

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2793

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

On the white bone ship, many figures flew out.

A group of people in ferocious armor stood in the void, and the cold aura around them spread out, freezing the void in all directions.

The two people at the front had the most powerful auras. One of them wore a white ghost mask, while the other wore a pitch-black Ghost mask. They were the ghost Rakshasa and the night Rakshasa, both of whom were at the true spirit stage.

“Where is he?”

The two of them looked around and shouted.

“Reporting to the two Rakshasas, he has already left.” In the market below, someone rushed up, half-knelt, and respectfully said.

“They left? You’re letting him go just like that?”

GUI Luosha snorted angrily.

“That man is a great emperor, this one doesn’t dare to chase after him.” The man’s body trembled, and his expression became somewhat panicked.

“Emperor realm? Did you recognize which force he was from, or which cave he was from?” The night Rakshasa asked.

The man immediately shook his head and said hesitantly, “this person is very unfamiliar. No one here knows him. However, he has an extraordinary aura and seems to have some background. In addition, he is a great emperor. No one dared to act rashly, so they let him go.”

“Some background? Hmph! At this time, who cares about his background? even if he has a great background, it’s useless. Don’t even think about leaving with the proud heaven treasure!”

GUI Luosha said angrily, “which way did he go?”

“That way!”

The man raised his hand and pointed in a direction outside the island.

“Let’s go!”

Rakshasa GUI turned around and was about to return to the ship to continue the pursuit.

“Two Rakshasas, wait a moment.” That person hesitated for a moment before speaking.

“What’s wrong?”

GUI Luosha stopped in his tracks and shouted impatiently, “if you have something to say, say it!”

“This little one asked around just now and heard from the stall owner next door that during the previous transaction, that stall owner had given that person a Sea Map and that person had also accepted it.” That person said.

“You’re saying ... We can track them with that Sea Map?”

Rakshasa GUI was startled.

“That’s right! I’ve also found out that the stall owner is just a loose cultivator, called Ling Guang Zhenren, who occupied a small island as his immortal’s cave. He also ran away just now, as if he was afraid of being implicated, but he won’t think about it for the time being that we would have our eyes on the sea Map. If we go now, we can just catch him. ”

“Good! Hahaha! Good idea!”

GUI Luosha laughed out loud, feeling very happy.

As long as he could track down the whereabouts of that guy, with the strength of the Luosha Island, he could easily suppress him and take the treasure of aotian.

At that time, he could hide on Luosha Island with his prideful heaven treasure. Once the formation was activated, even a nine tribulations old monster would be helpless.

“Fellow Daoist ghost, what good idea is that? Since you’re so happy, why don’t you say it and let me wait to hear it? I’m happy!”

At this moment, a rough and bold voice was heard.

Everyone looked in the direction of the voice and saw another ripple in the sky not far away. A huge ship tore open the void and descended. The body of the ship was completely black, and the head of the ship was carved with a dragon head. It was very lifelike.

As soon as the warship descended, a monstrous demonic aura spread out.

On the bow of the ship, many figures stood. Some were burly, tall and strong like iron towers, while others were shriveled and thin like old cranes. Each of them was shrouded in an undying immortal radiance and had an extraordinary aura.

“It’s the demon Island!”

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

It was the demon Island, one of the four major forces. It was the gathering place of the demon tribe in the cloud Sea. There were many powerful Demon tribe cultivators there. In terms of strength, they were not inferior to the Luosha Island at all. In fact, their overall strength was even stronger.

“Motherf * cker! It’s this group of bastards again!”

Rakshasa GUI’s face darkened as he cursed.

The Devil Island and the demon Island had always been at odds with each other.

“Fellow Daoist ghost, how can you curse at me? Did my demon race offend your Devil Island recently?”

With a burst of heroic laughter, the burly figure at the bow of the ship swept out.

A few figures flew up from below and transmitted a few words to him.

“Ling Guang Zhenren, right? Hahaha! Thank you, fellow Daoist GUI. Your Devil Island is really good at gathering information!”

After hearing this, he laughed again and turned around to return to the ship and rush to the spiritual light Island.

“Old whale thief, that’s the information my Devil Island found out. That guy belongs to my Devil Island. Don’t even think about touching him!” GUI Luosha was instantly enraged as he shouted.

He was a little anxious.

This group of old demons was quite strong. If they really fought, they might not be able to win.

The whale demon returned to the ship and sneered, “how can you say that the person is your Devil island’s before he is even in your hands? as long as I get it first, it will naturally belong to my Demon Island!”

“You ...”

Rakshasa GUI’s voice faltered, and his face turned red under the White ghost mask.

“Whale Emperor, aren’t you going a little too far? I got the news from Devil Island!” The night Rakshasa said in an unfriendly tone.

“What, do you want to fight here? Come on! Whoever wins, that whatever immortal Guang will be his!”

The whale Emperor laughed heartily as he spoke in a heroic manner.

“Come on! Human brat, come and fight with your Grandpa!”

A wave of provocative laughter immediately came from the demon race’s warship.

“Hmph! I’m not afraid of you!”

Curses were also heard from the Luosha ships.

For a moment, both sides were in a state of mutual hostility, as if they were about to fight.

The xiuzhe of the four sides were slightly nervous as they watched and hurriedly retreated.

There were many true spirit stage cultivators on both sides, as well as a large number of venerable sovereigns. Once they started fighting, it would definitely be an earth-shattering scene. If they were affected, they would be in trouble.

“Yo! What’s going on? why are the two sides so angry? did that proud heaven treasure fall into the hands of one of you?”

At this moment, another large ship tore through the void and descended. It was dazzling with golden light and had Dragons and phoenixes carved on it. It was incomparably gorgeous.

On it stood a group of cultivators dressed in white robes. The one in the lead had white hair and a white beard, and was also wearing a white robe. Under the cover of the clouds on the ship, he really looked like an immortal, floating and ethereal.

Aooo!

There were also Dragon Souls swimming on the ship, which made it even more extraordinary.

“The righteous Alliance has come!”

“It’s perfected haocheng!”

All the cultivators looked over and exclaimed in low voices.

Another great force! The behemoth of the cloud Sea!

“My fellow Daoists, please calm down. Tell me, where is the treasure?” Standing at the bow of the ship, Daoist master haocheng looked around, stroked his beard, and smiled with a kind and amiable expression.

“Oh! He ran away! You guys are going to capture a wandering cultivator called Ling Guang!”

A divine light shot up from below, and he reached out and grabbed it. Then, he laughed. “Fellow Daoists, you can fight first. Take your time. My righteous Alliance will go and capture him for you.”

“Motherf * cker! Sly old fox!”

The two sides that were in a confrontation were cursing in unison.

The righteous Alliance sounded like a righteous Alliance, but in reality, it was a group of cunning, sinister, despicable, and shameless old foxes, a group of hypocrites!

“Senior haocheng, let’s go together! It’s on the way!”

At this time, accompanied by a burst of bell-like crisp laughter, another large ship tore open the void and descended. It was a nine-headed Sea Dragon Ship, and at the bow of the ship stood a graceful and charming figure.

Her arrival attracted the attention of all the xiuzhe in the surroundings.