

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2788

Bang!

There was a loud bang.

The giant shark was hit by the sky-covering palm, and its huge body immediately exploded, blood and flesh splattering everywhere.

An 8th tribulation giant beast had died in an instant.

“Collect!”

Tang Hao reached out his hand again, and the blood and flesh that had exploded all over the sky immediately stopped. He clenched his fist again and collected them all into the great void divine furnace.

Divine fire burned fiercely in the furnace. The moment the shark’s flesh entered the furnace, it was refined into a golden divine liquid.

He opened his mouth again, and the divine liquid flew out and was swallowed into his stomach.

“The effect is not bad!”

The judge muttered as he touched his mouth.

The flesh and blood of this shark was much stronger than those immortal herbs from before.

The bodies of beasts were very strong, and they were extremely large. They contained the most spiritual essence. If compared to human cultivators, one beast could be compared to several humans of the same level.

“If more than 100 of these ferocious beasts come, it’ll probably be equivalent to a ninth tribulation. If 300 to 400 of them come, I’ll be able to heal the wounds near the sea of the path. By then, I won’t have to seal the sea of the path.”

He made a rough estimation.

300 to 400 eighth tribulation beasts were not a lot. There were definitely some in the cloud Sea, but it was not easy to find them. After all, this sea was too vast and deep. These beasts were scattered all over the place. Some were even hidden very deep, so it was not easy to find them.

After pondering for a while, a golden light flashed above his head, and eighteen true spirits rushed out and dove into the sea, heading in all directions.

The speed of true spirits was even faster than the physical body. In order to find the beasts at the fastest speed, one had to rely on these true spirits.

“There’s an old octopus over there!”

With divine light in his eyes, he scanned the surroundings and found an eighth tribulation beast.

His figure moved and immediately disappeared from where he was.

In the next moment, he had already appeared near the old octopus.

The old octopus was fighting with a group of human cultivators. These human cultivators were sitting on several big ships. On each big ship, there were layers of light screens. From time to time, divine light would surge out from these big ships and blast toward the old octopus.

Upon closer inspection, one could see that all of these ships had the same flag. One side had the word “Ji” on it, while the other side had a nine-headed Sea Dragon.

“The Ji family!”

Tang Hao recognized him immediately.

There were a few powerful forces in the cloud Sea, and one of them was the Ji family.

“A few venerable sovereigns who have opened five or six apertures want to kill this old octopus?”

He glanced at the ship and couldn’t help but laugh.

In this group of Ji family cultivators, the strongest was only at six apertures, and the other two were at five apertures. How could they be a match for this old octopus?

Although the old octopus was only around the realm of six apertures, fierce beasts had always been stronger than humans of the same level.

His figure flashed and appeared in front of the old octopus.

His sudden appearance attracted the attention of both sides.

The Ji family’s cultivators were all startled, and then their expressions changed, revealing a bit of anger.

They had been grinding this old octopus for a long time. As long as they continued to grind, they would have a chance to kill it. Even if they couldn’t kill it, as long as they could cut off a few tentacles, it would be a big harvest.

The flesh and blood of these 8th tribulation fierce beasts were comparable to the top-notch spiritual essence of divine medicine and immortal medicine.

But now, this person had suddenly appeared. Without a doubt, he was here to pick the fruits of their labor. How could they not be angry?

On this Cloud Sea, there was actually someone who dared to Rob his Ji family's things. How audacious!

The old octopus was also shocked. From this figure, he could feel a heart-palpitating aura, as if this person was some kind of unparalleled evil, extremely terrifying!

His body immediately froze on the spot, not daring to move.

Tang Hao reached out his hand and was about to catch the old octopus.

At this moment, an angry shout came from the ship behind, "Who are you? How dare you snatch something from my Ji family!"

"Are you blind? can't you see the nine-headed Sea Dragon flags? It's so rare today that someone actually dared to touch my Ji family's things!" Then, he shouted angrily again, his tone extremely overbearing.

"Something from the Ji family?" Tang Hao was surprised. "Is this old octopus raised by your Ji family?" he laughed. How come I don't see your Ji family's symbol on his body?"

"Of course we didn't raise it, but we've been grinding it for so long. This old octopus belongs to our Ji family. Why did you jump out at this time?"

A middle-aged man in a black robe on the ship in the middle shouted angrily.

He was surrounded by the undying celestial glow and had opened five apertures.

On his right stood two old men in the same Daoist robe. The one in the middle had the most imposing aura, and he was the only venerable Emperor Liu Qiao.

The old man with six apertures opened stared at the figure in front of him with an unfriendly expression.

On this sea, only the Ji family would steal from others. No one would steal from the Ji family.

"You want to kill this old octopus with just a few of you? I think you're just wasting your efforts! With your strength, you can't even bite off a piece of meat from this old octopus! It's better to give up as soon as possible!"

Tang Hao glanced at them again and shook his head.

"You ..."

The three emperors of the Ji clan were furious.

They also knew that with their strength, it would be very difficult to bite a piece of the old octopus's flesh, so they chose to grind it down. However, it was one thing to know it, but it was another thing to be pointed out and ridiculed in public.

"Your Excellency's tone is quite big! I don't know what your identity is, but you actually dare to look down on my Ji family!"

The old man with six apertures opened sneered and his eyes were cold.

"I don't have any status!" Tang Hao said indifferently.

"So you're a rogue cultivator! Hahaha! Since when did a rogue cultivator dare to be so arrogant and laugh at my Ji family? you're really not afraid of death!"

The black-robed man immediately sneered, his face full of mockery.

In the end, he was just an itinerant cultivator. He thought that he had some big background, which was why he was so arrogant!

"Get lost! Don't get in our way, or else don't blame us for being impolite!" He waved his hand and shouted without any restraint.

"Oh? I'd like to see how you're going to be so unkind!"

Tang Hao placed his hands behind his back and grinned.

"Hmph! Don't think that you can be fearless just because you're a venerable sovereign and a wandering cultivator. The ancestor of my Ji family is close to the ninth tribulation and is only half a step away from the ninth tribulation holy ancestor. Killing a venerable sovereign like you is a piece of cake!"

The black-robed man sneered.

"Close to the ninth tribulation means it's not the ninth tribulation!"

The corners of Tang Hao's mouth lifted, and his smile became even more radiant.

"But killing you is as easy as slaughtering chickens and dogs!"

The black-robed man said angrily.

"Is that so? Then call him over and let me see how he'll slaughter me like a chicken!" Tang Hao chuckled. His face darkened, and his body shook. With a loud boom, the aura around him exploded.

The dazzling nine tribulations immortal radiance instantly bloomed and enveloped the entire heaven and earth.
