

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2787

Tang Hao quickly finished his tour of the city.

He also had a certain understanding of the cloud Sea.

This ocean was extremely vast. At the end of the endless ocean was another continent, Leizhou.

In the sea, fierce beasts ran rampant, and dangerous areas were everywhere. It was difficult for ordinary cultivators to pass through. Even a seventh tribulation Saint would find it difficult to pass through safely. Only venerable sovereigns had the strength to do so.

In this ocean, there were many 8th tribulation giant beasts. They were all hundreds of thousands of feet long, some even hundreds of thousands of feet long, which was very shocking.

Some of the most ancient giant beasts could even reach a million feet. They were truly massive beasts.

There were also ninth tribulation giant beasts, but there were not many of them. Moreover, they were all close to legendary existences, and no one had seen them for many years.

In this ocean, there were many xiuzhe, and the cultivation world was quite prosperous.

Most of the forces in the sea used islands as their headquarters and were spread out in all directions.

Moreover, there were many demon clans in this sea, and there were many demon clan forces.

This dalang city was only the outermost city of the cloud Sea. It was the place that connected the cloud continent and the cloud Sea.

They would only be considered to have truly entered the cloud sea's cultivation world after they passed through big wave City.

"Giant turtle Island, crayfish Island ... Spirit Whale Island, why do they all have such names?"

Tang Hao bought a Sea Map. He opened it and saw trading islands marked on it. They had all sorts of names, but most of them were named after sea beasts.

After reading it once, he put away the sea Map and found a restaurant to sit down.

He was going to sit there for a while before going to the sea to look for fierce beasts.

As soon as he entered, he heard people talking about what had happened that night.

"The Gu God patriarch is powerful, isn't he? he has been dominating the cloud continent for many years. But he is nothing in front of the mysterious holy ancestor. After two moves, he was so scared that he ran away and said that he would never step into the nine Heavens regions again!"

“That mysterious divine ancestor ... Is he really that powerful? Even the Gu God patriarch is so scared?”

“It’s just that awesome. It’s absolutely true. Right now, the entire cloud continent is talking about it. Everyone’s guessing who the divine ancestor is!”

“To be able to scare off the Gu God patriarch, I think he’s not ordinary! They might not be from our Cang Liu star, but from the more powerful stars, or even from da Luo star!”

“I think he’s most likely from the Daluo planet. Only that kind of place can produce such a powerful person.”

Tang Hao sat down, ordered a pot of wine and a few dishes, and started listening to the song.

“Da Luo planet?”

His expression changed when he heard about da Luo planet.

In the Daluo celestial realm, the most powerful one was naturally the Daluo star. It was the center of the entire celestial realm, and one of the rebels, the Daluo heavenly Palace, was located on that star.

Of course, he had to go to da Luo planet to take a look, but not now. Before his cultivation was fully recovered, he would not go because it was too risky.

According to his guess, da Luo planet might have had a true immortal.

“That great fate sect is really F * cking lucky to be able to pick up such an important person from the river. Their luck is really amazing!”

“Hahaha! It’s their fault for having such a good name. The great fate sect is very lively right now. Many powers have sent people there, even the divine fire sect and the heaven slaying sect. ”

They spoke of the great fate sect again, their tone full of envy.

Tang Hao laughed when he heard that. It seemed that the great fate sect had become famous.

“Hey! The person we randomly picked up from the river turned out to be an injured divine ancestor. This luck is simply unparalleled. We can’t be envious of him. It’s more realistic to look forward to the trade fair in a few days and get more treasures. ”

One of the burly men took a gulp of wine and bitterly smiled.

“That’s true!”

The others laughed and also took a sip of wine.

“A trade fair?”

Tang Hao's expression changed when he heard that.

He had been to this trade fair many times before. The form of the trade fair was similar in every place. It was likely that the trade fair here was the same. It was a way for cultivators from all sides to put out their own things and Exchange what they needed.

"Interesting!"

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow. He was interested.

He actually quite liked to shop at this kind of trade fair. If he was lucky, he would be able to find quite a few treasures and pick up some scraps.

"Let's go and take a look!"

He went to ask around and found out that the trade fair would be held seven days later on the spirit Whale Island, which was quite far from The Great Wave City. The scale of the trade fair was rather large and it was the largest trading event in the cloud Sea. It was only held once every three years.

"There are still seven days. There's no hurry. I can go to the sea and find some ferocious beasts to eat."

Tang Hao calculated.

After he finished drinking, he left big wave City and rode the Skylark toward the sea.

He kept moving forward, going deeper and deeper.

The deeper they went, the more sea beasts there were, and the stronger they were.

His target was an 8th tribulation or even 9th tribulation beast, so he naturally had to go deeper.

He sat on the back of the Skylark with his eyes closed. He was taking advantage of this free time to continue deducing and perfecting his own Ethereal Plane refinement technique.

If he wanted to recover his cultivation, he could not neglect the deduction of the Mirage.

"What?"

After flying for three days, Tang Hao's mind suddenly stirred. He heard movement in the sea below him. It seemed like a huge beast was rushing up from the sea, and its target was him.

"I didn't expect it to deliver itself to my door!"

Tang Hao grinned.

At this time, the sea surface below him suddenly exploded, and an incomparably huge shark rushed out. It opened its bloody mouth and bit towards him.

The giant shark was dark blue in color and there were complicated patterns on its back. There were flashes of lightning and the aura it emitted was that of an eighth tribulation.

Whoosh!

As the giant shark rushed out, huge waves surged up with a terrifying momentum.

The body of this giant shark was too huge. It was more than a hundred thousand feet long and was as large as an Island.

“You came just in time!”

Tang Hao laughed. The seal in his body was broken, and his immortal essence gushed out.

The aura of the nine tribulations suddenly spread out.

The giant shark was stunned.

He could sense that the aura of the human above him had suddenly changed. At first, there was no aura at all and he was pitifully weak. But now, he had suddenly become a ninth tribulation, which was extremely terrifying.

F * ck!

He had been tricked! Damned human!

He roared in his heart.

Originally, he was bored and just happened to see this little bug riding a bird over his head. He wanted to swallow it, but he didn't expect that this weak and pitiful little bug was actually a terrifying ninth tribulation existence.

This was really bad luck!

He hurriedly stopped and was about to dive back into the sea.

But it was already too late. In the sky, a huge palm that covered the sky condensed and slammed down brazenly. There were shocking flames and lightning curled around it. The power was impressive, like the palm of a God.
