

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2782

"It's him? Or a crippled Emperor?"

Hearing this, Daoist min was surprised.

His eyes immediately swept towards the mountain Gate and landed on the white-robed figure.

After sizing him up, he sneered. "Fellow Daoist, you look very unfamiliar! He wasn't from Yunzhou, was he? You've lost your cultivation, so why are you acting so arrogantly in Yunzhou? do you really think there's no one in Yunzhou?"

"That set of immortal needles of yours is pretty good. Maybe I can let you go!"

As he spoke, his eyes were burning with passion.

That set of immortal needles was too important to the Gu God sect. The Gu God sect was a poison master. They could not tolerate the existence of such a set of ancient needles that could detoxify all poisons in the world.

Such a treasure, they had to hold it in their hands.

"You want to ... Let me go?"

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He had a playful look on his face.

"Hand over the item first and I'll let you go. Otherwise, don't blame me for being impolite! Since you've come to the cloud continent, you should know the reputation of the Gu God sect! If you offend the Gu God sect, I'll make sure you die without a burial place!"

Daoist min said arrogantly, his nostrils rising.

He wasn't afraid even if they were of the same cultivation level. In Yunzhou, the Gu God sect could do whatever they wanted, not to mention that this was a deposed Emperor.

"Senior mo, please uphold justice! We saw that he was injured and had drifted over from the river, so we kindly took him in. We didn't expect him to repay our kindness with ingratitude and want to exterminate the entire great fate sect!"

Daoist Red Moon shouted.

"There's such a thing? He was really too vicious! Such an act is simply infuriating to both man and God!"

Daoist min flicked his sleeve in anger, looking like he was filled with righteous indignation.

Seeing this, Mirage Jade sect master and the others outside the door revealed looks of joy.

They couldn't wait for this person to take action earlier and ruthlessly deal with that cripple!

“Gu God sect? I’ve heard of it, but it doesn’t seem like much!”

Tang Hao laughed.

“What?”

Daoist min was stunned and thought he had misheard. This guy said that his Gu God sect was not good? This was too F * cking arrogant!

Among the three superpowers of the cloud continent, the Gu God sect was the most famous!

He was just a deposed Emperor, how could he look down on the Gu God sect?

“You’re looking for death!”

He was furious and shouted, and a shocking killing intent emerged around him.

“I didn’t want to fight at first, but now I’ve changed my mind. I’m going to suppress you and use your body to refine Gu. The body of a true spirit Emperor is the best cauldron for refining Gu!”

He raised his hand, and a black can appeared in his palm.

A rustling sound came from the can, which made people’s scalps numb.

“This is a seven-colored celestial Phoenix that I’ve spent my entire life cultivating. It’s the Supreme Being of the Xiu clan, and he loves the flesh of venerable sovereigns like you the most!”

Daoist min opened the jar, and a seven-colored centipede crawled out. It was very small, only as long as a finger, but the energy it was emitting was extremely shocking.

“Gulp!”

When the four venerable sovereigns saw this, their faces changed and turned pale.

They had all heard of this seven-colored celestial Phoenix. Many venerable sovereigns had already lost their lives to this poisonous creature.

Venerable sovereigns were not afraid of ordinary means. As long as they could not be completely killed at once, they could be reborn. Their bodies were almost indestructible. However, they were afraid of the way of Gu poison.

Once this poisonous substance entered one’s body, it would truly be a fate worse than death.

“This little baby of mine hasn’t had meat for a long time. Today, I’ll let him have a taste of meat!”

Daoist min laughed evilly, his eyes were filled with viciousness.

Then, he flicked his hand, and the centipede turned into a ray of rainbow light and shot out.

Tang Hao stood there with a strange expression on his face.

He didn't Dodge, allowing the centipede to fly over and land on his chest.

Daoist min was overjoyed to see this.

This guy was really crippled. Without his immortal essence, he couldn't resist. Now that his precious centipede was close to him, he was dead. No matter how hard the undying immortal body was, it couldn't stop his precious centipede.

Daoist Red Moon, Mirage Jade school master, and the others were also overjoyed.

This guy was finished!

However, after a while, they were stunned, and the joy on their faces gradually froze.

After waiting for a long time, the centipede was still digging. It was like a headless fly, spinning around on the chest, but it could not burrow into the flesh.

"This ... How is this possible?"

Daoist min was stunned.

What kind of body did this guy cultivate? how could it block his seven-colored celestial Phoenix?

"Don't go in, you can't!"

Tang Hao mumbled as he looked down at the centipede. He reached out and grabbed the centipede.

"Although it's a little ugly, it's still a spiritual object. I'll just eat it!"

He opened his mouth and threw the centipede into his mouth. After chewing a few times, he swallowed it.

Daoist min was stunned!

He froze there, his eyes almost popping out of their sockets!

He felt like he was going crazy!

That was a F * cking seven-colored celestial Phoenix! It was the most poisonous thing in the world, and also the most poisonous one among the Qiang tribe. In this world, how could there be someone who dared to swallow such a poisonous thing? what kind of monster was this?

He looked at the guy in front of him and felt his scalp go numb.

“Why are you still fine? What the hell is this guy?”

He muttered in his heart, trembling.

Daoist Red Moon, sect master of Mirage Jade, and the others also widened their eyes in horror. They were greatly frightened.

“Hey! Is there any more?”

Tang Hao licked his lips and shouted at Daoist min, “it’s pretty good!”

“You bastard, you actually dared to eat my treasure, you’re looking for death! I’m going to refine you, I’m going to make sure you can never reincarnate!”

Daoist min was so angry that his face turned ferocious.

He flicked his sleeve, and a black spike flew out. It buzzed and trembled, emitting a shocking cold aura.

Whoosh!

The next moment, the spike flew out and turned into a black divine light.

“I think ... You’re the one who’s looking for death!”

Tang Hao’s expression darkened as he said coldly.

He stomped his foot and his body shot out. He easily dodged the black divine light and arrived in front of Daoist min. Then, he struck out with his palm.

Daoist min was first shocked, then his eyes opened wide, from the immortal aperture above his head, a huge amount of true spirit energy poured out.

But before his power of true spirit could reach his opponent’s immortal aperture, his eyes opened wide and he revealed an expression of extreme fear, his face turning pale.

In the opponent’s immortal aperture, there was also the power of true spirit, but it was not an ordinary true spirit, it had an immortal aura, it was extremely terrifying!

This ... Was clearly not afraid of the true spirit! This was the symbol of the nine tribulations!

This guy wasn’t a true spirit stage Overlord, he was clearly a terrifying 9th tribulation Almighty, a figure on the level of a holy ancestor!

“Senior, please spare my life!”

He cried out in horror, his heart full of regret.

All of these 9th tribulation Almighties were peerless figures. He, a mere true spirit stage cultivator, had actually attacked these people. He was really tired of living!

However, the palm did not stop and continued to strike.

Bang!

Daoist min's body exploded instantly, and blood splattered everywhere.
