

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2765

Before he left, Tang Hao went to the great fate sect's Treasury as usual and took a few bags of crystals.

He first went to the four treasures Pavilion to collect the soul crystals.

Then, he went to various shops and used the three million to buy more than ten kinds of materials.

After leaving clarity city, he found a Valley nearby and sat down.

"First, open the sea of the Dao!"

He took a light breath and slowly opened the seal in his body.

In an instant, in his dantian's sea of Dao, a surge of celestial core power surged out and rushed to his limbs and bones. At the same time, his body also burst out with a dazzling celestial glow.

The surging pressure of the nine tribulations also overflowed and swept in all directions.

From a distance, it looked as if a blazing sun had appeared in the valley. It continued to grow, and in the blink of an eye, it had covered the entire Valley.

At this moment, all the ferocious beasts in the valley felt the pressure. They immediately prostrated themselves and shivered in fear.

"Not good!"

Tang Hao finally came to his senses. He quickly retracted the Supreme immortal radiance and the pressure around him.

After completely opening up the sea of the path, he activated his celestial core power and felt comfortable.

The days without immortal essence were really hard to bear.

"Let's refine the needles first!"

He smiled, took out his storage bag, and took out more than ten kinds of materials.

Then, the great void divine furnace flew out.

Once they entered the divine furnace, these materials immediately melted.

The Taixu divine fire could even refine immortal materials easily, let alone these metals that could not even be considered divine materials.

After about a minute, Tang Hao extracted the materials and combined them into a ball of liquid metal.

With a wave of his sleeve, the liquid dispersed and instantly condensed into thin and long silver needles.

His spiritual will moved and entered the inside of these silver needles. He started to inscribe formations.

Since it was a silver needle for saving people, he naturally carved a wood element formation first. It could transform celestial core power into the purest life force. This life force was strong enough to regrow the flesh and blood of cultivators, and even help them achieve Nirvana.

Then, he carved some formations that could use this powerful life force to suppress all poison and absorb it.

In the end, he left a trace of celestial core power and spiritual will in each needle.

“Alright, I’m done!”

The seventy-two silver needles were soon completed.

He took out a small box and placed the silver needles inside.

He kept the box and took out a purple crystal. It was the soul Origin crystal.

He raised his hand and threw the crystal in front of him.

Then, he sent his spiritual will into it and started to carve the talisman matrix.

This was the first step.

He wanted to first modify this crystal and refine it into a treasure that could be used as a container to store the ethereal Plane.

This first step took him an hour.

Then came the second step, which was also the most important one.

He took in a deep breath, and a true spirit walked out of the immortal aperture above his head. With a flash, it slashed out a ball of golden light.

This was the thought of a true spirit.

He grabbed the thought and held it in his hands.

Soon, the ball of golden light started to roll and change its shape. It dispersed into a vast Galaxy and then gathered back again, repeating itself.

Bang!

However, after repeating this for about ten times, the ball of golden light exploded.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows in disappointment.

“Again!”

He cut off another thought and began to cultivate.

This time, he finally succeeded. After repeating it ten or so times, the golden light suddenly shrank down, transforming into a tiny golden seed.

Tang Hao called it a soul seed, which was also the key to the birth of the ethereal Plane.

He needed to put the seed into a crystal and then explode it to create a soul world.

He grabbed the soul seed and carefully put it into the crystal. Then, with a thought, the seed expanded and exploded. With a bright golden light, a chaotic space was born.

“It’s done?”

Tang Hao was pleasantly surprised.

However, in the next moment, the space shattered without any warning and collapsed completely.

At the same time, with a crack, the purple crystal also shattered.

“I failed!”

Tang Hao clicked his tongue in disappointment.

“It should be possible. The soul world was born just now, but it was not strong enough and collapsed again.” Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he recalled the entire process.

After a while, he took out a piece of crystal and continued to try.

This time, the chaotic space was born as well, but it only lasted for a few seconds before it collapsed.

Tang Hao thought for a moment, then took out another crystal.

Just as he was engrossed in his refining, a pair of eyes from the top of a tower in clarity city, which was not far away, were watching him.

“What is this person’s cultivation level? I can’t see through it at all!”

“What kind of furnace is that? Oh my God! What an astonishing flame! This aura was too terrifying! I’ve never seen such a terrifying flame. It’s a hundred times stronger than the most powerful true flame I’ve ever seen!”

“Are these all talismans? Si si si! In the blink of an eye, he carved hundreds of thousands, even millions of talismans. What kind of astonishing array Dao attainments is this!”

“This ... This is a true spirit? Not hiding the true spirit?”

“This is a terrifying nine tribulations Almighty!”

The owner of this gaze couldn't help but tremble.

He had sensed an unknown, powerful aura near clarity city. He had used his divine telekinesis to Scout the surroundings and then he had seen this person.

He was shocked at first glance.

He couldn't see through this person's realm at all. It was unfathomable.

Then, he saw this person take out a furnace and start to refine the weapon. Whether it was the divine fire in the furnace or the refining method, they all made him extremely shocked.

The more he looked, the more shocked he was.

When he saw the undiscovered true spirit, he was shocked as if he had been struck by lightning.

Nine tribulations!

This was a nine tribulation Almighty!

Moreover, he was a ninth tribulation Almighty with terrifying strength and shocking craftsmanship!

“Who is he? In Yunzhou, there aren't many ninth tribulation transcendents!” He looked at the figure again, and his scalp went numb.

There were only three of the nine tribulations in Yunzhou. The Gu God sect, the divine fire sect, and the heaven slaying sect each had one. However, it was obvious that this person could not be one of the three. In Yunzhou, the three of them were so respected that they would not come to such a remote place.

This person is most likely a nine tribulations cultivator from the other eight continents!

Coincidentally, he was passing by clarity city, so he decided to forge a weapon here.

“I hope this person will leave after refining the weapon!”

He said with a bitter smile.

Clarity city was too small. Even the nine Heavens regions were too small to contain such a mighty figure!

Such a powerful person could turn the entire Nine Heavens regions upside down with just a finger.

He didn't dare to look any longer and hurriedly retracted his gaze. His mind was a little uneasy. What if this powerful person had discovered that he was spying and was furious, killing his way to his door?

He was afraid that with a wave of his hand, clarity city would be gone!

For a time, he could not sit still and was terrified.
