

“No matter what the result is this time, whether you can be cured or not, I will be very grateful to you.” She said softly.

“Don’t worry, there won’t be any problems!”

Tang Hao said, smiling at her.

He turned around, opened the door of the cave and walked out.

Su Xuezi stood there, staring at the door in a daze.

Suddenly, she seemed to have thought of something, and her face blushed again, looking extremely shy.

Then, he pursed his lips and couldn't help but smile.

"How is it?" Outside the cave, Ye Siyao had been waiting for a long time, and she was getting a little impatient.

She rushed up to Tang Hao and asked anxiously.

"No problem!"

Tang Hao said.

"Really?"

Ye Siyao was stunned and a little suspicious.

"Why Would I Lie to You? if you don't believe me, then forget it!" Tang Hao said helplessly, then turned around and walked down the peak.

"Alright! I believe you, okay?"

"Su Xuezi!" Ye Siyao shouted and entered the cave to see su Xuezi.

When he reached the foot of the peak, he saw Yu qihong.

Seeing him, Yu qihong's face was full of shock.

The incident at the great fortune Peak had already spread throughout the entire sect.

She still couldn't believe that this new service disciple was such a monstrous talent. Even though he had lost his cultivation, he was able to cripple her number one core disciple with just a few words.

How powerful would such a person be if his cultivation was not crippled?

Looking at the young man in front of her, who had a kind face and called her sister qihong, she could not imagine it.

Tang Hao returned to the wooden house, sat down, and continued his deduction.

It was not difficult for him to detoxify the poison. After he got the crystals, he would go to clarity city to buy the materials and collect the remaining soul crystals in ten days.

When the time came, he could unseal his sea of the path, refine a set of needles, and then try out the refining method he had deduced. That would be just right.

At that moment, he began to deduce with a peace of mind.

The next day, su Xuezi came with three million crystal stones.

Tang Hao only left the house half a month later.

After more than twenty days, under the tireless deduction of his many souls, he finally created a set of refining methods for the Mirage.

Of course, this was only the prototype and was not perfect yet. Now, he needed to test it out and see if this set of refining methods was feasible.
